Two Commandments.

The absurd self-righteousness of the proposition to conduct the Democratic campaign in the state on the commandment "Thou shalt not steal" has reacted upon those responsible for the suggestion.

As indicated by this newspaper when the matter was first broached, the commandment "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor," is as important and as binding as the other.

When the Democratic party or any other party presumes to claim all the virtue and honesty among the people it is time for the truth to be told.

These two commandments must go together in the campaign which the Democrats propose to wage, and when they by direct charge or inference asperse the character of John O. Sheatz by urging the eighth commandment, they must expect to hear thundered from the housetops:

"THOU SHALT NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST THY NEIGHBOR."

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys, Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment.
