FREE RIDE TO JAMESTOWN OR NEW YORK CITY

VACATION TIME IS HERE. SEGERBRO'S, OF NEW YORK MAKE THIS STARTLING OFFER.

Emporium Business Men Hustlers in New York.

We will give to every cash purchaser of our celebrated Becker Bro's piano a free trip to New York City and return, including board for five days outing; or we will give a free trip and return to Jamestown Exposition including five days board at one of the principal hotels. This we can safely say is the greatest offer ever made in any mercantile business. You secure not only a vacation for yourself but you get one of the finest toned instruments that it is possible to buy at any price, and this at the same cash figure we sell all the year around. Our reason for making this extraordinary offer is simply this: The weather has been very unreasonable, hundreds of orders that the manufacturers received in the winter and and early spring having been cancelled. They, the manufacturers, are in consequence over stocked and must dispose of them at once and at a great loss. We assure you three monthe from now the piano cannot be sold at this figure. We sell direct from the actory and should you decide to visit New York, we will take pleasure in showing you through this immense concern and give you an opportunity of seeing this piano, as it is made, step by step, from the first rough board to its finished state. Catalogs, containing all the different styles and cuts of the Becker Bro's pianos will be gladly mailed to you upon application. Our price for the piano, with either of above propositions included, is $275.00 cash for the large size Becker Piano and $250.00 cash for the small size. This is a genuine offer and no fake, holds good until Sept. 1st. Our motto is: Lead and let others follow; quick sales and small profits. Cut this out and communicate with us at once for further particulars.

Respectfully, SEGER BRO'S, No. 237, West 142d St., New York, N. Y.

State Educational Association.

The Fifty-first sessional of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association will be held at Greensburg, Westmoreland county, July 2, 3 and 4, 1907. Greensburg is one of the most attractive and most progressive towns in Pennsylvania. It is thirty-one miles east of Pittsburg on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Special efforts have been made to present a program of great worth. The State Teachers' Association is of the highest professional value to teachers. Many school measures found upon our statute books are traceable to the influence of this organization. Every teacher in the state should be a member of this organization. All members will receive a bound volume of the present, and in the present, and in the present in the fulfilment and vindication of the past.

In 1607 we see the beginning of religious, as well as of commercial and industrial life, in America. The following extract from Captain John Smith's "True Relation and Generall Historie" is of timely interest, inasmuch as the first service of the Holy Communion was held at Jamestown on the Third Sunday after Trinity, John 21, 1607.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

St. Marys was easy picking for the home team last Saturday. Although St. Marys had an aggregation composed of practically all the left handed "hard hitters" in Elk county they were able to get but four hits off Gilbert, whose pitching and all round work was the feature of the game. With Gilbert and Hemphill on the pitching staff, and Eschbaugh and Liston behind the slab, Emporium has as strong batteries as can be found in the amateur ranks. Manager Falk in procuring Gilbert has greatly strengthened the home team and it is expected the boys will take a brace and give us the real article. The St. Marys boys play-ed a very loose fielding game and the locals profited by their errors, while on the other hand the errors Emporium made were not costly.

Three Hundred Years Ago.

The Jamestown Ter-centenary is meant to recall to us something of the beginnings of our great and mighty nation. This commemoration fixes attention neither upon the past alone nor upon the present alone, but upon the past as related to the present and the present as related to the past. NORTHERN CONVOCATION MEETING AT CHRIST CHURCH PARISH HOUSE

Clergymen and laymen of the northern convocation of the diocese of Pittsburg met for conference at Christ church parish house yesterday afternoon. There were present: The Rt, Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburg; the Rev. Drs. Bento n of Foxburg, and Conant, of Waterford, the Rev. Messrs. Edwards, of Meadville; Gibson, of Port Allegany; Hills, or Oil City; Hunter, of St. Mary's; Izon, of Greenville; John, of Clearfield; of Greenville; John, of Clearfield; Morgan, of Titusville; Robertson, of Emporium and Van Dyke, of Kare, and 24 laymen, representing the parishes in Clearfield, Erie, Greensville, Kane, Meadville and Oil City.

The guests, together with the rector and representative laymen of Christ church, were sumptuously entertained at luncheon in the assembly hall of the parish house by ladies of the parish, under the leadership of Mrs. Frederick S. Bates. The American flag was the chief table decoration, and flags adorned the walls. The bishop made graceful acknowledgment of the ladies hospitality.

After devotions the bishop stated the action of the recent diocesan convent hospitality.

After devotions the bishop stated the action of the recent diocesan convention, which authorized the appointment of an archdeacon for work in the northern convocation exclusively. The following executive committee was thereupon elected: The Rev. Messrs. Algner, of Franklin; Hills, of Oil City, and McGann, of Erie; and Messrs. Brockway, of Warren; Dick, of Meadville; Howard, of Emporium, and Ohl, of New Castle. This community was authorized to receive all suggestions regarding the new archdeacon, and to present a nominee to the bishop for appointment. To reorganize the convocation as a missionary body, the following were appointed a committee on by-laws: The Rev. Messrs. Robertson, of Emporium; Morgan, of Titusville, and Jones, of Warren; and Messrs Mullins, of Franklin, and Earp, of Oil City. The bishop announced that, after such reorganization, he would place the nominations of missionaries and the apportionment, of stipends in the hands of convocation. Additional subscriptions increased the fund for the new archdeacon's work to $2,860. It was proposed that the confund for the new archdeacon's work to $2,860. It was proposed that the convocation receive quarterly reports from the archdeacon and the several missionaries.

from the archdeacon and the several missionaries.

With a large map of the diocese before him, the bishop then spoke of the missionary work in detail, and interesting additions were made by Mr. Turner W. Shacklett, of Eric, the treasurer for diocesan missions. A general discussion followed, in which many clergymen and laymen took part. Rev. John Dows Hills made an earnest plea for the more extended work of lay-readers in small places, instancing the great work done by the laymen's league of Pittsburg, and the like work done in McKeesport and Oil City, with laymen caring for services in outlying towns under clergymen's direction.

The executive committee, to which was entrusted the nomination of an archdeacon; is to meet at once, and it is expected to have the man in the field in the early autumn.

The meeting was a great success socially, as well in its work, and the members of Christ church were lavish in their hospitality to the visitors.—Oil City Derrick, May 31.

Died at Hospital.

Robt. Armstrong, aged about 60, who has resided at Beechwood for many years, where he owned a farm, died in Lock Haven Hospital on Tuesday. Undertaker LaBar's assistant, C. W. Rishell, went to Lock Haven early yesterday morning and brought the remains to Emperior. yesterday morning and brought the remains to Emporium. Mr. Armstrong, who has been working in Hicks Run, was taken down with pneumonia and taken to the hospital. We are unable to gather any additional information, but we understand the funeral will be held at Truman school house to-day at three o'clock. We knew deceased very well and valued his friendship very highly We hope to secure an obituary for next issue.

Veto.

Governor Stuart on Monday vetoed the bill pensioning soldiers of the civil war who served in Pennsylvania regiments and are now resident of the state. The chief reasons for vetoing the bill are that it is so crude in form and bears evidence of having been passed without mature deliberation and were it to become a law it would be recessery to become a law it would be necessary to reduce the appropriations to the state's public and private charities.

As an illustration of the prompt manner in which the New York Life meets it's obligations the above settlement was made within four days after the certificates were filed with the company.

The Church Kindergarten.

The Church Kindergarten.

The second annual term of the summer Church Kindergarten opened on Monday morning in Emmanuel Parish House. Twenty-eight children have been in attendance this week. The work is under the experienced direction of Miss Nina Bryan. This is not an ordinary kindergarten, but one which has for its distinctive aim the imparting of religious instruction through the medium of Bible stories, hymns, etc. Kindergarten methods and many of the usual kindergarten exercises are employed. It is substantially a modern progressive primary Sunday school, with this difference and advantage, that it is held on five days of the week instead of one. The term will last six weeks.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent. Washington, June 8th, 1907.

The last days of the President before leaving for his summer vacation at Oyster Bay are being spent in arranging for the trust prosecutions that it is confidently believed will be undertaken by the Department of Justice. The evening of the last cabinet day in Washington was the occasion of a notable gathering of "trust busters" at the White House. There were most of the members of the cabinet, Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, representatives of the Department of Justice, and some of the special attorneys of the government engaged in the corporation investigations. The object of the gathering was to settle on the policy of the administration as to prosecutions so as to leave the President as free as possible from discussions of this sort during the summer.

The government has gathered a mass of information on which it may act, but there is more in the question than the simple one of whether or not a conviction can be secured in any particular case. There is the wider one of policy. The country has been riding on a wave of prosperity, they have been immense crops and great business expansion. The repeated revelations of corruption in financial life and the threat that the law would be enforced and a number of captains of industry put in jail, has stirred up the corporations so that they are threatening to "shut off the heat" as it were, by suspending railroad improvements, closing down factories, and laying off men. Just with these moves there comes the prospect of a bad crop year. Repeated raids in the stock market have driven securiities down to a low point and while the shrinkage in paper values has not effected the real values of tangible assets, it has made money tigher for capital is notoriously timid, and now should there come a determined raid from the White House against the pirate captains of industry, values would go tumbling again and everything would be just right for the financial panic that pessimists have so long said was over due.

It is this ticklish state of affairs on the brink of an election that is making the administration hesitate as to wisest course to take. There is no question that the government could put a number of eminent financiers in jail if it were determined to do so. There is little question too that such drastic action would be followed such drastic action would be followed by profound industrial depression, and then the money world would be able to chuckle and say. "Now see what to chuckle and say, "Now see what you've done." Therefore it is likely that the Department of Justice will be cautioned to move very carefully in its

The aim of this Association is to promote practice with Sociation Sociat the service rifle among civilians who do not want to spare the time to go into the National Guard. Under rules recently issued by the War Department, any twenty men can form a rifle club and buy service rifles and ammunition from the government and be given the privilege of the nearest government or national guard rifle range, that is of course, if they have not a range of their own. The President has been conferring with Gen. Drain, the president of the association, and he hopes to get authority from the coming congress to issue rifles of this sort free of charge to any rifle clubs affiliated with the National Association. It is believed in this way that the average of markmanship among civilians can be greatly raised and if the time ever comes when we are confronted with another war, the volunteers will be familiar with the use of the service rifle before they are enlisted.
