NOTES OF INTEREST.

The Professors' Tragedy given by the Presbyterian church was played to a large house in Port Allegany last Saturday evening. This show was one of the best ever given by local talent and deserved its success.

One night last week during the absence of Ray Ostrum and wife, who reside near the old steel works east of town, some one broke into his cellar and stole almost a barrel of pork. It is evident the parties were acquainted with the surroundings and a strong suspicion rests on a party who resides in that neighborhood.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party at the home of T. H. Newton on Sixth street, Jan. 8th. A party of friends agreeably surprised Theodore and Theopolis Newton, the occasion being their birthday. As we entered their elegant home we found covers laid for twenty persons and a most excellent supper by Mrs. Newton, the hostess. The evening was spent in toasts and music. The following persons from out of town were present: Mr. and Mrs. Bortz, Greenville, Pa.; Miss Smoke and friend of Meadville, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Vough, and Mr. and Mrs. Kunes, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Ebbert and Mr. and Mrs. Emory, Buffalo, N. Y.; W. H. Whalen, St. Thomas, Ont.; and H. O. Haupt, C. H. Newton, J. G. Earl and their wives, Emporium. XXX

What's in McClure's.

McClure's for January opens the New Year with an astonishingly good number, distinguished, as usual, by the clean-cut, vigorous tone of its articles, and by fiction of marked excellence. Its tone is clear, conservative; and incisive. Carl Schurz has an unusually strong article describing his first meeting with Lincoln, and the famous Lincoln-Douglas debate at Quincy, Illinois.

Miss May Gould, teacher of piano forte has received a full line of the latest and most popular sheet music. All the popular airs. Popular and classical music. Prices reasonable. 44-1f.

Herole Treatment.

In these days, when child study is a hobby ridden long and hard, it is interesting to read of the nerve training which fell to the lot of the Quaker authoress, Amelia Opie, in 1769 and after. The modern mother would shrink with horror from some of the methods used on the sensitive child, but in this case it resulted in splendid stuff. Mrs. Opie is quoted in a book on "Quaker Worthies."

"I was a creature of fears, tears and screams. My first terror was of black beetles, then of frogs, skeletons, black men and madmen. My mother made me take a beetle in my hand and hold it. As her word was law, I obeyed, but with awful shrinking. I gradually became accustomed to it and was frequently told to take one up and put it out of harm's way. I soon overcame that terror. I was made to hold frogs in my hands and was taught to nurse a skeleton as I would a doll. Mother compelled me to listen to her kindly converse with two poor old lunatics, and I grew to pity them instead of fearing them."

Bismarck's Mystic Number.

Bismarck, writes a correspondent in reference to our paragraph on superstition, held, with Pythagoras, that not 13, but 3, was the great and perfect number. Bismarck's associations with 3 were remarkable. He had served three masters. He had three names—Bismarck, Schoenhausen and Lauenburg. The arms of his family are a clover leaf and three oak leaves. He was concerned in three wars and signed three treaties of peace. In the Franco-Prussian war he had three horses killed under him. He brought about the meeting of three emperors and was responsible for the triple alliance. He had three children. His family motto was "In Trinitate Robur" ("Strength In Trinity"), and contemporary caricature pictured him with three hairs on his head. Three was the beginning, the middle and the end of Bismarck.—London Chronicle.
