What's in McClure's.

The Christmas McClure's contains some of the most varied, picturesque, and striking material which the magazine has ever gathered togther in a single number. Perhaps the most interesting single feature is an editorial article in which a life of Mary Baker G. Eddy and a history of Christian Science are announced, to begin in January. Christian Science is a movement on which all eyes are turned to-day, and the announcement that a true history of this great romantic movement and its leader is forth. coming, marks an excellent stroke of magazine policy. Another chapter of Music. the Carl Schurz Reminiscences recalls his first journey to the new crude West, a visit in London, and the first hearing of Jenny Lind and of Wagner-a re markable musical experience described with great poetry of feeling.

This is one of McClure's strong art

numbers. The color frontispiece, from a painting by de Ivanowski, is an exextremely dramatic conception, executed with great power. E. D. Blumenschein has made some striking drawings for C. F. Holder's story, "Clancy of the Jack-Pot;" Alice Barber Stephens illustrates "On the Ridge" with color pictures. Albert Sterner contributes two full page drawings for Miss Wilkinson's "Salutation to Russia." F. Walter Taylor, John Sloan, and Maude and Genevieve Cowles contributes some of their best work. The clover design, a richly decorative Christmas piece, is by Blendon Camp-

The Power of Pictures.

If any questions the power of pictures let him pause for a moment to reflect before giving expression to his mis-givings. Think of the fabulous sums which are paid for the products of the masters, on the other hand, just see, how the cartoons and comic sections of the Sunday periodicals are fairly devoured by the public. If a mute picture or set of cartoons holds such sway, how much greater is the attraction of Moving Picture Comdy or' Drama. Here we have trained artists in pantomime, interpreting their roles exactly as they would before a selected company of critics, every move studiously exact, so that it is understood by all nationalities, whether able to converse together or not.

The entire audience is moved to laughter, to tears or shudders and vice versa, without a word being spoken, as if by magic. Where is the author who can claim such results for his play?

Where is the dramatic or operatic production to-day that can keep an audience convulsed with laughter or swayed with emotion as is being done everywhere by The Herald Square

If you would enjoy a genuine treat forget your dignity and be happy with real laughter for two solid hours, why just go at once and secure a seat for The Herald Square Moving Pictures at the Opera House, Wednesday, Dec.

An Open Letter From Mr. Nason. appearing among you annually in comedy-drama—such pieces as "The help them in securing their grievances. American Girl," "An American Hustler" and "A Ragged Hero." But dur-ing the last seven years the tastes of the public have changed and the one demand on all sides has been for comedy which I have had written to fit his personality, entitled "Hello Bill."

It will be a musical production throughout, bubbling over with good comedy, catchy music and pretty girls. Special attention will be made to the costuming. The chorus making no less than eight changes during the action of the piece.

For several years back Mr. Hall has been continually plied with the question: "Why don't you bring a musical show with a chorus? etc., etc.

In anwer to that question I invite you to call and see Mr. Hall in the big scribed to the new church at Castle rounded by a company of clever comedians and singers and dancers, and assisted by a bevy of pretty girls.

Sincerely, FRANK W. NASON, Sole Manager.

In orderato make room for Xmas framed pictures I will close out my entire stock on hand at one half price. Christmas is not far off and they will come in handy for presents. W. G. BAIR.

The "Ninety and Nine", from the pen of the playwright, Ramsey Morris, is the underlined attraction at the Emporium Opera House, Saturday evening, Dec. 8th and while it is not a religious play as its title might suggest, it carries a moral story that teaches a strong temperance lesson, and founded as it is in a country town of the middle west, its pretty love story, with its intrigues, plots and counter plots, carries a wholesome air of the flower ladened prairies of Indiana, and coupled with the art of a master stage builder the show is, one of the real offerings of the season. The original New York production will be used. Prices, $1.00, 75c, 50c; ichildren 25c.

Ninety and Nine From Buffalo News At the Lyceum Theatre last evening, The Ninety and Nine," opened to good business. The play is presented by an excellent company and is finely mounted The locomotive scene where an engine running at full speed through a forest fire is shown is one of the best ever put on a local stage. Wm. Marble, Jr., is Tom Silverton, who is a drunkard but reforms and makes the great run with the engine. He does good work Arthur Snader does good work also as Hud Bryson, a half witted boy. Eileen O'Malley is capable as Ruth Blake, who eventually marries the hero. Other members of the company include D. Barclay, Herbert Curtis, Hattie Remple, George Gebhart, Fred Worth, Al Reninger, Wm. Marbie, Sr., Ella Marble, Florence Langdon, May N. Drew, Minerva Florence, Elizabeth Remple, Madeline The com-West and May Washburn. pany is excellent and the play is one

The jury in the trial of Chester E. Gillette for the murder of his sweet heart Grace Brown, at Big Moose Lake on July 11 last, just before midnight (Tuesday,) returned a verdict of guilty in the first degree.

Sentence will be pronounced this (Thursday) morning, to which time court adjourned after the jury had reported. Former Senator Mills, Gillett's counsel, before adjournment, announced that when court reconvened at 10 o'clock this Thursday morning he would move to have the verdict set aside.

The jury which had deliberated for five hours sent word at 11 o'clock that a verdict had been reached. A moment later they filed into the court room and at 11:15 o'clock an officer who had been sent for Gillette returned with the prisoner.

Pale and a trifle nervous apparently Gillette faced the jury, and when Marshall Hatch, the foreman, declared that a verdict of guilty in the first degree had been found, the youthful prisoner gave no sign of emotion. A few moments later when his counsel had announced his purpose of making a formal motion that the verdict be set aside, and the judge was dismissing the jurors Gillette bent over a nearby table and picking up a pencil wrote something upon a sheet of paper. He then folded the paper carefully and placed it in his pocket, immediately afterwards he was taken from the court room back to his cell! in the

It was learned that the jury had some difficulty in reaching an agreement and six ballots were takes be fore the twelve men agreed. Up to that time the jury had stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal.

Solid Week of Sport. C. C. Cumblin, Edward Stutzman, J. W. Morrow and John J. Handson, of Highspire, Pa., were guests of the Sinnamahoning Powder Company all of last week, making their headquarters at New Warner, but put in the entire week hunting for pheasants and rabbits. Mose Minard was the official guide for the party while hunting and there is no better guide in the state according to the Highspire gents. They were greatly pleased with the brace of pheasants and rabbits they took home of the best which will be seen here with them. It speaks for the scenic views of this section, when these peorunning through it, it is clean and ple wished for photos of the surround ing hills and farms that Mose made enough exciting incidents to keep the them climb or slide down, while after the pheasants. They had the best views of genuine wilderness to be obtained, with which they were more than pleased. As a hunting proposi-tion they could not praise Cameron county enough and the kindness of the Sinnamahoning Powder Company. Mr. E. L. Mason, and expert cook and crack shot, and Mr. Chas. Logan accompanied the party two or three Big Hunt.

Mr. John Caskey and three sons, of Ridgway, enjoyed a week's hunting in section, returning home last Saturday. They secured a good bunch of game and captured one deer. Mulberry Street Church Repairs. Williamsport News, Nov. 30.

That the congregation of the Mulberry street Methodist church is enjoying a measure of prosperity never before experienced in its history is attested by certain improvements in the church edifice now contemplated. It was learned to day on good authority that one member of the church had offered to provide for the refrescoing of the interior of the main auditorium and the entrance hall and stairway. This improvement will be made without expense to the board of trustees. Ten beautiful memorial windows are also proposed.

In connection with the fresco work it is said that the board of trustees will provide for the retouching of the wood work of the interior. When completed these improvements will give the handsome interior a greatly beautified ap-pearance. The church has long needed such repairs and the offer by a member of the congregation to provide for the bulk of the improvements will be greatly appreciated. The offer has opened the the way for more extensive repairs.

The proposed memorial windows will be installed as fast as they are contracted for by the friends or relatives of church members now deceased. Two have already been provided for and it is expected that several more will be sold in the near future.

During the past year there have been 50 accessions to the congregation. Recently $600 was paid on the general church debt and further reduction of the debt is contemplated. The church since the coming to its pastorate of the Rev. Oliver S. Metzler, has been enjoying unusual prosperity.

Cook's Hotel Destroyed by Fire

flames were seen issuing from the front room of Cook's Hotel and soon the entire building was a solid mass of fire. The fire companies responded but the low pressure of water rendered it impossible to subdue the fire. The building, owned by the Walker Estate, was insured for $1,000 through the F. G. Judd agency. The loss on building and contents is placed at $3,500.

It required bard work to save some of the adjoining buildings and all hands worked hard, handicapped as they were by the *lack of water pressure, yet done good work, thanks to the Almighty for a good rain. It is certainly time that the practice of shuttlng off the water pressure at night ceased. The people should be protect ed and it is our duty as a journalist to call the attention of the water pany, or rather the borough authoritie who are liable for any negligence, to the long standing complaint. It is all right to husband the water when the same is low but there surely cannot be a lack of water at this time. The people have urged us to call the attention of the authorities to this outrage.

Elaborate Birthday Party. Miss Elizabeth Crandell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Crandell, gave an elaborate birthday party at Odd Fellows parlors last Friday evening, in honor of her fifteenth anniversary. Sixty four ladies and gents assembled and made merry until mid-night, dancing and games being the chief amusement. Miss Crandell was the recipient of numerous handsome presents. An elegent supper was served, the tables being handsomely work of Miss Minnie Bauergelt. The occasion was one long to be remembered, not only by the guests but Miss Crandell. The Mandolin Club furnished the music.

The "Ninety and Nine," an exceptionally clever melodrama, is announced as the attraction at the Emporium Opera House, Saturday evening, Dec. 8th. The play is enjoying its third sea. son and since its run at the Academy of Music, for more than five months, in the City of New York, has been accredited as one of the most successful of the attractions playing the popular priced circuit. Thh author has tracted a splendid theme with a dash that has lifted his effort out of the rut of melodrama, and with the original New York cast and production, it ought to prove one of the best drawing cards of the season.
