A. W. Smith has sold his truck patch to G. W. Starr who will replant it with turnips and winter radishes. He can be seen almost any evening after working hours attending to his garden and it is safe to predict that he will succeed.

Wesley Barr and Charles Taylor, Tunnel Hill, are busy men these days getting their fruits and vegetables ready for the County Fair. We understand that they dug three bushels out of eighteen hills and then left the small ones for the cattle. That looks like going some

Our old triend Irvin Parks has come to Tunnel Hill to do a few days sawing for D. W. Eastman during the absence of the regular sawyer. He is as jolly and fat as ever and we wish he could remain longer with us; he has a regular position with the same firm at Coudersport.

B. J. Collins is building a retaining wall near his residence in order to save the water cutting into the bank of the island at that point. This proceeding will eventually increase the size of the island and make it suitable for cultivation. "By the way" we understand that he had quite an exciting time the other day trying to capture a big eel in the creek but it esafter all. However on the same day Operator Getchell secured a large one near the bridge and it is now in the spring. He has promised to present it to W. H. Smith, T. N., provided he came back from Portage Falls safely.

Owing to delay in the mailing our cor-respondence from Cameren and Huntley arrived at the PRESS office too late to appear in last weeks issue but as this is e exception and not the rule we hope to be excused.

Darius Ives has returned from West Virginia where he took a car load of horses for Hon. G. W. Huntley. Darius returned by the way of Cleveland, Ohio, where he purchased a large consignment of onion seeds for Jordan and Smith.

Irvin Parks paid his old friends a farewell visit Saturday evening and after some little persuading consented to sing us the following song accompanied by L. H. Smith on the violin, entitled, "The Greatest Game of All."

There's many games which we can play; Our base ball, it is great, While foot ball, polo and la-crosse, Are strictly up-to-date. And though we all enjoy these sports, For them our ardor tames; We must forget them when we play, The Greatest Game of All. Until we reach the grave; With some the score runs very high, While some are doomed to slave, To even get the scanty bite, Their feeble breaths to claim, But all are striving hard to play,

The greatest Game of All. Some play the game in ease and wealth, With ne'er a thought or care, For "Fortune" lavishes her smiles, Upon them everywhere; But others toil from day to day, In sorrow and in pain,
An endless struggle 'tis for them, This Greatest Game of All. And year by year the game goes on, Some by the wayside fall.

Some play the game unto the end, Before the "umpire" calls, And when on earth the game is closed, Our standing will be named, By Him who knows our every play, In the Greatest Game of All.

To weak and afling women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerva all tissue, and all blood allments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does it work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition. But was a surface of the control of the system. For positive lacal help, use as well to the system. For positive lacal help, use as well
