Judge Green

Republican Leaders Decide to Drop Fight on Judge-elect Hall.

Hall. Special to The Phila. Inquirer. Lock HAVEN, PA., Dec. S. — Judge B. W. Green, of Emporium, will not con-test the election of Harry Alvan Hall, of Ridgway, for President Judge of this district. This conclusion was reached at a conference held this week among some of the working Republi-cans of the district. The official count of the district shows a majority of 164 for Hall, this margin being so small and the fact that the judges of election threw out about a dozen of Green votes in this county and the cry of fall of the district shows a majority of 164 for Hall, this margin being so small and the fact that the judges of election threw out about a dozen of Green votes in this county and the cry of fall county, made a contest probable. Judge Green's lieutenants in the dis-trict carefully went over the ground and sifted all these charges and then decided a contest would be both an ex-pensive and losing venture. Thee President judges of adjoining districts would be required to hear the bethere counties would have to be arefully scrutinized and passed upon and in the end they feared Hall would be given his seat. The opposing candidates have for years been close personal friends and ever waged in this district these friend-ly relations still exist. Judge Green his district these friend-ly relations still exist. Judge Green the dat an up-hil campaign from the start and made a most gallant fight and will return to his practice of law with more irends than he has ever know.. The Philadelphia papers last Stunday, as well as other papers in this district,

The Philadelphia papers last Sunday, as well as other papers in this district, stated that the proposed contest in this judicial district had been abandoned, which is correct. In fact no contest had been commenced neither were any papers filed. It was deemed best that no such reflection should be cast upon the judiciary of this district.

The clean contest made by Hin. B. W. Green for election as President W. Green for election as President Judge was creditable to him in every particular. Those who so loyally sup-ported him have no regrets at the show-ing made in every county in this district, as he ran ahead of the ticket on an average of about fifteen hundred votes, and based upon former years, the re-duction of the majority was fully twenty-five ht dred. Judge Green's numerous friends have no apologies to make on account of hi candidacy, and every reason to feel proud of the splen-did endorsement received by our worthy citizen at the polls.

Big line of Christmas Toys and Games at Chas. Diehl's.

Bohemian Ware. This charming gold decorated line of glass is finding great favor this year, and certainly make beautiful and ac-and certainly make beautifui and ac-ceptable presents. It is a sort of compromise between cut glass and hand painted china and works in beautifully with both. The new tinted decorations are very artistic and the large assortment at Metzger's will enable any one to be suited. By the way if you haven't been through Metzger's store lately you have missed a treat and will be aston-ished at the splendid line he has. It will be well worth your time even if you do not want to buy a thing and he will be just as glad to see you.

Golden Seal Booming. The organizers for the order of the Golden Seal are meeting with great success with their work here Will Not Contest in Emporium, from three to five applications are being written every day, and we will soon see a large every day, and we will soon see a large camp instituted here. The Order has many improvements over the National Protective Legion, or any other short term endowment company, which makes it a great deal better and stronger. The present time affords the opportunity for every one to become a charter member.

A Sensible Christmas.

Let this be a sensible Christmas, instead of buying a lot of jim cracks, make presents that will last and be a source of joy for years to come; buy a few solid silver spoons or a nice piece of cut glass, a little good jewelry, a fine piece of china or nice clock, something that will start or aid to your collections of things that you can take pride in showing your friends years afterwards This is the class of goods you will find at Metzger's: his name is a guarantee that it is the best to be had.

People's Star Course-American Jubilee Singers, at Opera House.

The management is pleased to announce the Jubilee singers for the next attraction for the People's Star Course on Dec. 20th The Jubilee Singers always do credit to themselves and to the audiences to whom they may sing. Several of the members were connected with the Fisk Jubilee Singers. We believe the people will be pleased to hear the plantation melodies and popular airs, rather than the so-called classical music

At the Grand.

George F. Hall, in the 3-act musical comedy "Hello Bill" appeared at the Grand Thanksgiving afternoon and evening, and the audience was exceedingly large at both performances. The production was excellent and furnished plenty of amusement.-King-ton, Ont., Daily Whig. Emporium Opera House, Saturday evening, Dec. 15th.

Hand Painted China.

We have an elegant line of genuine hand painted china by fine French artists as well as American artists, so that we are not confined to the work or ideas of one person. Our prices are reasonable and if you will look the line over you will surely be pleased, with it. GEO. METZGER, JR.

JOHN W. KRINER. DEATH'S DOINGS.

KRINER.

Ex-Sheriff John W. Kriner, aged 61 years and nine months, died at his residence, West Fourth street, Saturday evening last at 8 o'clock. Mr. Krinerd ha been in failing health for several years, although continued to direct his contracting business up to a few hours prior to his death. On Saturday morning the third and last stroke laid him low, rendering him unconscious until evening, when he peacefully passed away. Mr. Kriner came to Emporium in 1863 from Lancaster county and assisted in the erection of the Biddle House (now New Warner), and after its erection left for the west returning to Emporium in 1868, when he married his deceased wife. He actively engaged in business as a contractor and erected most the prominent buildings and residences of Emporium, among the number being the Court House, First National Bank, M. E. Church, Catholic Church, and many residences. He was a very successul business man and accumulated considerable property.

Sheriff Kriner has taken a lively interest in public affairs and held many offices of trust and importance, the most prominent being Sheriff in 1888, 1889 and 1900, discharging the duties faithfully and well. In addition to public office he was an active member of Emporium Fire Department, serving for several terms as foreman of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. The company turned out in large numbers at the funeral.

Deceased was a member of Emporium Lodge, 382. F. & A. M., Emporium Chapter, No. 227, of Emporium, and KnappCommandery, Ridgway. A large attendance of Masons at the funeral, in fact the funeral was conducted by the Masonic bodies. Mr. Kriner was initated into Emporium Lodge, July 8th, 1874 and passed all the chairs many times and was considered one of the best old-time workers.

The writer has been closely associated with the deceased, officially and also in business, and found him, 'very careful and methodical. John careful and methodical.

Pearsall on Wednesday at two o'clock, where deceased had continued to reside upon the death of his wife, Mrs. Pearsall, his niece, having made her home there "for many years. During all of Mr. Kriner's sickness his faithful niece ministered to his every want and proved!"a faithful friend to the last. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr Johnston, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, who delivered a very appropriate address. A male quartett rendered the singing in a very beautiful manner. Beautiful floral pieces were gathered around the handsome casket, tokens of esteem from the Masonic bodies, Rescue Hook and Ladder Co., and friends and relatives. The long concourse, headed by the Masonic bodies, in carriages, slowly wended its way to the silent city, also preceeded by the fire department. At the cemetery the Masonle burial ceremony was rendered when the mortal remains of John W. Kriner were consigned to mother earth.

The following relatives from out of town atttended: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nissley, Miss Henrietta Kriner and Mr. John Kriner, Mt. Joy, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Nissley, Harrisburg, Pa.; Mrs. H, Cornelius, Lewisburg, Pa.

. MACDONALD.

The many friends of MISS SARA D. MACDONALD, second daughter of one of our respected families, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. MacDonald, were shocked beyond expression last Saturday upon receipt of a telegram from Denver, Col., from her mother, announcing the death of Miss Sara, at the St. Joseph Hospital. One year ago last August, accompauied by her sister, Miss Margarite Branson, they went to the moun tains and several western sanitariums hoping the change of climate might restore her failing health. After remaining some time at Salt Lake, upon the advice of physicians she went to Denver, Co., accompanied by her mother and continued to improve with ope of recovery. About three days before her death she contracted a severe cold and it was thought advisable to remove her to a good hospital where she would have every attention. Death had claimed a shining mark and she passed away at 11 a. m., Saturday, Dec. 8th, 1906, aged 28 years, three months and seven days. Mrs. Mac-Donold started east with the remains on Sunday, but when she reached Omaha, Neb., she was not able to pro ceed on her journey. Her brother, who met her at the depot, prepared to accompanied her to Emporium, wired that the afflicted mother was not able to continue on the long journey. The remains arrived here on Wednesday noon train and conveyed to the family residence on Fifth street, where her grief stricken father and sisters awaited her.

Miss MacDonald'sEmporium friends, in fact all Emporium was her friend, deeply sympathize with this terribly afflicted family. The young lady was the life of our younger set and before ravages of disease had undermined her constitution, was a happy, joyous and jolly girl. Here where she has lived

The funeral will be held from the family residence, West Fifth srreet, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock— Rev. Calvin, pastor of Baptist Church to officiate. FRIDAY, Rain.

BRADY.

This (Thursday) evening about six o'clock our citizens were greatly shock-ed by a telegram from Hornell, N. Y. ed by a telegram from Hornell, N. Y. announcing the sudden death at five o'clock this afternoon, of MRs. MARY ELIZABETH BRADY, wife of our towns-man, Mr. Andrew Brady, manager of the Emporium Iron and Coal Co. The shock was exceedingly heavy to Mr. Brady, who did not believe his wife was so near dissolution, in fact the physician in charge of Steuben Sani-tarium at Hornell, reported that Mrs. Brady was quite bright and resting easy one hour prior to her death, which came peacefully and calmly. Deceas-ed leaves a husband and three children, Mr. Hubert_Andrew, (student in State came peacefully and calmly. Deceas-ed leaves a husband and three children, Mr. Hubert Andrew, (student in State College,) Mr. Edward Freeman, at Marion, S. C., and Miss Marion Eliza-beth Brady, Washington, Pa. Mr. Brady leaves to night for Hornell to convey the remains to Washington, Pa. where deceased's aged mother, Mrs. Porter, resides, also Mr. Brady's mother. Mrs. Brady is also survived by one brother, Capt. A. M. Porter, Treasury Dept, Harrisburg. The fun-eral will be held at Washington, Pa., possibly on Sunday-the family and friends having been summoned. Mrs. Brady during her residence in Emporium, made many friends, al-though in feeble health, having been sorely afflicted for twenty years, she was unable to enter much in society. A lady of superior intelligence, a grad uate of Washington Seminary, class of 1880, bore herself in that mild, digni-fied manner, yet always pleasant and affable. Mr. and Mrs. Brady were married in 1883. Deceased was in her 44th year. Our citizens deeply sympa-thize with the afflicted family. We re-gret the lateness of the hour prevents our making a more extended tribute to our making a more extended tribute to this excellent lady, whom we, as well as all who knew her, greatly respected.

Those friends of deceased who were familiar with the oddities and peculiarities of John W. Kriner will not be surprised at the recital of an incident that took place last August between Kriner

(who had the contract for the erection The following friends from out of of an addition to the east ward school) town have arrived to attend the funeral. Mrs. Riley and son John, and Mr. B. Egan, member of the school Florence MacDonald, Anges MacDonboard building committee, the latter ordering some defective flooring reald, Daniel MaoDonald, Driftwood moved. This was meat for John, who Mrs. McCabe, Coudersport; Mrs. Byrus immediately opened fire on Egan, and Getchell, Binghamton, N., Y., Miss Jennie Norris, Miss Jessie Norris, replied, "its better than the rotten lumber used in caskets." Out came Kane, Pa. the flooring and both Egan and Kriner started up town, Kriner remarking to Egan that he would sell a fine casket that day and when asked who was dead Kriner replied, "no one, yet," as he entered Mr. Egan's store and requested that he be shown a solid oak casket, which did not suit him and called for something better. Mr. Egan then his affairs in shape for what he knew must surely come. Deceased leaves a widow and four children to mourn his uncovered a solid San Domingo mahogany, hand carved casket, which had been death. Mr. Jessop came to Emporium, ordered for a special purpose. "I want that for myself," said Kriner, "and we think in 1880, to work in Emporium now let me see the best trimmings," which he selected, including oxidized silver handles and corded silk trimmings for the interior. He requested that the casket' be locked when prepared for burial, one key be delivered to his sisters, the other be retained by the undertaker. The casket was a beautiful piece of workmanship and was a member of the Masonic Lodge of
