Enter "The Toymakers."

The new story by Charles Felton Pidgin which he calls "The Toymakers" and from which he has constructed a musical absurdity with the same title, has material which assures it a long life. One needs no introduction to this author, as a former work of his, "Quincy Adams Sawyer" has been laughed over in every part of the country and in its dramatized form has been called the best New England play ever written. Every one who has seen Mr. Pidgin's new musical absurdity will endorse the judgement that it is destined to equal his former success in popularity which is by way of saying that it ranks with the very best. "The Toymakers" is booked on Monday, Oct. 21, 1907 and will be limited to one night only.

The company formed, for its production is called "The Jollities" and is under the management of Charles F. Atkinson and James Thatcher. The catchy and tuneful melodies that abound in this pretty opera would in themselves make a reputation for it and the composers, Charles D. Blake and John A. Bennett, have given Mr. Pidgin's lyrics a worthy setting. The scenes are laid in the shop of an old toymaker in England and the situations are so genuinely funny with such bright and sparkling wit that the interest of the audience is wrought to a high pitch. The impersonation of a mechanical doll by the bells of the village is most amusing and queer complications can be imagined. Everywhere "The Toymakers" has been given, it has received the most cordial reception and its praise as "something new" has been unstinted.

The Story of a Blanket.

Squire Howard, Republican candidate for County Treasurer, missed (?) two blankets from his barn, Monday morning. John W. Norris owned up that he borrowed them while driving home from Austin, about four o'clock in the morning. "Buckey" says it was so cold that he was about frozen, really suffered and knew Chas. was good natured and obliging so he just helped himself to the blankets, and kicked the snow from off his feet and the frozen mustache thawed out as he approached his livery stable, singing, And when they ask where he hails from, Our sole reply shall be: He comes from Sizerville, Where flows the healthful drink.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Pennsylvania, and Good Reason for it.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure? No reason why any Pennsylvania reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Sallie K. Dittling, of 1014 Hemlock St., Harrisburg, Pa., says: "My mother was greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. She suffered for years with kidney complaint and there was an almost constant aching across the small of her back and pain through her body. Frequent attacks of dizziness added to her trouble and the secretions from the kidneys were in a very bad condition. She was treated by a physician but was unable to get relief. Nothing did her any good until we procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for her. Their good effects were noticeable from the start, and after finishing one box there was a decided improvement in every way. She can now rest well and has a much better appetite. We can certainly speak well of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
