A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

The Care of Live Stock.

If the testimony of great numbers of the readers of the New York Tribune Farmer is a fair basis for the formation of a correct opinion, then what is known as its Veterinary Department is everywhere esteemed highly. It is, however, more than a veterinary department. Dr. C. D. Smead, who has had charge of it for more than five years, every week answers very many questions in regard to every variety of livestock known on the American farm. Not alone prescribing medicines and treatment, but telling how the diseases might have been prevented, and laying down specific rules for feed and care in health, in sickness and in convalescence. Every farmer keeps some livestock—good veterinarians are scarce.

Each inquirer is fully answered, but Dr. Smead goes far beyond this; he believes that any information which one intelligent farmer needs is also needed by hundreds and thousands of others, and he often so broadens his answer as to make it a complete essay on the subject discussed. A year or two ago Mr. B. Walkeen McKean, of Fryburg, Mo., said in a meeting of farmers that a valuable horse had been attacked with a disease of which he had known nothing until he had recently read of it in The New York Tribune Farmer; what Dr. Smead had taught him enabled him to save his horse. Another farmer arose and said he had had a similar experience. Five or six hundred dollars saved in one town by one copy of the paper! C. C. Waller, M. D., of North Troy, Vt., writes to Dr. Smead, under date of April 23: "I desire to express my gratitude to you through The New York Tribune Farmer, and to say that I regard you as the most able, practical and thoroughly safe writer of the present age, and to express my hope that you may live to serve the farmer and our dumb friends for many years to come."

The regular price of The New York Tribune Farmer is One Dollar a year, but we will send it with The Press both papers, one year for $2.00, cash with order.

PROMISES NOT KEPT

Governor Stuart Displeased With Failure of Legislature to Redeem Pledges

MANY BILLS DIE ON CALENDAR

Among Them the Measure Extending the Merit System to County Governments and Endsley Bill for Equal Distribution of Coal Cars.

Harrisburg, Pa.—The legislative session of 1907 is now a matter of history. Adjournment was taken Thursday. Besides the hundreds of bills that never got out of committee there were 182 bills on the state and house calendars that were dumped overboard. Some of them are more or less important, and their failure to get through will cause some people a lot of trouble.

In the house 110 bills died on the calendar. Those of most interest were the Endsley bill for the equal distribution of coal cars; Thomas repealer of the mercantile license tax; Hecht mechanics' lien repealer; Weingartner bill making it unlawful to sell cigarettes to anyone under 21 years of age; Bliss bill permitting municipalities to tax electric poles; Reynolds bill compelling railroads to give switch facilities to shippers needing one or more cars a day.

There were 72 bills on the senate calendar that were put to death. The more important of these were: Making it a misdemeanor for employers to influence the votes of their employees; authorizing the removal of the Eastern penitentiary; permitting the truth of the allegation to be shown in defense of libel suits; calling for constitutional amendment to abolish tax paying as the qualification for voters.

Governor Anything But Pleased. Governor Stuart very plainly told the members of the legislature that he was not pleased with their failure to enact many of the party pledge measures that were throttled. He pointed out to some of the Republican leaders that they owed it to their party to see that all party promises are redeemed or that the party will have to take the consequences.

The governor has already signed about 160 bills, and the great bulk of his work is yet before him. He has 30 days from the adjournment of the legislature to approve or veto bills. If he does not take action on a bill within that time it becomes a law without his signature. It is pretty safe to say, however, that no bill will become a law that does not have his signature attached to it for the governor is a man who considers it his duty to sign or veto every bill that is passed.

Governor Stuart, by his independent attitude and his desire to see that the public is given a square deal, has made himself tenfold stronger with the people of the state than he was before he was elected governor. By his suggestion $1,000,000 was added to the biennial appropriation for the National guard, making the total appropriation for two years $1,800,000. This increase illustrates the governor's desire to get away from the old practice which, under the act of 1899, allows the guard to expend moneys in emergencies "not otherwise appropriated." The $1,000,000 represents an emergency fund available in case of war, riot or insurrection. If unused at the end of two years it will become a part of the treasury balance and will have to be reappropriated. Some people thought that the million dollar increase meant that the governor expected labor troubles, but this is not the case. The governor simply desired to avoid any chance of a repetition of grafting such as was experienced in the building of the capitol.

Useless Employees Get $6 a Day.

There is to be no reform in the state's salary list, and there will be not cutting off of useless employees. The Miner bill to effect these reforms by abolishing some 40 senate and house positions was killed in the house and the house doorkeeper will continue to have 10 assistants to help him watch people file through the two entrances of that chamber. They and the elevator men and all others of that class will continue to draw $6 a day for seven days a week during sessions of the legislature. The clerks and other employees of the capitol tried very hard to get their salary increase bill through, but it died with hundreds of others. However, the members of the legislature doubled their own salaries and thought they were doing a service to the country. The Godcharles salary readjustment bill went through. This adds considerably to the salaries of some underpaid people.

Governor Stuart doubtless will swing his veto ax most vigorously on some of the bills that have been enacted. He will have this kind of work to perform on many appropriation measures. The two houses were chary about enacting many revenue laws, but when it came to passing appropriation bills they did not know when to stop. They passed bills appropriating millions of dollars more than the revenues of the state will meet.

One striking example of a pledge ignored is that calling for an extension of the Sherman political activity law to all county officers and employees. No effort was made by the legislature to redeem the platform plank wherein it pledged the people an "investigation of the facts as to the abandonment of the construction of competitive railroads by existing corporations." This is the language of that part of the Republican platform offering some hope for the injection of life into the South Penn railroad, control of which was secured by the Pennsylvania and all construction work promptly stopped. Still another platform pledge ignored is that promising the people a law placing a limit on franchises for public utilities and the use of public highways.

Sought Campaign Material. The Democrats have played a great game this session. They fathered every bill that they thought would get the Republicans into close quarters. They helped to pass the Cochran soldiers' pension bill knowing full well that the nearly six million dollars to be appropriated will mean that many private and public charitable institutions will be crippled as a result because there will not be enough revenues to meet so heavy a demand. Then when there was talk about extending the session the Democrats discouraged it all they could. They did not wish the Republicans to have any more opportunity to redeem their pledges. The Democrats say that they now have all the campaign material they need for the future.

The Democrats occupied a rather conspicuous place in the session of 1907. Not since Chauncey Black was lieutenant governor, some 22 years ago, has a Democrat occupied the position of president pro tem. of the senate until a few days ago when Senator Blewitt, Democrats of Lackawanna, was called to the chair temporarily while the appropriation bills were being passed. Nearly all the senators had gone to their homes or were absent from the senate chamber, and on that particular occasion the only senators in their seats were Democrats.

Senator Cyrus E. Woods, who has been presiding officer of the senate, retires from active political life to take at $15,000 position as chief counsel for the Pittsburg Coal Co. Senator Woods is a young man, very popular and a good lawyer.

Good Roads People Used Well.

The legislature was very good to the good roads people. Among the bills passed during the closing days of the session was one appropriating $200,000 for the care and maintenance of the national road. This is in addition to the other roads bills enacted. Among other legislation to reach the governor are the following bills:

Authorizing the payment into the courts of common pleas of moneys charged upon lands in and by deeds and other writings when the moneys are due and the persons entitled to it cannot be found, and providing for the extinguishment and discharge of the lien of such charge and the amount payable and for the distribution of such amount.

Taxing the surplus funds in the insurance departments of trust companies.

Eminent domain for trolley companies.

Reorganizing the department of public grounds and buildings.

Joint resolution providing for the advancement of historical research relating to the state by aiding the Pennsylvania Federation of Historical societies in the collection of material for a complete bibliography of the commonwealth.

Amending the uniform primaries act so as to permit political parties to fix the date of the state convention when it best suits them, instead of compelling them to hold both conventions within a certain time after the primaries as provided under the law at present.

Establishing a state commission for railroads.

Providing for the appointment of a clerk for the director of farmers' institutes.

Making the bucket shop business a misdemeanor.

Will Support Quarantined Families. Providing for the payment of the expenses of the sheriff incident to the execution of writs against personal property in counties having a population of 1,000,000 or more.

Providing that whenever the head of a family shall be quarantined because of an infectious or contagious disease and shall be unable to pay the expense of maintenance and treatment of his family and himself during the period of quarantine he shall be considered a "poor person" within the meaning of the poor laws.

Providing that children may be admitted to schools without having to present vaccination certificates, except when there is smallpox in the neighborhood.

Making employers liable when accidents occur to employees.

Providing a method to secure lands, buildings or other property acquired under the power of eminent domain.

Fixing the pay of sheriffs' watchmen at $2 a day and making 12 hours a legal day for such watchmen.

Requiring dogs to wear collars to be provided by the owners, together with tags to be attached showing payment of tax, and providing for the killing of such dogs whose owners fail to comply with the act.

The last few days of the session were very strenuous. The two houses had many wrangles over appropriation and other bills, notably the railroad commission bill. There was an all night session Wednesday night, winding up with considerable feeling engendered between the senate and Speaker McClain of the house. Then there was the usual giving of presents on Thursday, the final handshaking and farewells. BAN. Q. BARTON.

Ordinance No. 50.

An Ordinance establishing police supervision over the maintenance and erection of telegraph, telephone and electric light poles and wires thereon in the Borough of Emporium, providing for the inspection and other supervision thereof for the expense of such supervision; the granting of annual licenses to all persons, companies and corporations maintaining telegraph, telephone and electric light poles and wires thereon within the limits of the Borough of Emporium, and providing for an annual license fee to be collected from all persons, companies and corporations maintaining such poles and wires within said Borough, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Emporium, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Town Council of Emporium Borough to hereafter exercise proper police supervision over all electric light, telephone and telegraph poles and wires thereon within the limits of the said Emporium Borough and the expense of so doing shall be paid out of the general fund of said Borough Treasury.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of said Town Council of said Borough during the month of June 1907, and each year thereafter, to appoint one or more persons in said Borough whose duty it shall be to inspect all the telegraph, telephone and electric light poles in Emporium Borough and the wires thereon, at least twice each year and as many more times as the Council shall deem it necessary; said inspector to report condition of said poles and wires to said Council after inspection and assessment of said inspector to be fixed by said Council and their work to be done under the direction of said Council.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Town Council hereafter at any and all times to take such steps as they may deem necessary to exercise proper police supervision over all the poles and wires erected and maintained in said Borough as aforesaid, and all expenses so incurred to be paid out of the general fund of the Borough Treasury as set forth in Section 1.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Town Council between June 1st and 15th, 1907 and each year thereafter, to collect an annual license tax in support of the police supervision, as set forth in sections 1, 2 and 3 of this ordinance, from all persons, companies or corporations now maintaining or hereafter erecting and maintaining electric light, telegraph or telephone poles within the limits of Emporium Borough as hereinafter set forth.

Section 5. That all telegraph, telephone and electric light poles now erected or hereafter to be erected in the Borough of Emporium which are or shall be owned by any corporation, company or individual, shall be designated by the names or initials of such owners, and each pole shall have a distinctive number, which name or initials shall be legibly marked upon the poles or upon the poles so designated. It shall be the duty of all such owner or owners on or before the first day of June next, and annually thereafter, to make application to the Burgess for license to maintain the poles theretofore erected for the ensuing year, specifying the poles to be maintained by their proper designation as provided for in this Section. And the Burgess shall, thereupon, issue a license to such applicants, of the poles designated in such application for the term of one year only, to be computed from the first day of June, for each and every year, and no longer. And the license tax for issuing such license shall be the sum of 50 cents for each and every pole authorized to be maintained thereby, to be paid to the Borough Treasurer for the use of said Borough.

Section 6. That all wires owned by any telegraph, telephone or electric light company, corporation or individual, which are erected or hereafter shall be erected upon any pole or poles within the limits of said Borough, shall be subject to a license tax, and each corporation, company or individual maintaining such wires shall be required to pay annually a license fee of $3.00 for each and every mile of wires (line mileage) so erected and maintained upon such poles or pole, and payable to the Borough Treasurer for the use of said Borough. And on the first day of June next, and annually thereafter, shall make application to the Burgess for a license to maintain said wires, specifying the computed mileage of the same; and the said Burgess shall issue such license for the period of one year from the first day of June of each and every year, to such companies, corporations or individuals applying for such license under this Section.

Section 7. That any person, company or corporation failing or refusing to take out the license or to pay the license tax required by this ordinance shall pay a fine of Fifty Dollars for each and every pole or mile of wires, either or both, liable for a license tax, which are maintained contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, in addition to the immediate forfeiture of his or their license, if the same have heretofore been issued; said penalty to be sued for and recovered in a manner that debts for penalties of like amounts are by law recovered.

Section 8. That any person, company or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of any of the sections of this ordinance (except as hereinbefore provided for) shall be subjected to a fine of Five Dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered as like penalties are now recovered by law.

This ordinance repealing any ordinance or parts of ordinances inconsistent hereto.

Enacted into law this 1st day of April, A. D., 1907.

C. J. GOODNOUGH,
President of the Council.
