PINE STREET.

John Housler and Tracy Dininy while working for W. A. Mason cutting logs, found two fine coons which they killed after a desperate fight with them.

Mrs. Harry Mason has gone to Renovo to spend the winter, with her daughter Mrs. R. A. Reid. Her many friends in this vicinity, hope to see her return much improved in health.

Mrs. Wm. Krebs and son Charley spent Xmas with friends in Port Allegany.

Wm. Krebs' dog treed a large wild cat, Monday night, J. W. Housler and Harvey Mason hearing the racket went to help Mr. Krebs. They cut down the tree, but the cat jumped as it was falling and took to the woods; however Mr. Housler with steady nerve shot him, and his handsome skin is now stretched.

Rumor says we are to have a mill at Pine Street, in the near future. This will make plenty of work in our little hamlet, and everybody busy means everybody happy.

Mrs. Alex Mason has moved from Square Timber Run to her home where she is keeping boarders for Mr. Eastman who is now working in Masons Run.

Anson Mason, assisted by J. W. Housler killed two fine pigs, and a beef on Friday last.

Washington Mason, who in his 84th year assisted with his butchering on Monday. Mr. Mason is hale and hearty and as spry as a cricket.

The Concertina.

The threatened revival of the concertina as a serious musical instrument in England would be a return to a very old fashion no doubt, but not to a very old one, since the concertina dates from the early part of the last century. Its invention was an early indiscretion of Sir Charles Wheatstone of telegraph fame, who took out a patent for it in 1829, the very year in which somebody in Vienna invented that similar instrument, the accordion. The concertina was popularized by Sig. Regondi, who had come before the public as a juvenile prodigy with the guitar. At one time no London concert was really complete without him and his concertina, and he accompanied the Germans with the music he could get out of it.

Gladstone as an Orator.

It was a budget last night—about a page of a morning paper spoken in two hours by Mr. Gladstone, and he hardly referred to a note, never paused a moment, broke through cheers, dashed over interpellations—logic, figures, illustrations, extracts—all pell-mell, with a whirl and fury that took the breath away. And he did it all with the utmost ease and got to the end without turning a hair. Mr. Gladstone took all quietly and did it quietly and left the house and went home quietly, probably mentioning to Mrs. Gladstone as a reason for being rather tired that he had been saying a "few words" that evening.—From Whitty's "Parliamentary Retrospect."

Temperatures of Flames.

According to the results of experiments, the flame of acetylene is perhaps the hottest known except that of the electric arc. The following figures have been given: Bunsen burner, 1,871 degrees; acetylene flame, 2,548 degrees; alcohol flame, 1,705 degrees; Denayrouze burner—half alcohol, half petroleum—2,053 degrees; hydrogen flame in air, 1,900 degrees; gas jet flame with oxygen, 2,200 degrees; oxyhydrogen flame, 2,420 degrees. These are all centigrade degrees. One degree centigrade equals 1.8 degrees F.

Too Fast.

"The first day he went out with his new auto he got pulled."
"For going fast?"
"No; quite the opposite."
"I don't see."
"For stopping fast. He had to hire a farmer to haul him home."—Houston Post.

The Boss.

"There's a man at the door, pa," called little Willie from the lower hall, "who wants to see the boss of the house?"
"Tell your mother," called pa.
"Tell the cook," promptly called his mother.—Philadelphia Press.

Not Bird Bull.

"There was a strange man here to see you today, papa," said little Ethel, who met her father in the hall as he came home.
"Did he have a bill?"
"No, papa. He had just a plain nose."

As a Starter.

Doctor—Madam, your husband must have absolute rest. Madam—Well, doctor, he won't listen to me— Doctor—A very good beginning, madam—a very good beginning.—Illustrated Bits.

He Was the Limit.

He—Do you think it would be foolish of me to marry a girl who was my inferior intellectually? She—More than foolish—impossible.—Answers.

Want of care does us more harm than want of knowledge.—Franklin.

DROPS
CURES
RHEUMATISM
LUMBAGO, SCIATICA
NEURALGIA and
KIDNEY TROUBLE

"DROPS" taken internally, rids the blood of the poisonous matter and solids which are the direct causes of these diseases. Applied externally it affords almost instant relief from pain, while a permanent cure is being effected by purifying the blood, dissolving the poisonous substance and removing it from the system.

DR. S. D. BLAND
Of Brewton, Ga., writes:
"I had been suffering for a number of years with Lumbago and Rheumatism in my arms and legs, and tried all the remedies that I could gather from medical works, and also consulted with a number of the best physicians, but found nothing that gave the relief obtained from 'DROPS.' I shall prescribe it in my practice for rheumatism and kindred diseases."

FREE

If you are suffering with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Kidney Trouble or any kindred disease, write to us for a trial bottle of "DROPS," and test it yourself.

"DROPS" can be used any length of time without acquiring a "drug habit," as it is entirely free of opium, cocaine, alcohol, laudanum, and other similar ingredients.

Large Size Bottle, "DROPS" (500 Doses) $1.00. For Sale by Druggists.
