SINNAMAHONING.

Henry Caldwell was off duty Tuesday and he is in the land of the living. About 50 pounds of the remains of the five men killed was all that was found. The cause of the explosion is not known. No one in the gelatine plant was left to tell the tale. The powder plant has been making extra time lately, which may be the cause of the explosion. Miss Eva Brooks and Miss Bertha Fulton are visiting at Philadelphia. Mrs. Joe M. Shafer, of Shamokin, is visiting friends here this week. Wm. Davis has resigned as night watchman at the powder works and taken a position with Barclay Bros. Forest warden R. M. Crum is busy these times; putting up state forestry notices on the lines of the state lands. Hon. H. H. Mullin of Emporium was in town Tuesday. U. A. Palmer was taken suddenly ill Monday and taken to his home at Emporium Tuesday. W. H. Van Wert was called home Tuesday owing to the illness of his wife. County Commissioner O. L. Bailey was at the county seat Tuesday. A good many people were in Sinnamonahoning Tuesday after the explosion to learn the particulars. Tuesday, June 18th, 1907, Sinnamonahoning is in sorrow, owing to the explosion at the dynamite works. The bereaved families have the sympathy of the whole town and county. All will be done that can be to relieve their distress. Messrs. Auchu, Howard, Logan, Van Wert and other members of the Powder Co. were on hand after the explosion and did all they could to relieve the distress of the sufferers. W. C., 139, P. O. S. of A., held a special meeting to arrange for services over the remains of Edward Cole, who was a member of the order. The gelatine plant of the Sinnamonahoning Powder Co., blew up at 8:25 a. m., Tuesday, killing J. B. Nelson, Filmore Summerson, Edward Cole, Harry Cole, son of Albert Cole, and Samuel Shadman, son of Harry Shadman, all of this place. The explosion occurred without a moment's warning and none employed in that building are left to tell how it happened. Mr. Nelson leaves a wife, Mr. Summerson a wife and three children, Mr. Cole a wife and three small children. The remains have all been carefully gathered and put in separate caskets and funeral services will be held on Thursday morning. A head-on collision between passenger train going north and a freight go south Friday evening, at First Fork killed two men and injured many more on the B. S. & S. R. R. When will the railroad companies quit trying to pass two trains on the same track. V. A. Brooks while surveying near Twelve Mile Run, Mosquito Creek, last week, found the bones of some person in a dark and rocky ravine near the head of the Run. The bones were those of a man. DEBS.

SIZERVILLE.

The warm wave has struck us at last. M. Hackett of Renovo is enjoying the benefits of the water and baths for rheumatism. R. Prosser and family are spending their vacation at the Jamestown exposition. We await the report of his visit. Mr. Easterly and family of Bradford have located here. Mr. Easterly has accepted a position with foreman Burtn on the railroad. S. G. Havens received the sad intelligence on Saturday of the death of his only son William, at Galeton. Was found by the road side cold in death. Mr. Havens has the sympathy of all his neighbors. Farmers are feeling much encouraged over the outlook for good crops. The few warm days have greatly hastened their slow growth. Corn and potatoes have a thrifty look. We noticed R. C. Dodson and some other successful anglers on our streams yesterday. They seem to carry the right kind of fish lure for a good catch. The P. R. R. pay car caused much sunshine on the countenances of all the employees Tuesday. D. K. Kephart lost a valuable horse last week. It was taken suddenly ill and soon died. The Austin band wagon was on hand yesterday, posting bills for their show on the Fourth. The lumber city seems determined to have a crowd if printers ink cuts much figure. We expect to see much red fire in the sky in the direction of East Cowley. June 19, 1907. X. X. X.
