DR. E. O. BARDWELL AND WIFE LEAVES EMPORIUM.

Dr. Bardwell and wife leave to-day for Buffalo, where the Dr. will "hang out his shingle," at No. 1175 Main street, near the High Street Hospital, in order that both himself and wife can have the best medical treatment when needed. Dr. Bardwell being a graduate of Buffalo Medical College, class of 1879, he has many friends there to encourage and assist him in his profession. While their many Cameron county friends dislike to have them leave Emporium, all wish them well in their new home. Professionally Dr. their new home. Professionally Dr. Bardwell had no superiors and will be sadly missed by his patrons, who have had great confidence in his judgment during his practice here of over twenty-five years. During all these years the family have enjoyed the confidence and respect of our citizens and many happy hours have been passed in their company by hosts of their friends. We hope their future may be healthful and happy.

In Poor Health.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Groves will be sorry to learn that the doctor is in poor health and has been obliged to go to Colorado, where he and his wife are now stopping—at Littleton, Col. We hope the change of climate may be beneficial.

Congressman Barclay.

Congressman Chas. F. Barclay, accompanied by his wife, sister Mrs. R. J. Robarts, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. C. T. Wall, Owego, N. Y., visited in Emporium on Monday, guests at New Warner. They made the trip from Sinnamahoning in the Capt's White Steamer.

Rothfuss—Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rothfuss, of Williamsport, issue invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Marion Evelin to Mr. Godfrey Woodhead Howard, on Wednesday evening, Aug. 21st, 1907, at St. Luke's Luthern church, Williamsport, Pa. Miss Rothfuss has visited in Emporium and made many admiring friends. The popular young man resided here for several years and was greatly respected for his manly conduct. The Press joins in extending the best wishes of many friends for a prosperous and happy friends for a prosperous and happy journey through life.

Why is it that no one wants to live in the country any more? Cities are full of people who live from "hand to mouth," and whose total wealth is represented by the clothing they have on. Years go by and these persons never have a home. They lose that independence that the proud owner of a farm has. If there is one needed reform it is to keep people on farms and away. is to keep people on farms and away from cities.—Whitesville News.

It was generally admitted by the New York critics during the long run of "The Girl of the Golden West," that "The Girl of the Golden West," that Mr. Belasco alone had succeeded in transposing the atmosphere of Bret Harte's California mining life to the stage, and that the play was an ideal western drama. The characters of The Girl, of Jack Rance, the gambler-sheriff and of Sonora Slim are an unrivaled trio of Amarican types. The play was presented upward of 400 performances at the Belasco Theatre, and will be seen at the local theatre next season.

The following Attorneys were in attendance: M. Brennan, Jay P. Felt, B. W. Green, J. C. Johuson, Fred A. Johnson, F. D. Leet and J. P. McNarney. Visiting attorneys, Eugene Baird, Fred McFarland, Ridgway.

Considerable business was transacted such as motions, etc., of no interest to the public. Of the business of importance we note the following:

John Dixon, who has been confined in county jail, for refusal to support his wife, was dismissed from jail.

Petition in lunacy, asking that a committee be appointed to pass upon the sanity of Dan'l Britton, was granted.

Absolute divorce granted Jos. S. Hunt from his wife, Annie C. Hunt.

Wm. R. Sizer and Wm. McDowell appointed Auditors of Portage Township, to fill vacancy.

JUVENILE COURT.

Edward Kilduff, a young lad, aged twelve years, who was arrested last Friday for stealing $24.00 from A. J. Turley's store money drawer and pleaded guilty, was remanded to Morganza Reformatory, he having been released from said institution on parole. This is the lad's third trip to Morganza.

About 9:30 o'clock Monday evening, while Miss Bell Husted, one of Emporium's highly respected young ladies, was going to the Herdic residence in Plant Road Hollow, she was met by an Italian. His actions aroused the young lady's suspicion and she told him to stand away and let her pass. With this he grabbed her by the throat and threw her to the ground. Being a lady of good physique she grabbed the fiend, who was smaller than she, and hurled him to the ground and made her escape, at the same time screaming for help. The Ike became frightened and ran. Although terribly frightened she was a match for her assailant. It is a great shame she did not have a gun. A number of young men attempted to find the scoundrel but the frightened lady could not give sufficient description to aid the hunt. Too bad that Judge Lynch cannot have a chance at some of the sneaking curs that infest our streets at night. No lady should venture out at night alone, especially in sparcely settled sections, without an escort. Emporium Young Lady Assaulted.

Smith Whitman is handling the book and is very much impressed with it. He says in his travels of five years, selling the "Pennsylvania Lawyer," he has come in touch with many grafters that wish to know some law. They stand in shady nooks and work and thrive in those shadows.

But the worst of all is the society grafter. These victims are counted by the thousands among honest women who are struggling for an honest living. They set their traps at the door of our homes, as they walk the streets of our towns with polished shoes that hide the cloven foot, as they buy and hide the cloven foot, as they buy and sell and trade in human honor.

TAKES A STRONG POSITION ON THE CAPITOL CASE.

PUNISHMENT FOR EVERY GRAFTER.

Says That the Members of the State Government, and Him-self, Are Firm Believers in the Ten Commandments-Much Enthusiasm.

BERNVILLE, August 9.—John O. Sheatz, Repubiican candidate for State Treasurer, opened his campaign in this, one of the thriving towns in Berks county, last evening, in a speech which demanded punishment of the Capitol grafters. Fully 5,000 persons assembled in Umbenhauer's grove, where Candidate Sheatz opened his address with words of praise for the farmers. He referred to his Lehigh county birth, and there were hundreds on hand from Lehigh to applaud him. He quoted farm statistics showing that there are in the United States 11,000,000 farmers and men who are employed on farms, representing nearly 6,000,000 farms, with a valuation of nearly $21,000,000.

During a terrible storm that swept over parts of the country, last Wednesday atternoon, Jas. W. Scott of Farmers Valley, was struck by lightning, instantly killing him. Mr. Scott was forman of Kane's lumber camp. The deceased is survived by a wife and two children, who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. Funeral services were conducted at the camp on Friday last, the remains being taken to Ripley, N. Y., for burial.

Wm. Hendricks, of Emporium, was the only witness to the awful scene. He was sitting about ten feet from Scott when the boltstruck him.

This being Mr. Harper's first visit to Emporium he is having a pleasant time, meeting old friends who have visited in Fla. His wife, formerly Miss Carrie Pye, was a highly respected young lady when she resided here and her friends congratulate her on capturing the wide-awake "Southern Cracker," who is all right.

Mr. Sheatz also spoke of the first defenders and lauded Berks county's part in the Civil war, and especially Bernville's young men who went to the front during that period.

TO KEEP IN FRONT.

To keep in front.

"With a steady advance in education and good roads," he continued, Pennsylvania will keep on in the front ranks of progressiveness in every line that promotes good citizenship and better government.

"And when I say better government I mean that the rascally business of the clique that built and furnished the State Capitol and profited illegally by that work, of which you and I and the people of Pennsylvania knew nothing, shall be punished—yes, punished to the fullest extent of the law.

"Not only for the wrong they did the taxpayers of the commonwealth. but additional punishment, if it is possible, for holding us up to ridicule in the eyes of our sister States and by dragging the name of our good State in the mud.

"I want to say to you people of Berks county that the Governor and Auditor General, myself and the great majority of citizens of this Commonwealth not only respect and obey the Eight Commandment, but every one of the Ten Commandments and fear no comparison in that line with any one connected with the political party that intends to drag quotations from the Holy Bible into a political campaign.

HIS PLEDGE TO THE PEOPLE.

"As a Pennsylvanian I come to you as a candidate for the office of State Treasurer. If you believe in me, if you feel that I will be true to the trust I ask you to repose in me, then I hope you will vote for me. Of this you can be absolutely sure, and that is, if elected, I will positively refuse to pay any request or demand upon the State Treasury where the expenditure is not clearly defined by existing laws or when I feel great extravagance exists.

"In the latter case the sooner the press and the public are made aware of this fact the better for our Commonwealth. And when my term of office expires every dollar that should be in the State Treasury will be there." At the close of his speech there was great applause. A reception followed and Candidate Sheatz was introduced by Attorney Keiser to not only the leading Republicans of Bernville but to the many influential. Democrats of Northern Berks, who were on hand to hear Democratic Congressman Rothermel and Clerk of Quarter Sessions Candidate Samuel Bordner speak. HIS PLEDGE TO THE PEOPLE.

Energetic Press Representative.

Mr. E. C. Steele, of Parsons, Kansas, the wide-awake Press Representative of the Van Amburg Shows knows how to work up interest in their shows, watches every good idea and catches on. His very gentlemanly and courteous treatment to the representatives of the press, and all persons with whom he came in contact, in our judgment places him in the front rank as a circus press representative—the best we ever met. In fact the head men of each department that we met are gentlemen. The Van Amburg Shows will once more be as popular as it was in the civil war times.

The attendance at this place, last Saturday was the largest known here in years and the unanimous verdict of our people was: "This is a good show; the work of the Japs alone repays the expense, while the elegant horses is a treat to look at. It is an old-time show and we like it." If Van Amburg comes back to Emporium next year friend Steele will have to add an extra half acre to that new tent in order to accommodate the children and ladies alone. and ladies alone.

Glycerine Explosion Injures Five Trainmen.

Trainmen.

Last Saturday morning, about two o'clock, the trainmen on train No. 98 attempted to remove what they supposed to be a drunken hobo, when the train arrived at Ridgway. The conductor Albert Pierce, took from the pocket of the hobo a bottle of what he supposed was whiskey, and handed it to Engineer Robinson, who allowed it to slip through his fingers, falling against the car, when there was a terrible explosion, the stuff proving to be glycerine. All of the railroad men five in namber, were painfully injured. Their names are Albert K. Pierce, Wm. C. Robinson, Jos. D. Krebs, S. J. Snyder and Earl Marsh, the latter being from Mason Hill, this county. He is not seriously injured. Engineer Robinson's injuries proved more serious than at first supposed, his left leg was amputated above the ankle. All the injured men are at Ridgway Hospitrl. The hobo escaped serious injury and is confined in Ridgway jail. It is generally believed that he is a burglar.

A real social and pleasant time was enjoyed by about one hundred of the people of Rich Valley on Saturday last, at a pic-nic at the Chadwick School House, it being a united Sunday school affair, the Rich Valley and Elk Lick schools joining and the result was a grand success. The table was loaded with good things to eat until it fairly groaned and after every one had feasted to their "hearts content" or their stomach's miscry, there was left, as one said enough to feed forty more," and it was not exaggerated. The grounds are famous for such affairs and the trees did double duty, they afforded shade and a large swing was suspended from the swing trees, as two of them are called, and one small swing for the little folks. We wish to thank all who helped us but especially F. J. Lewis for the able assistance he gave us.

The most notable feature of the day was the absence of all loud noise. There was no screaming and yelling which so often is the case, which disturbs the people for a radius of a half a mile or more.

It would be well if the people of Emporium would copy from them. It is a deplorable fact that the people from town will come up the Valley screaming and hollowing. They seem to think that because we live in the country we have no rights whatever, and some of the prominent young people of town do not atop at that but use abscene language and insult the citizens by the vulgar talk. A few Sundays ago even going so far as to drive to the church door and calling to and disturbing and disturbing to enes at worship. MRS. LEWIS CONWAY.

Fatal Accident.

Lewis Conway, of this place, son of Mrs. Chas. W, Hall, of Clear Creek. who has been in the employ of the Pennsy R. R., for several years as night conductor in Junction Yard, met with a fatal accident, last Friday night while attending to his duties, being caught between two cars and knocked down, two cars running over his legs and crushing them so fearfully that amputation was uscless. He died about mid-night, retaining all his faculties until almost the last. The sad sight, as related to us by eye witnesses, must have been a fearful ordeal. Surrounded by his wife and little children and mother, he embass and kissed each good bye. Our information of the strength of the same he turned away in sadness. He was and he turned away in sadness. He was and the sight was too much or barround must rive and the sight was too much reputation.

The following relatives from out of town attended the funeral; Wim. Conway, Albany, N. Y.; Jas, Conway, wife and two daughters, St. Marys; Mrs. Geo. Conway, two sons and daughter, Renovo; Harry Conway and wife, Punsulawney. Two sisters of Mrs. Conway, of Penfield, arrived too late for the funeral.

Deceased was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Eagles, and Penn'a R. R. Relief Fund, carrying $1.350 in the former and $750 in the Relief.

QUARREL ENDS IN DEATH IN LOCK HAVEN HOSPITAL

Charged With First Degree Murder.

Lock Haven Espress, 12th.

Word reached this city early Sunday morning of a shooting affray that occurred at Cross Fork at about 8 o'clock on Saturday night, whereby Hamilton Myers, a resident of Tamarck, died in the Lock Haven hospital at 11:45 Sunday night as a direct result of bullet wounds. The alleged assailant is Jacob Miller, also of Tamarack. The murdered man is about 26 years of age and is unmarried.

The shooting, it is said, was caused by an ill feeling that had existed between the two men and Meyers was fatally shot in the fight that ensued. Three shots were fired from a revolver, one took effect in the intestines, from which peritonitis developed and subsequently caused death. Another shot took effect in the left arm, and one grazed the arm, making a flesh wound. As soon as possible the injured man was brought from Cross Fork to the Emergency hospital at Renovo. It required about eight hours to make the trip as it was observed that the patient's condition was grave. On arrival at the hospital there Drs. Rosser and Fullmer gave the man temporary attention and it was readily seen by the physicians that the unfortunate victim had little chance for his life. It was decided to send him to the Lock Haven hospital.

Alderman John P. Anthony was called to the hospital on Sunday and took the ante-mortem statement of the injured man, as he realized that he would not survive. It was brought out that there had been a quarrel early one Saturday morning and that Mayers on his return home from Cross Fork in the evening was met again by Miller when another quarrel was started in which Miller shot the victim as stated above. Mayers defended himself as best he could but had no weapone on his person.

Sheriff J. H. Mussina of this city went to the scene of the murder on Sunday evening to arrest Miller, who was detained their under guard until his arrival. The prisoner is between 45 and 50 years of age.
