Secret Orders at Jamestown Exposition—Many Important Conclaves Scheduled for Ter-Centennial.

(By Mark O. Waters.)
NORFOLK, VA.—Not only will the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition, which opens on the shores of Hampton Roads, Virginia, April 26, be the occasion of a grand "home-coming" for the people of Virginia but of the nation, in celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the first permanent English settlement in America, but it will be the occasion for a large number of conclaves, conventions, conferences, assemblies. Altogether there will be over these events and among them are many secret order gatherings and the password and the grip will be much in evidence in these fraternal conferences.

The first event of this kind scheduled is the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge of Virginia, which meets May 14-17, and during a part of this time the Improved Order of Red Men will assemble. This latter order will represent the landing of Captain John Smith. Three ships will be built to represent Godspeed the Susan Constant and the Discovery and both palefaces and redskins will be represented in appropriate costumes. They will have a log house or building in which they will display all the relics of the aborigines and everything of an historical nature that relates to the first American, the Indian. The great Council of Red Men will occur at the Exposition September 9-16.

On May 21, the Virginia Branch of the Junior Order of United Americans will meet and the State Council of the same order on Oct. 13-14. June 5th, the National Order of Neptunes or Seven Wise Men will meet and June 16 the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. August 6, the Knights of Columbus and August 11, the National Haymakers Association.

The Uniform Rank, Knight of Pathias will encamp by brigades on the military camp ground of the Exposition and it is expected that several thousand knights will be in attendance. The Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, Tennessee and Georgia brigades will be in camp from July 29 to August 3, inclusive and the Ohio brigades from August 3 to August 10, inclusive. Brigades from other states will be assigned dates later, but their encampments will be held in July. Major B. E. Rice, Senior Major of the First Virginia Regiment has charge of the K. of P. features of the Exposition.

August 11-17 the National encampment of the Knights of the Maccabees will be held at the Exposition and it is expected that at least 30,000 from the United States and Canada will attend. August 18-24, is given to the Woodmen of the World and Sept. 3-7, to the Fraternal order of Eagles. At this latter meeting it is expected that there will be 50,000 members of the Order present. Sept. 25, is given to the convention of the Society of Colonial Wars; Sept. 26-27, the National Association of Veterans of the Mexican War; Oct. 7-9, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia; Oct. 10-11, the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Virginia; Oct. 11, the Daughters of the Revolution; Oct. 11-12, Sons of Revolution; Oct. 15-17, Ancient and Illustrious Knights of Malta; Nov. 11-13, American Federation of Labor; Nov. 13-14 United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Many of the conventions will be held in the vast Convention Hall of the Administration building which has a seating capacity of five thousand.

"A Texas Ranger."
An army officer once said, "any white man who claims he was in the fight with Cluster at the Little Big Horn must be a renegade, because no white man came out of that fight unless he fought on the side of the Indian." But in the powerful Western drama "A Texas Ranger" you see the life story of a white girl who thinks herself an Indian.

Ne-wa-ta, the white Indian girl, when but a baby was one of a wagon train on their way to win fortune in the great south-west. One night an attack by the Indians wiped out the entire party except the baby, Ne-wa-ta. She was taken by the chief to his village, and raised as an Indian. As the story goes she is loved by a half-breed, but her love is for a gallant Lieutenant of the military post. She deserts her people to warn the Fort of an Indian raid, but through she renounces the Indians she risks her own life to save the Chief whom she thinks is her father. Ne-wa-ta's life story is neatly told by the author in "A Texas Ranger" which will be seen at the opera house, March 12th.

Local news on every page.

New Industry.
The Pacific Paint and Varnish Co., of Emporium, Pa., is a new home industry talked of with a capital of $100,000. Everything that gives employment to a town, if only a few, adds to the prosperity and increases the importance of a community. Help it along.

Bitten by Dog.
Clyde Fisher, while reaching for his dog's head last Tuesday evening, angered the animal, when it sprang at him, sinking its teeth in his neck, drawing the blood. Dr. Heilman cauterized the wound. Clyde walks with an erect head now and would not suit for a straw sleigh ride.

Married Yesterday.
Mrs. Nellie Peterson left on Monday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., where she was married on Wednesday, to Mr. Ed Stubbs, who is a horse owner at Oak Land Park. Mrs. Peterson is a daughter of Mr. A. C. Goodwin, of Rich Valley. Mrs. Dotter accompanied her as far as Buffalo.

Eye Specialist.
Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., March 16th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Uncle Sam Increases Box Rents.
Postmaster O. H. Seger has received notice that the department increases all box rents with the incoming quarter, and directs the following prices for Emporium: Call box, 25c; lock box (small), 45c; lock box, large, 75c. The new ruling makes all rents payable ten days before the quarter expires under the penalty of vacating boxes. All box rents expiring June 31st, must be paid on or before April 1st. The postmaster is powerless in the matter and must make all boxes "vacant" with the expiration of the date, under penalty.

Mix This at Home.
The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and system all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as backache, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases. Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach.

Get the following harmless ingredients from any good pharmacy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

This simple mixture is said to give prompt relief, and there are very few cases of Rheumatism and Kidney trouble it will fail to cure permanently.

There are all harmless, every-day drugs, and your druggist should keep them in the prescription department; if not, have him order them from the wholesale drug houses for you, rather than fail to use this, if you are afflicted.

"Preventics" will promptly check a cold or the Grippe when taken early or at the "sneeze-stage". Preventics cure seated cold as well. Preventics are little candy cold cure tablets, and Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., will gladly mail you samples and a book on Colds free, if you will write him. The samples prove their merit. Check early Colds with Preventics and stop Pneumonia. Sold in 5c and 25c boxes by all dealers.

Experienced Caterer.
Any one wishing assistance in preparing dinners, parties or catering should give me a call. I will take full charge and assume all responsibility. Give me a call.

Mrs. E. ROBINSON.
One door West of Dan'l Downey's residence, Fifth street. 51-1f.

How to Remain Young.
To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Most people who are satisfied with themselves don't want much.

DEATH'S DOINGS.
GARRITY.

WILLIAM GARRITY, aged 62 years, died quite suddenly at the family residence, Sixth street, Emporium, Pa., Friday morning at 1:30 a. m., of valvular heart trouble, after an illness of several weeks, although not considered dangerous in fact he had notified the railroad officials that he would be able to report for duty within a few days. During Thursday he was feeling remarkably well and took a walk about five o'clock in the evening. When he retired for the night he rested well and slept until mid-night, when he awakened in great distress. His wife assisted him to the bath room where he could have his easy chair and felt easier, requesting his wife to return to her rest. It was only a few moments when he called his wife to him and passed to the great beyond, leaning upon her shoulder. Dr. H. S. Falk was called but found the patient beyond mortal help.

Mr. Garrity was born at Schenectady, N. Y., sixty-two years ago next month and early in life, when a very small child, was left an orphan. When yet a boy he secured employment in the locomotive works in that city and early took an engine on N. Y. C. R. R., coming to the Buffalo Division thirty years ago, running between Emporium and Buffalo, twenty-eight years of this time having resided in Emporium with his family, highly respected.

He was in 1873 married at Dansville, N. Y., to Miss Anna MacAndrew and reared a family of five children, viz: Mrs. Stella Dixon, St. Marys, Pa.; Fred W. Garrity, Buffalo; Adelaide, of St. Marys; Anna L., at home and Ray W., of Buffalo, all of whom were present at the funeral; also William Garrity, a nephew, of Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. Garrity was considered one of the most trustworthy engineers on the road and when the Buffalo Flyer was placed on the schedule he was given the run. A quiet, intelligent and pleasant gentleman at all times he made friends and retained them. His domestic relations were pleasant and so fond was he of his home that he repeatedly doubled the road in order to be with his family, if or only two or three hours. The PRESS, and we know our citizens generally, cannot speak too highly of the deceased—a faithful husband, devoted father and a true MAN.

THE FUNERAL.
The funeral took place from his pleasant home on Sixth street, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Father Downey conducting the services. The large gathering of neighbors and friends bore testimony to the worth of the man and citizen. A delegation of railroad officials, engineers and conductors from Buffalo and other points were in attendance and paid marked respect to their departed friend.

FLORAL OFFERINGS.
The floral offerings were indeed beautiful and appropriate, viz: Pillow, Cross and Cut Flowers from family; Cross of Autumn Leaves, banked by Calla Lilies and Carnations, from Penn'a R. R. Engineers; Wreath of Autumn Leaves, Lilies of the Valley, Jack Roses and Carnations, from conductors Love, Darling and Keating; Cut White Roses, from Hon. J. C. Johnson; Roses, from Mrs. Josiah Howard; Roses, from Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howard; Carnations, from Mr. and Mrs. Jay P. Felt.

BUFFALO FRIENDS IN ATTENDANCE.
The following friends from Buffalo attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodnough, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose, Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones, Mr. Geo. Woodward, Mr. Chas. Lenderbolt, Mr. Dan'l Steehoff, Mr. Frank Greesee, Mr. T. P. Howe.

Special Offer.
Until May 1st, 1907, I will give with every dozen of my $4.00 photographs—one 16x20 premium enlargements. Mr. Lee Welsh will call on you in the near future with tickets. Please secure tickets from him.

Destructive Fire at Calder Brick Works

A destructive fire took place at Calder Brick Works yesterday morning at nine o'clock, destroying the machine room, which contained the valuable machinery for the manufacture of the blocks. The loss is estimated at $10,000 partially covered by insurance. By heroic efforts of Supt Walker and his men they succeeded in saving the Power House, Band House and part of the Tipple. Before the fire had hardly subsided Mr. Walker got in touch with the officers of the Company at Detroit, Mich., and left to-day to meet the Company, with all plans formulated to repair the damage.

The plant had been put in elegant shape by expending an additional $10,000 sum in enlargement of the works. They expected to resume the season's work to-day, with orders on their books for millions of block. It is believed they will rebuild at once, it requiring about eight weeks to repair the damage. Our citizens hope the Company will not be discouraged but push ahead.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Watch Bedard's window for latest Spring suitings. 2-f.

Uncle Sam now sells one cent postage stamp books.

Get busy! Go to Bedard the Tailor, for your spring suit. 2-f.

Those who like a play that deals with the lives of many men and womanly women. A play that depicts their loves and hates, their smiles and tears, should go to see "A Texas Ranger" at the opera house, March 12.

For Catarrh, let me send you free, just to prove merit, a Trial size Box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. It is a snow white, creamy, healing antiseptic balm that gives instant relief to Catarrh of the nose and throat. Make the free test and see. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Large jars 50 cents. Sold by all dealers.

Lumber township paid for the horse killed by falling over the embankment between Cameron and Canoe Run last Saturday. There was four horses hitched to a lumber wagon and the entire outfit slid over the side of the mountain, a distance of about 150 feet. All the horses were badly injured but only one of them had died. It was owned by a man from Snow Shoe.

Seventy-Seven Years.

"Uncle" Peter R. Beattie celebrated his 77th birthday on Tuesday. Although not as young as he used to be he gets around remarkably lively and looks after his cigar and tobacco store, happy and contented. A number of his family relatives added a little to the pleasant occasion by giving him a surprise. Everybody knows Mr. Beattie, especially the early woodsmen and lumbermen and all have a pleasant word for him. In addition to being an old resident of this county Mr. Beattie has been a Chapter and Blue Lodge Mason since 18

Theatre Party.

Mrs. J. H. Havens, of Olean, gave a box party to a number of Emporium ladies last evening upon Modjeska's appearance at Olean. The party consisted of Mrs. Laura Bryan, Mrs. Josiah Howard, Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Mrs. Alice Faucett, Mrs. E. E. Forbes, Mrs. W. H. Howard and Mrs. Frank Shives. The party was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Havens and remain there until to-day.

Visitation from Dignitaries.

Emporium Odd Fellows will this evening tender a banquet to the Grand Encampment officers upon their visit to Emporium. A large attendance is anticipated. The banquet will be served by the ladies of Presbyterian church in the church banquet room. We regret we do not have our usual small appetite.

The President on the Critical Attitude.

It is possible that the President in his recent Harvard address does less than justice to some whom he would place in the class of mollycoddles. Mr. Roosevelt is distinguished for the forceful, not to say at times vituperative, quality of his vocabulary, rather than for the infallibility of his judgments of others, or for his considerate treatment of those who differ with him. We must discount the animus of some of his remarks about mollycoddles by remembering that some of these mollycoddles have been in the habit of passing adverse criticisms upon the policies of the present administration. For aught the President knows, some of these mollycoddles may be rendering real service for the common good in ways that are not apparent on the gridiron or tennis court or directly manifest at the ward primaries. It may be that the President needs to learn more perfectly some of his own favorite lessons. The strenuous foot ball player expects that the opposing side will try to trip him and force him back from his goal. All that goes with the game. And so the constructive statesman ought to accept adverse criticism of his policies and methods as part of the game. Among the fundamental duties of good citizenship are those of honest, independent thinking and the free and honest expression of opinion. The statesman who stands for a square deal will submit to any amount of adverse criticism rather than begrudge to his fellow citizens the exercise of free thought and free speech.

But after all possible personal animus has been discounted in the President's Harvard address, the central thought of his message is one that needs to be emphasized and heeded. It is the gospel of good citizenship, based on virile manhood. The fundamental principle of democracy is that every individual should count for one and for only one. Mr. Roosevelt would have every individual see to it that he does count for one. In order to count for one in the fullest sense, one must be a man in the fullest sense, having a man's strength and positive force, a man's mind, a man's practical aim and sense, a man's responsibility, a man's ability to do his share of the world's constructive work and a man's willingness to bear his share of the common burden. In order that the individual may really count for one, he must be something more than a solitary individual; he must be a social unit, a man among men, one willing to work in harness with others, and, what is equally important, one who knows how to do it. The man who is unwilling to rub shoulders with others, who prefers the seclusion of his own den or the restricted society of his own superiors, refusing all wider contact and duty, is taking the sure way to count for considerably less than one. An aristocracy of education and culture that holds itself aloof from the work of government is less worthy of respect than is the titled aristocracy of England, which plays an important part in the political affairs of the realm.

"Above all, you college men, remember that if your education, the pleasant lives you lead, make you too fastidious, too sensitive to take part in the rough hurlyburly of the actual work of the world, if you become so over-cultivated, so over-refined that you cannot do the hard work of practical politics, then you had better never been educated at all. I want you to feel that it is not merely your right to take part in politics, not merely your duty to the State, but that it is demanded by your own self-respect, unless you are content to acknowledge that you are unfit to govern yourself, and you have to submit to the rule of somebody else as a master—and this is what it means if you do not do your own part in government."
