Wind and Moon Shine.
 There are mighty few people who go into marriage with any real idea of what it means. They get their notion of it from among the clouds where they lived while they were engaged, and naturally about all they find up there is wind and moonshine, or from novels which always end before the real trouble begins, or, they keep on, leave out the chapters that tell how the husband finds the rent and the wife the hired girl. But if there's one thing in the world about which it's possible to get all the facts, its matrimony. Part of them are right in the house where your were born, and the neighbors have the rest.

For Pensioners.
 A bill of particular interest to all pensioners was introduced by Senator Penrose on Wednesday providing that pensioners of the government shall be paid each month instead of every three months as at present. It is proposed to have the pension agents to mail checks on the last day of each month, "with restrictions no more onerous than are made by the treasury department in paying interest on government bonds."
 This means that the vouchers sworn to every pension period at an expense of 25 cents will be done away with. Under the bill pensioners are to file with the pension agent affidavit showing their residence and post office address and must keep the agent informed of any change in address. More than 600,000 pensioners in Pennsylvania will be affected by the measure.

The Making of a Charming Women.
 Of course the foundation of the greatest of all charms lies in that unselfishness which illumines the face as well as the heart. As politeness, itself consists of little generousities, so no women who sinks self in the giving of pleasure to others can escape its reward and not be herself intrinsically charming. But all women are not unselfish, and history shows us many who, though innately bad, yet, through mind rather than heart, have sent their names down to us as examples of charming women. But they were miscalced, and what seemed charm was only fascination in them, which is an inborn quality, though improved by brain and use.
 We have all known very unselfish women, who were mentally dense as mud, and much of whose unselfishness went for naught thereby, but American women are seldom lacking in that mother wit that can assimilate what they see of good in others; and, given that self-education, there are many little things that can go far towards the making of charm. To aspire to be a charming woman of the world may not be a very high ambition, but it is better than to aim at nothing, and a little thought—mental generosity—can aid much in the making of what will pass as charming women.—"An Old Beau" in the February Delineator.

CINCINNATI PEOPLE EXCITED

The Great Cooper as he is called Has Stirred up That City to a Remarkable Degree.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 16.—This city is at present in the midst of an excitement beyond anything that it experienced in recent years.
 Old and young, rich and poor, all seem to have become beside themselves over an individual who was a stranger to Cincinnati up two weeks ago.
 The man who has created all this turmoil is L. T. Cooper, President of the Cooper Medicine Co., of Dayton, Ohio, who is at present introducing his preparations in this city for the first time.
 Cooper is a man about thirty years of age and has acquired a fortune within the past two years by the sale of some preparations of which he is the owner.
 Reports from eastern cities that preceded the young man here were of the most startling nature. Many of the leading dailies going as far as to state that he had nightly cured in public places deafness of years' standing with one of his preparations. The physicians of the East contradicted this statement, claiming the thing to be impossible, but the facts seemed to bear out this statement that Cooper actually did so.
 In consequence people flocked to him by thousands and his preparations sold like wildfire.
 Many of these stories were regarded as fictitious in Cincinnati and until Cooper actually reached this city little attention was paid to them. Hardly had the young man arrived, however,
