Preventics, as the name implies, prevent all Colds and Grippe when "taken at the sneeze stage." Preventics are toothsome candy tablets. Preventics dissipate all colds quickly, and taken early, when you first feel that a cold is coming, they check and prevent them. Preventics are thoroughly safe for children, not as effectual for adults. Sold and recommended in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes by

Some Notes on "Origins." "Humpty Dumpty Sat on a Wall," etc., has come down to us from the days of King John. "The Babes In the Wood" dates from the fifteenth century, being founded upon facts, an old near Wayland Wood, Norfolk having the whole story in carvings on a mantelpiece. "Little Jack Horner," "Little Miss Muñett," "Old Mother Hubbard," "Mother Goose" and "Goosey, Goosey Gander," are each traceable to the sixteenth century, "Pussy Cat, Pussy Cat, Where Have You Been?" belongs to the reign of Queen Elizabeth. "Three Blind Mice" first appeared in a music book dated 1609. "A Froggie Would a-Wooing Go" was licensed to be sung as far back a 1650. "Boys and Girls Come Out to Play" and "Lucy Locket Lost Her Pocket" both hail from the period of Charles II. And last of all, "Cinderel-la," "Jack the Giant Killer," "Blue-beard" and "Tom Thumb" were published by their author, Charles Per-rault, in the year 1697.-London Notes and Queries.

Colors and Seamstresses.

The seamstress, passing her needle through and through the fabric on her lap, said:

"I love to sew white. I love to sew green too. Pinks are easy. So are most of the clear, pale tints. But black! But red! But shepherd's plaid!"

She threw back her head in horror. "Bright red, when you sew it, in-flames your vision, it angers you, it makes you nervous. Black strains the eyes out of your head, the stitches in it are so hard to see. Black is a depressing color too. But worst of all is that combination of black and white called shepherd's plaid. Work on shepherd's plaid an hour or two and the black and white squares will dance under your eyes like living things. Polka dots dance, too," she ended. "They polka; hence the name."-New York Press.

The Childish Voice Too Much.

A good story is told of Signor Folt, the famous basso. Once upon a time he was singing "The Raft," when a childish voice from somewhere in the stalls suddenly plped in and attempted to organize an impromptu duet. Un fortunately the next line of the song was: "Hark! What sound is that which breaks upon mine ear?" This so tickled the fancy of the great vocalist that he burst into a hearty fit of laughter and left the platform, followed by the pi anist. Twice they came back and at tempted the song, and finally they had to give it up in despair, much to the amosement of the audience.

The past summer he had occasion to pass along Main street, which by the way is the only streat in the little town he picked out for his summer home. It was quite late in the evening, when he espied a young man of his acquaintence trying to laugh londly to himself. The young man halted the new comer, "Shay" he yelled, "Waush tell you funny thing." I don't see anything to laugh at replied Mr. Merritt, disgusted at the young fellows condition. "What's the joke?" "Funniest thing ever saw", replied the youug man. TREATMENT SUCCESSFUL

The Maddening Disease, Rheumatism. Easily Cured With URIC-O.

It might interest Rheumatic sufferers of this country to learn the wonderful work that Uric-O is doing towards the relief and cure of this dreaded dis-ease. Letters of praise are received daily from men and women who have used the remedy with the greatest suc-cess. The manufacturers of this won-darful Sociefic here merus calcided cess. The manufacturers of this won-derful Specific have never solicited a testimonial or a word of praise from people who have used the remedy. Yet, letters like the one given below are be-ing received from both old and young.

ing received from both old and young. Mr. Reuben Whipple, grocery clerk, of Giens Falls, N. Y. says: -- Was laid up with severe form of Rheumatism, and was con-fined to my room for nine weeks. A sample bottie of Uric-O, and one regular bottle has worked a wonderful change in me. It has entirely cured my Rheumatism, and I am now able to go about my work again. I frecommended the remedy to Mr. John Harris, of East Lake George, who was unable to walk. He had taken every possible treat-ment, had spent hundreds of dollars, and had found no relief. He is taking Uric-O, and is improving rapidly, and able to be out around. I will continue to recommend Uric-O, as it is certainly a merited remedy. Uric-O is sold by Druggists generally at $1.00 per bottle, or it will be sent by the SMITH DRUG COMPANY, of SYRACUSE, N. Y., upon receipt of price. Liberal size samples and circa-lars will be mailed free to all who ap-

Pa., was a visitor in Emporium on Friday last. Mr. Barrows is pominently engaged in banking at Lock Haven and is meeting with success.

Col. J. O. Brookbank and Dr. Beale, of Driftwood, were visiting in Emporium on Saturday for the purpose of hav ing X-Rays used on Mr. Brookbank's shoulder.

Electric light engineer, W.W. Knickerbocker has been confined to his residence for several days, suffering with muscular rheumatism, but is able to again resume work.

Geo. Strawbridge, of Sterling Run, but spends most of his time in this place as a member of P. E. R. R., construction gang, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday and made sure of the PRESS for another year.

Last Friday as Mr. Dan'l Downey was crossing the street, near the Hamilton Hose House, he slipped on the ice and fell injuring his right ankle. Dr. Heilman diagnosed a fracture of the small bone, just above the joint.

E. B. Hulley, of Lewistown, and M. H. Morning, of Philadelphia, are calling on our citizens in the interest of the Pennsylvania Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia. They are pleasant gentlemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lupold, of Utica. N. Y., were called to Emporium last Thursday evening on account of the death of Geo. Campbell, but were not allowed to visit their sister and left for home. Mr. Lupold was a PRESS visitor on Friday.

Whereupon Freeman began to growl

"Why can't you speak English." de-manded he, "and say home rule in-stead of speaking Greek, which you dou't know?"

One of the guests flushed with anger and ventured to reprove Freeman, calling his attention to the respect due their host and at the same time paying tribute to Mr. Macmillan's remarkable abilities. But, although Freeman did not apologize in so many words, he smoothed the matter over by a humorous repetition of his criticism. Later some one mentioned gout. "There you go again!" exclaimed Freeman. "Why can't we call it toe woe?"

Prey of the Sparrow Hawk.

The sparrow hawk almost invariably catches a flying bird for its meal, even striking down birds as large as the wood pigeon, though usually going no higher than a blackbird. If it does not exactly swoop like the larger hawks, yet it must have conditions of chase of its own choosing. That is why the small birds usually mob it with impunity when they are numerous enough to bewilder it. Once, however, I saw a sparrow hawk that had been molested for some minutes by a perfect cloud of green finches dart among them and ecure a victim. One day I had one of birds pointed out as which a few days earlier had come close to the house toward dusk and caught a bat on the wing. That, however, is a very unusual meal.-London
