LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department let us know by postal card or letter, personally. Borough nominations will be in next week. Ice is mighty thin thus far—about five inches. Mr. Chas. T. Logan is on a trip south in the interest of Sinnamahoning Powder Co. Clarence J. Miller and A. W. Smith, of Huntley, were agreeable PRESS visitors on Monday. Mrs. Chas. T. Logan went to Wellsville, N. Y., last week to be present at the marriage of a friend. Remember Mountaineer Minstrel entertainment at opera house, Friday evening, Feb. 8th. Jas. L. Norie returned from state of Washington on Tuesday. He expects to locate in Washington state. Misses Floyd Whiting and Zoella Mason, of Sterling Run, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Morse and family. Lee Halderman has a new boy at his home. The young man expects to take charge of the dray in the near future. "Quincy Adams Sawyer" drew a large audience at the opera house, Tuesday evening. Those who attended were greatly pleased. Mr. A. D. Ericsson has returned from his visit to his parents in Sweden, arriving in Emporium on Thursday. He had a great large time. Henry Jaeger, who is conducting a successful harness establishment on Fourth street, was a PRESS business caller on Tuesday. He is an industrious gentleman. E. F. Comley, one of Lumber's hustlers visited in Emporium on Tuesday and while here called on the PRESS and presented his good wife with a receipt for the PRESS for one year. Mrs. Chas. L. Butler and her beautiful little daughter, Miss Beatrice, of Port Allegany, remained in Emporium until Monday afternoon, visiting their numerous friends, who were pleased to meet them. Mrs. Nellie Danforth, of East Emporium, was a PRESS business caller on Monday, renewing her mother's paper, (Mrs. S. S. Hackett) for another year. Mrs. Hackett has recovered from her serious illness and is able to again be about her residence. Our old friend John M. English, of Driftwood, was a PRESS caller yesterday, while transacting business in town. Mr. English, who has been R. F. D., carrier for several years, has been in poor health for some time but is now improving. Our esteemed friend, Mr. E. G. Coleman, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday, renewing his paper for another year and enjoying a social chat. Mr. Coleman is taking life easy, with his aged mother, at their cozy residence West Fourth street, since he retired from the powder business. He is a good citizen. Postponed. The Star Course Lecture advertised for this (Thursday) evening, has been postponed on account of sickness in the lecturer's family. Local news on every page.

Table Boarders. A few more table boarders can be accommodated by Scott Sterner on Broad street. Terms, $4.00 per week. The infant child of John McConnell died yesterday afternoon. Funeral will be held this afternoon.

Chaplain Gives Advice. When President Lincoln issued the emancipation proclamation it excited at once a great deal of discussion in the army. On one occasion, Henry Clay Trumbull, says his biographer, was going through the camp of the regiment of which he was chaplain, when he was hailed by a sergeant and some men who were arguing the subject. "Chaplain," asked the sergeant, "do you think President Lincoln had any right to issue that proclamation?" "I suppose he thought he had," replied Mr. Trumbull. "Well, I suppose a soldier's got a right to hold his own opinion, hasn't he?" "Oh, yes, certainly he has," answered the chaplain—"that is, if he'll take care and hold 'em, and not allow himself to be slung round carelessly before others."—Rochester Herald.

Canadian Woods Free of Snakes. A curious thing about Canadian forests is that there are no snakes, and even from a description of the Indian guides did not seem to understand what a snake would be like. Fishing all through Canada is as good as the hunting, and should one fall to bag a moose he is fully recompensed for the trip by the abundance of other game, including bear and deer. There is a weird melancholy about Canadian forests, with their hundreds of small lakes and rivers scattered here and there, and although the scenery never rises to the magnificent, there is something haunting, aside from the sport in it, that draws the hunter back season after season. Canada is filled with legends mostly of Indian origin, and all of them interesting to a degree, especially when related by one of the Indian guides who can be induced to talk.—Leslie's Weekly.

Alabama Politics Cheap. Alabama is represented in the upper house of congress by two of the oldest members of that body, Senator Morgan is 82, Senator Pettus 85, but both are still wide-awake and active men. Not long ago Mr. Morgan was chosen by the Democratic primary conventions of his state to the senate for another term. In compliance with the law the senator made an affidavit, declaring that this re-election had cost him only $60, which sum he had paid to the Democratic state committee. When asked if that was the regular expense of an election as senator from Alabama, Mr. Morgan replied: "Not always so cheap. My colleague Pettus's election cost him $70. The old fox! I wish it had cost him $100." This is almost convincing evidence that Alabama is just the state for the poor man who has a taste for politics.

Always Shows Politeness. The most polite man has been found in Robert Wilder of Clarksburg, W. Va. He has never been known to say a cross word to anybody, and he is respected highly by his relatives, which is saying a great deal. When Wilder was held up by a highwayman near Dugan's dam, Mr. Wilder handed over $13.25 and apologized for not having more with him. Wilder smiles when a person tramps on his corn, and congratulates his wife on her discernment when she calls him names. Taken ill one day, he insisted upon telephoning the undertaker, expressing regret at the trouble he might cause him.—Philadelphia North America.

Makes Fun for Neighbors. Virgil P. Kline, lawyer of Cleveland, in an address upon "Ambition," said: "Ambition is an excellent thing. Without it the world would not progress. But there are worthy and unworthy ambitions, silly and wise ones. Then there are the peculiar, the distinctive ambitions, such as we see in childhood. Thus I once knew a little boy who had an ambition to be a letter carrier, and, finding in a cedar chest in the attic a great bundle of love letters that his mother had been preserving since the days of her courtship, he packed them in a leather school satchel and distributed them from house to house throughout the neighborhood.

Origin of Word Hurricane. "Typhoon" is by no means the only word for a storm that has come to the English language through Portuguese and Spanish. Others are "tornado" and "hurricane," which Shakespeare could still write "hurricane." Old-time Englishmen, at any rate, spelled the last word in at least as many ways as Shakespeare and other people spelled his name, an some of the spellings indicate frantic attempts to make the word suggest a derivation intelligible to the English mind. Of such are "hurricane," "hurricane," "Hurricane" and "Harry-Cain." Even "hurricane" was finally adopted, no doubt, as suggesting "hurry." The original was the Carib "huracan," or "furan," the navigators of Portugal and Spain having been instrumental only in bringing it to England from the west, as they brought "typhoon" from the east. C. B. Howard & Co., have received from the Pacific Coast what is perhaps the finest lot of RED CEDAR shingles that ever came to Cameron county. Local news on every page.

Great Card. There was a mighty crash and the great touring car of the leading lady collided with the humble milk cart. Amid the shower of white liquid the press agent jumped out on the sidewalk and began to write seriously. "It is too bad," sobbed the leading lady, as she gazed ruefully on the ruin of her thousand-dollar gown. "Cheer up, madam," said the press agent, "the accident is worth at least $10,000." "Ten thousand? What have you written?" "Why, I have written this: 'Mme. Flasher took her milk bath on Main street today.'"—Chicago Daily News.

Potted Revenge. When the social climber heard that her ultra-fashionable rival was to give the swellest supper of the year her jealousy knew no bounds. The next day, however, she was smiling in wicked triumph. "Revenge!" she whispered. "Revenge is sweet. When that supper comes off there will not be a single guest present." "Gracious!" gasped her maid, "What has madam done?" "What have I done? Why, I have simply bribed the butler to tamper with the announcement and change 'potted plants' to 'potted hams.'" And yet they say that women have no brains.—Chicago Daily News.

Fragment of Early History. Father Marquette had pitched his tent near the mouth of the Chicago river. Then he began to fish. "It's a modest looking stream," he said, "but I predict that before the twentieth century dawns it will be a good deal more backward, so to speak, than it is now." Regretting that it wasn't 200 years later, so that he could relieve his feeling of homesickness by climbing into his automobile and going to see the "Streets of Paris," he asked Fernando Jones, a personal favor, to represent him at that function and proceeded to angle for a mess of ring perch for dinner.—Chicago Tribune.

Few Artistic Criminals Now. That bank burglary is no longer a profitable profession statistics amply prove. The old aristocrats of the underworld left no successors. The opportunity for development is wanting. Chrome steel, electric alarms, brilliant illumination, have ruined what was once an alluring calling to the criminal. The yeggmen are vulgar, brutal, unskilled; there is no art or mystery in their work, nothing that any muscular and daring rascal can not duplicate. Forgery, too, is not what it was a third of a century ago. Paper, ink, check stamps, the telephone, the telegraph—these have made the utterance of forged notes, bonds and scrip for large amounts a task practically hopeless.—New York Sun.

What Is Socialism? A debating society in Manayunk offered last week a prize of $5 for the best definition of socialism. Among the definitions submitted were the following: "Socialism means that no man has a right to starve to death where millions are suffering from indigestion." "Socialism is other people's money." "Socialism is the selfishness underneath trying to annihilate the selfishness on top." "Socialism is the revolution of the stomach." "Socialism is envy legitimized." The following definition is the one that gained the $5 prize: "Socialism is a combination of efforts and theories tending to establish legally among all mankind the greatest possible equality of wealth or misery."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Chilling Thought. "Yes," said the high Russian official, "I keep very good hours at all times." "Indeed," replied the interviewer. "I suppose you believe in that old maxim, 'Early to bed, early to rise?'" "Yes, but—er—please don't put it that way." "Why not?" "Well, it sounds too suggestive of some one putting a bomb under the bed."

Fifty-one carrier pigeons were sold at Antwerp recently for $2,250, constituting a record price, the highest amount paid for one bird being $105.

SALES ARE ENORMOUS

Cooper Preparations Leading Topic in Cincinnati—Callers at Young Man's Headquarters Interviewed.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 30. The most interesting feature of the enormous sale of the Stooper preparations, now going on in this city, is what the medicines are actually accomplishing among the people of Cincinnati. At the commencement of his visit here Mr. Cooper prophesied that during the later part of his stay he would receive hundreds of callers daily who come simply to thank him for what the preparations had done. He also stated that stomach trouble is the foundation for a great many diseases and that his New Discovery, as it is called, would prove very effective in all cases of rheumatism simply by getting the stomach in working order. That this prophecy has been fulfilled cannot be doubted after a half hour spent at the young man's headquarters listening to what his callers have to say. A reporter, who watched to ascertain, if possible, some light on the reasons for the immensity of Cooper's success interviewed about twenty of his callers yesterday afternoon. The statements made by those seen indicate that physicians who claim that Cooper is merely a passing fad, have not looked into the facts. Some of these statements were as follows: Miss Sallie Middleton living at 1057 Central Ave., upon being questioned, said: "I have been troubled with general weakness, dizziness, headache, sleeplessness and stomach disorders for a number of years, suffering all the time with my kidneys and back. I had tried a number of medicines and visited several doctors but none helped me. I heard on all sides of these Cooper remedies and decided to try them. Any one who says that they are not wonderful medicines does not know what they are talking about. After I used the first bottle, I noticed a decided improvement. I have taken three bottles of the New Discovery and I now feel as well as I ever have in my life. I sleep and eat as I have not done for years, and I am happier than I have been for a long time. I have come here to thank Mr. Cooper for what he has done for me." The statement of Mrs. M. E. Emerson living on 630 West Court street, was as follows: "I have suffered with stomach trouble and constipation for a year or so when I ate I would have bloated spells, sour stomach, fermentation, bad taste in my mouth. In the morning, I was as tired as when I went to bed. I had a dull pain in the lower part of my back. I have taken almost one bottle of the New Discovery and I am so wonderfully improved that I have come down here to thank Mr. Cooper in person and obtain more of the medicine." Another statement was made by Mr. E. Luken living at 1006 Gest street, who said: "I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for several years I could not walk or stand on my feet when Mr. Cooper came to Cincinnati. Nothing helped me in any way and I despaired of finding relief. I was in a general rundown condition, also, and had some stomach trouble. Hearing of his wonderful work my father consulted him regarding my case and purchased a bottle of his New Discovery. After I had finished that one bottle I was able to walk down town and see him myself." "I have continued to take this wonderful medicine and I am now without a sign of rheumatism. My general health is also greatly improved, and I have not felt so well for years. I would not have believed that there was a medicine on earth that would do what this has done for me. I am so much happier that I am very grateful to the man that has made it possible for me to regain my health. He has the most wonderful medicine that I know anything about." Other statements taken from those who had previously used the medicines seem to prove that Cooper's success throughout the country is genuine.

Thankful, Indeed. The prodigal son stood in the doorway after his long absence. "I have come, dad," he said, "with a reformed conscience and reformed disposition." The old gentleman shouted himself hoarse and danced a jig. "Thank goodness, lad!" he ejaculated. "Thank goodness you haven't come back with reformed spelling." And then the old gentleman went out and killed the fatted calf.
