DEATH'S DOINGS.

HUGHES.

William J. Hughes, aged 58 years, after an illness of two years, suffering from the effects of paralysis, passed to his reward on May 29th, 1907, leaving a wife and eight children, viz: Mrs. Lewis Adams, Carl, Lily, Pa., Chas. W. Hornell, N. Y., Edward, Elizabeth, Richard, Margaret, Wm. Rue, of city; and one brother, E. J. Hughes, of Lilly, Pa., and two sisters—Mrs. Margaret Nissley, Altoona, Pa., and Mrs. Frederick, East Liverpool, O., all of whom were present at the funeral including Mrs. E. J. Hughes, of Lilly, Pa., and Mr. Nissley, of Altoona, Pa., and Mrs. Carl Hughes, of Lilly, Pa., also three half brothers, who were not present at the funeral.

The funeral was held at Free Methodist Church, on Saturday at 2:30 p. m., the services being conducted by Rev. Bennett, assisted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Hill, of Bradford. The services were largely attended.

Deceased came to Emporium in 1870 from Ebensburg, Pa., and has always been an industrious citizen and farmer, rearing a large family. He was for many years active in church work and often traveled miles to minister to the afflicted when hardly able himself to leave his home. The afflicted family, while they will find the loss hard to become reconciled to, will look with pride to his consistent life work.

CLOSE.

The funeral of Mr. Edward F. Close, which took place from his late home at Howard Siding was one of the largest ever held on West Creek. Mr. Close was born at Lyons, N. Y., Aug. 25, 1842. He came to this county early in Sept. 1863. When the civil war began, Mr. Close returned to his native state and home city, to enlist, and served his country as a soldier three years. He enlisted twice, the last time in Company E, 111th New York Infantry and was honorably discharged near Alexandria, Va., June 4, 1865.

Mr. Close was married to Miss Maria Pearsall, Sept. 19, 1865; they spent 12 years of their early life in the state of Mich., returning to Cameron county in 1878. From this happy union one son and five daughters together with their mother survive. It can be truly said of this man "he was not for God took him." He was a devoted husband, a kind father, a desirable neighbor, and a christian gentleman. In his early life he united with the M. E. Church and as the years advanced his life became more and more enriched in the knowledge of God, and fruitful in all christian graces.

DAY.

Seldom, if ever, has the PRESS been called upon to chronicle the death of a citizen more universally respected than was our old time-friend and citizen, John Day, Sr., at the remarkable age of 84 years, eight months and one day—his death having taken place, at 8:30 p. m., Thursday, May 30th, 1907, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Helen Metzger, on Fifth street.

Deceased came to Emporium in 1866, as Supt. of the tannery firm of Hamilton, Martin & Co., in which firm he held an interest. He continued to have charge of this company's interests here until after the holdings passed to the Elk Tanning Co., when he retired to private life, making his home with his children. His life was an eventful one, active and forceful. A short time ago he handed his son John H., a paper which we are permitted to copy:

"OBITUARY OF JOHN DAY, WRITTEN BY HIS OWN HAND.
I was born Sept. 29, 1822. For the first eighteen years of my life I was a farmers' boy. The next ten a school teacher. The next sixteen an attorney-at-law. The next thirty a business man; since then I have lived a retired life.

JOHN DAY.

Deceased leaves six children, viz: Geo. L., Helen M. Metzger, Herbert, John H., city; Fannie M. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Frank F. city. His wife died in 1870. Mr. Day has one brother living, R. L. Day, aged 78 years, who resides at Webster, Mass.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral services were held at Presbyterian Church last Sabbath afternoon and was very largely attended by are citizens, all eager to pay a last mark of respect to an upright citizen and consistent christian. Dr. Johnston, the Pastor, delivered a very able discourse. The singing by a large choir was admirably rendered.

AS WE KNEW HIM.

The PRESS in looking back over the forty years that we knew the deceased have many, very many, kind remembrances of his kindness and good cheer. We always delighted to have him call for a visit or talk for we were sure to learn something. While a very conservative man Mr. Day always had the greatest desire for the material advancement of Emporium and was ever ready to stand his share of expense. In business he was honest to the cent and never knowingly wronged any person. Positive, exact and emphatic in every question—business, religious or political. Politically he was of the Charles Summer stripe and seldom, if ever crossed the line to assist the enemy of these sentiments expounded by the old school statesmen. Mr. Day in 1882 was the Republican nominee for member of Assembly but failed of election by fifty-four votes and often laughingly referred to his campaign mistakes. He would not allow anything contrary to his ideas of right to be done even to secure his election. John Day was an honest man and leaves a shining monument for the youth to point to. Farewell, old friend.

Base Ball.

On Thursday last our people practically all, had a day off, and took occasion to visit the park and witness the base ball games between Emporium and Johnsonburg. The attendance was the largest of the season. The first game opened with Johnsonburg at the bat, and their half ended with a goose egg. The locals scored in their half and from that on were unable to count. It was evident from the opening of the second inning that it was an off day for the home team. Their batting was somewhat below their usual average and it seemed when they did hit the ball it landed safe in a fielder's mit, this and numerous errors at critical stages gave Johnsonburg the game 6 to 1. The boys from the paper city were more fortunate, their hits were landed more safely, and while the errors were numerous they were not made at times that would favor the home team. Our fans who had not seen the team play before this season were disappointed with the showing the home team made on this occasion. Overturf at third played his usual good game, as did Liston at first.

The second game was a repetition of the first. Hemphill, who had pitched the first game, started the second but was relieved by Weaver. Score 9 to 3 in Johnsonburg's favor.

Emporium team was defeated at Johnsonburg Tuesday by the score of 13 to 5.
St. Marys will play here on Saturday afternoon, June 8.

Automobile Accident.

On last Thursday afternoon a party of Ridgwayites, composed of Emil Carlson, E. H. Amory, Miss Nine Ravenscroft and Miss Gertrude Grant, met with quite an automobile accident while coming to Emporium. About one-fourth of a mile west of Howard Siding, the machine which was speeding at a rapid rate struck one of Shippen's mud holes, upsetting the auto, throwing the occupants down an embankment, Carlson, the chauffeur and one of the ladies being pinned under the wreck. Mr. Carlson had his left arm severely injured and his back was badly burned by the gasoline fring. The other occupants escaped with but slight injuries. Dr. DeLong was wired for and went to scene of the accident and brought the injured man to the New Warner. He was taken home on Sunday, yet very sore and in great pain—his left arm being paralyzed.

Our local "auto fiends" promptly relieved the unfortunates by offering the use of their machines. It is a miracle that the ladies escaped injury.

THE LATE JOHN DAY, SR.

The Social Swim.

A crowd of merry young people assembled at the Emmanuel Reading Rooms, Monday evening, June 3rd, as guests of the C. B. C. Club, the occasion being a farewell given in honor of one of their number, Miss Florence Cleary. The guests were received by several of the club members and after wraps were disposed of, escorted to the hall above, which was tastefully decorated with potted palms, tabourettes and center tables were resplendent with doilies, marked with an attractive monogram of the club and the cozy corners were invitingly arranged with a variety of cushions. The evening was enjoyed by a programme of dances arranged by the young ladies. During intermission a dainty luncheon was served, after which several songs were sung by all. The remaining part of the programme finished, all leaving indebted to the following young ladies for a most enjoyable time: Dorothy Nelson, Jennie Nystrom, Agnes Blumie, Mary Blumie, Anna Welsh and Irene Ritchie.

BY A GUEST

Memorial Day.

Decoration Day was appropriately observed in Emporium, large delegations coming from all sections of the county. The procession was the largest ever seen here. Newton-Wiley Cemetery was crowded with citizens, hundreds of Sunday school children being there. Congressman Onas F. Barclay, in a few pleasant remarks, introduced Rev. W. P. Shriver, the orator of the day. The Rev. gentleman's oration was scholarly, eloquent and unique and highly pleasing to the vast gathering. The old veterans were out in large numbers, although their numbers are growing less. After the services at the cemetery the "old boys" were invited to the Post room, where the ladies of the Relief Corps had a bountiful supper prepared. Photographer W. G. Bair took a snap-shot picture of the old veterans. The day was a great success and all were proud of the occasion.

Maccabee Session.

District Attorney J. P. McNarney has returned from attending the Reading session of State Camp of Maccabees as the Representative from Cameron county. He was elected one of the Representatives to the Supreme Tent to be held at Detroit, Mich., July 8th.

First Under Uniform Ballot.

The primary elections held throughout Pennsylvania, under the new law, was pulled off last Saturday, from 2 to 8 o'clock, p. m. In this county there was little contest, except for County Treasurer on the Republican side. Mr. Henry Ludlam was the only Democratic candidate, although many of the organization democrats swore they would defeat his nomination, they laid down like lambs. On the Republican side there were many candidates, five, and they made an active fight for the nomination, but the horrible rainy day kept the vote down in the rural districts. The vote was canvassed yesterday with the following result:

Vote by Districts for Treasurer

District	Rep.	Dem.	Other
Shippen	15	34	74
West Ward	27	24	43
Middle Ward	25	16	34
East Ward	22	18	23
Portage	10	21	11
Lumber	3	15	11
Gibson	1	16	2
Hicks Run	2	22	8
Driftwood	10	6	18
Grove	9	11	13
Totals	124	162	190

Delegate to State Convention resulted in the unanimous election of Jos. S. Johnston, R., and John Cummings, D., Chairman Republican County Committee showed L. W. Gleason re-elected without opposition, while the democrats elected Geo. P. Shafer, D., over B. Egan, D., by a vote of 30 to 37.

The plan of voting is fraught with many dangers, unless the election officers are compelled to refuse tickets to voters known to be of the opposite political faith. Time may cure the law of defects, but the first trial was far from being an improvement over the old plan.

Mr. Howard made a remarkable contest and developed strength that was never dreamed of by the older men. In accordance with the pledge made by the principal candidates to support the successful candidate it is their duty to cordially support Farmer Howard. Republicans, attention! Forward.

DeVoe Perdicet.

Here are Weather Prophet DeVoe's predictions for the entire summer, which he says will be cool up to July 10, and then roasting hot, until after September 15.

June 2 to 7—Moderately warm.
June 8—Very heavy thunderstorms, followed by falling temperature.

June 9 to 13—Coldest summer weather for many years in June, but too cloudy for frost, though almost cold enough for snow.

June 13 to 15—Pleasant.
June 16—Warm, showery.

June 18 to 23—Pleasant.
June 23—Warm and showery.

June 24—Heavy thunderstorms.
June 25 to 27—Very cold for summer. July will come in cool, and stay so for several days.

"The Fourth"—Cool.
July 6—Thunderstorms.
July 7 to 10—Very cold for that time of year.

July 11 and then through the summer—Very hot.

Rapidly Declining.

The editor of the PRESS is in receipt of a private line from Mr. Wm. Randall, Supt. of the George Nugent Home for Baptists at Germantown containing the sad news that "Mr. McNeil has grown very much more feeble in mind and body since you were here. Present appearances indicate that he will not long remain with us." Rev. McNeil's many admiring friends will be pained to hear that his end is near. Mr. Randall, the Supt., has been very kind to our old friend. Many of us will long remember that pleasant smile and hearty hand shake. When we last called on him he had commenced to fail and death will be a blessing. Any correspondence directed to Mr. Wm. Randall, Supt. George Nugent Home for Baptists, Germantown, Pa., will be promptly answered.

Accident at Huntley.

As night watchman Gardino Angulo was coming up the P. R. R. tracks from Huntley station about eight o'clock Monday morning he stepped off of the east bound track to get out of the way of an east bound freight and walked directly in front of a west bound train. He was struck and knocked about twenty feet to the side of the track. The injured man was taken to Driftwood on a hand car, where Dr. Corbett attended him. He was painfully but not seriously injured. Owing to a cot bed which he was carrying on his back the force of the blow was reduced. He was taken back to Huntley after being cared for and is resting comfortably as can be expected.

Emmanuel Church Kindergarten.

Arrangements have been made for another summer term of the Church Kindergarten to be held in Emmanuel Parish House under the direction of Miss Nina Bryan. The term will open next Monday, June 10th and continue six weeks. Daily hours, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Children, from four to ten years of age, will be received, preference being given to the children of Emmanuel Parish.

Re-Embarked in Business.

E. M. Mackey & Co., wholesale confectionary dealers located at 1014 Eleventh avenue, have disposed of their business to Homer D. Burlingame, a well known resident of this city who resides at 708 Lexington avenue. Mr. Burlingame will take charge of his new business about June 1, and will give to it his personal attention, and will not, as he stated Saturday, make any changes in the present force of employees. He was unable to say what improvements would be made to advance the business interests, but will make every effort to carry on the business in a successful way. Mr. Burlingame has for many years been engaged in the grocery business, and as a salesman, and is thoroughly acquainted with the people's wants in the line he will soon handle.—Altoona Tribune. There will be something doing in sweets, that H. D. is at the helm. Congratulations and best wishes.
