McDonald having closed the bargain for the sale of his Fifth street property to Mr. John Kelly will add another story to his Broad street building and fit it up for living rooms. Our old friend and veteran, Mr. Sylvester Beldin, of Moore Hill, was a brief Press caller on Tuesday. Mr. Beldin is not as young as he used to be but he can track a deer or bear as far as the youngsters can. Geo. Metzger has workmen digging a cellar on the north end of his Fifth street lots. When the foundation is completed he will have his present home moved thereon and erect a new residence. Concrete blocks will be used.

M. L. Cummings sold his Fifth street residence to M. C. Tallis. Mrs. Geo. E. English, of Driftwood, visited in Emporium yesterday. Riley Murray visited his sister and family at Driftwood last Sunday. They have greatly improved the property. Mr. Andrew Brady's auto, fully repaired, has arrived. We had an invitation yesterday to join in a spin but declined, not carrying an accidental policy. D. W. Boyer, of Rochester, N. Y., representing Wilkinson & Lancaster, of Syracuse, N. Y., book publishers, was a Press visitor yesterday. An agreeable gentleman, if he is a book agent. Martin L. Cummings and wife, who have a host of friends in Emporium, left on Tuesday for Hyner, Pa., where they will take charge of a store. May success be theirs is the wish of the Press. Taggart, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McNarney, and family, West Fourth street. Dr. A. B. James Wright, our kind Sixth street neighbor, knowing how fond ye editor is and hungry for brook trout, took pity on us, yesterday, and presented us six dandy eleven inch trout for supper. Good? Well I guess they were. The bones are sticking through our ribs yet. Thanks, friend, a thousand times. Beautiful Outfit. The pony outfit, the pride of all the children in town, is being disposed of by the Base Ball Club. Get a ticket or two—only 50c. Look Into Space. A young man whose eyes had been troubling him consulted a New York oculist. "What you want to do," said the specialist, "is to take a trip every day on the ferry or in New Jersey, Long Island—any place where you can see long distances. Look up and down the river, across fields or, if the worst comes to the worst, go on the top of a skyscraper and scan the horizon from that point. The idea is to get distance. You use your eyes a great deal and always at close range. You can't use them any other way in town. Even when not reading or writing the vision is limited by small rooms and narrow streets. No matter in what direction you look, there is a blank wall not far away to shut off sight." Laws are made by old people and by men. Youths and women want the exceptions, old people the rules.—Goethe. For Sale. Buff Wyandotte Eggs for hatching. Satisfaction guaranteed. 5-41. CHAS. A. NEWTON. Girls Wanted. Catching Butterflies.

To catch butterflies you must reach out after them. As a rule you won't catch many in your hand. You must use a net. It is the net that scoops them in. A hand reach in catching butterflies is no better than a handbill in catching business. It is the net that counts. The net is the newspaper. This reaches out to all the people and scoops them in. Experience of several generations has shown that the newspaper is the best business bringer.

Take, for instance, this paper. (Most people take it.) An announcement in this paper goes into the homes of the people whom you must reach if you get the business you are after.

There is, indeed, a very much larger net that scoops in the business butterflies. It is stretched out not only over this community, but over every similar community in the land. It is the mail order net, made up of big catalogues and of advertisements in periodicals which are circulated broadcast to catch the unwary.

To prevent that great net—which is really an octopus with a thousand tentacles—from catching your trade away from you, wisdom suggests that you use your home net—the local newspaper. Usually a word to the wise is sufficient. If you want to keep your patronage or build it up, you must compete with the butterfly catchers from the outside. The Dollar is the Butterfly. It has green wings, and is attractive to merchants in the big cities just as it is attractive to you. If you would catch these pretty butterflies that are circulating around home, you must use the net that circulates around home. Could anything be plainer?

Travel Free. "Conductor," said the gasping passenger, vainly trying to raise a window, "there are at least a billion microbes in this car." "You ought to be able to stand that if the company can," growled the street car conductor. "We don't get a blamed cent for carrying 'em."—Chicago Tribune. Lies Low. "Of course she doesn't like discussions about ages." "No. Usually when she's queried about hers she just says nothing, but lies low." "Yes, or if she says anything she lies low."—Philadelphia Press. Convenient. "So you have three pairs of glasses, professor?" "Yes. One pair to read with, another for nearsightedness and a third pair to look for the other two with."—Fliegende Blatter.
