Maccabee District Convention. The delegates to the District Convention of the Knights of the Maccabees from Tents in Cameron, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk, Jefferson, Lycoming and Potter counties met at Emporium on Saturday last.

There were present Great Commander, W. E. Blany; Great Record Keeper, L. S. Boyd; Great Sergeant, T. W. Brownlee; Supreme Medical Examiner, Dr. Irvin and the following delegates: S. A. Row, Clearfield; G. M. Alcorn, DuBois; W. H. Barber, St. Marys; N. D. Corey, Punxsutawney; D. Cunningham, Ridgway; J. P. McNarney, Emporium; A. G. Woodward, Curwensville; J. L. Reid, Beechwood; O. B. Tanner, Sterling Run; Michael Murrin, Costello; M. M. McCloskey, Austin; Rosser Thomas, D. J. Stickel and C. C. Casselbury, Williamsport; Chas. Kelley, Lock Haven; W. J. Wagner, Renovo; J. J. Schnell, Falls Creek; Solomon Nyce, Dents Run; E. J. Hugar, Karthaus.

There were also present a large number of visiting Knights all of whom were given the privileges of the convention.

A permanent organization of the District Camp, which hereafter will meet annually was effected by the appointment and installation of the following District Camp Officers: Past Commander, M. M. McCloskey; Commander, J. P. McNarney; Lieut. Commander, S. A. Row; Record Keeper, E. C. Kronewetter; Physician, D. J. Stickel, M. D.; Chaplain, N. D. Corey; Sergeant, S. Nyce; Master at Arms, G. M. Alcorn; First Master of the Guard, M. Johnson; Second Master of the Guard, L. E. Losey; Sentinel, A. G. Woodward; Pickett, O. B. Tanner.

The ordinary routine business of the Convention was gone through with some of the propositions to amend the laws caused an interesting and at times exciting debate.

The tug of war came in the election of delegates to the Great Camp which meets in Reading June 3. All the delegates to the District Convention were nominated for delegates to the Great Camp by J. P. McNarney. The ballot resulted in the election of the following: N. D. Corey, D. Cunningham, M. M. McCloskey, J. P. McNarney, C. M. Alcorn, W. J. Wagner, J. J. Schnell, Rosser Thomas.

Mr. McNarney of the local tent receiving the highest vote cast for delegates and practically the entire vote of the Convention.

On account of the break in the gas line the meeting in the Court House had to be abandoned much to the disappointment of the Knights and the people of town.

At 9:30 the Knights to the number of upwards of one hundred assembled in the Presbyterian dining rooms and a most elegant banquet was served.

With the cigars the fun opened and toasts were replied to by Great Record Keeper Boyd, Hon. H. H. Mullin, Supreme Medical Examiner Dr. Irvin, Dr. Stickel, Commander Hoffman and Great Commander Blaney. Most delightful music was furnished by Crandell's Orchestra. At midnight toast master McNarney read messages of regret from prominent Maccabees including King Alfonso, King Edward, Theodore Roosevelt, Gov. Stuart, Senator Foraker and Secretary Taft, and bid the convention good night and good bye.

There will be a large attendance of the P. O. S. of A., at Emporium, May 30th.

THE SHRINERS' FUNERAL TRAIN.

Two Bodies of the Dead Left at Buffalo, 21 at Reading.

MASONIC HONOR AT BUFFALO

All of the Caskets Were Re-Decorated With Flowers at the Erie Station. Arrival of Bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cutler at Binghamton—Arrival of Reading Victims.

Buffalo, May 20.—The Shriners' funeral train arrived here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. It came over the Wabash and entered the Erie station at Michigan and Exchange streets, where the Buffalo Shriners and other Masons were assembled to meet it.

It was about noon when the train got to Chicago Saturday. Shriners were there to meet it with fresh flowers for the funeral car. The bodies of Mrs. Frances J. Fisher and Cora B. Young of Cleveland and L. P. Austin of Silver Creek were there transferred to the Lake Shore to be delivered to their respective towns.

On the train were the bodies of Charles M. Lowing and Abner D. Wasson of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cutler of Binghamton and 21 bodies of members of the Rajah temple party of Reading, Pa., 17 of whom lived in Reading.

Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and Knights Templar of Hugh de Payens and Lake Erie commanderies assembled in the Masonic Temple at 7:45. About 8:30 they started for the Erie station.

The two commanderies of Knights Templar marched as one, under command of J. William Prouse, commander of Hugh de Payens. They were in uniform.

Two wagonloads of flowers were waiting at the Erie station. With these all of the caskets were decorated, those of the Reading dead as well as the Buffalo dead. There were no prayers, no reading of ritual or other ceremonies upon this occasion. These was simply the depositing of the flowers on the caskets, then the passing through the train of a delegation of Shriners to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of their brothers in the caskets.

These services took two hours, so it was 11 o'clock when the train continued its journey to Reading over the Lehigh Valley. When the train had pulled out, the caskets of the Buffalo Shriners were deposited in hearses, and under escort of the Knights Templar and the Shriners, they were taken to their family homes.

There the Masons left them to the families, no Masonic ceremonies to take place until the double funeral on Tuesday. That forenoon, one at 11 o'clock and the other at noon, Masonic services will be observed at the homes. Then at 3 o'clock a joint funeral ceremony will take place at the Masonic cathedral on Delaware avenue.

Among those on the funeral train were Mrs. A. D. Wasson, widow of one of the victims, and her little daughter Bessie; Mrs. Thatcher, John M. Logan, the Buffalo baggage man whose leg was broken in two places; Mrs. Fred Grummond of Binghamton, whose heroism at the scene of the wreck was widely praised, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKenny of Binghamton.

ARRIVAL AT READING.

Practically the Entire Community Paid Honor to the Memory of 17 Shriners.

Reading, Pa., May 20.—With practically the entire community paying respect to their honor, the bodies of the 17 Mystic Shriners of this city who were killed in the Southern California wreck on May 11, were brought here last night. With the dead came 10 survivors who showed the effects of the ordeal through which they passed.

When the funeral train arrived 200 Knights Templar in full uniform were on hand to act as a guard of honor. An entire troop of the state constabulary together with the city's full police force were on hand to preserve order. They were called upon to do little more than prevent people from blocking the approaches to the station.

The 17 caskets containing the Reading dead were carried from the car and placed on four large floats, each of which was drawn by white horses.

Each float was laden with flowers. Headed by an escort of Shriners and Sir Knights, the procession moved from the depot to the three city morgues, where the bodies were deposited for the night.

Large Masonic Funeral.

Binghamton, May 20. — Two thousand persons were at the station when the survivors of the California wreck, with the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cutler, reached this city at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred W. Grummond was in a worse condition than telegrams had led her friends to believe. She is still suffering grievously from bruises to all parts of her body, but her greatest trouble is the severe nervous shock to which she was subjected by being pinned for two hours under the wrecked baggage car.

A large Masonic funeral will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Cutler this afternoon, all of the 33rd degree Masons of the city acting as bearers.
