The Duty of Pennsylvania.
In the opinion of State Chairman Andrews, Pennsylvania must block the way of the tariff tinkers who would, in the face of a presidential campaign, possibly wreck the Republican party by reckless revenue revision. Mr. Andrews is among the most earnest of the stand patters and with thousands of other members of his party believes that nothing should be done at this time in a matter of such peril to the party in power, particularly as there is no great demand for tariff changes on the part of the people, the clamoring being largely done by the politicians.

Mr. Andrews says the industries of Pennsylvania have too much at stake to look with complacency upon any movement having changing of the tariff as its object. The opening of the door to the slightest degree would inaugurate a period of doubt and uncertainty which would be reflected in the utter demoralization of Pennsylvania industries. Mr. Andrews is undoubtedly right, but his remarks do not go far enough. He might have said tariff tinkering would have a demoralizing and blighting effect on the industries of the entire country.

If the Republicans succeed in the next presidential election, and there is every indication that they will, then they may go about tariff revision with out causing public hysteria, because it is realized that with the "Grand Old Party" in control only such schedules will be changed as are demanded by altered conditions. But if the door is thrown wide open on the brink of a presidential campaign, who knows what it will lead to or what the ultimate results will be.

Mr. Andrews views with marked satisfaction the prospects of a large Republican majority in this state this fall. In view of the coming national fight he believes it to be the duty of Republicans to turn out to a man and roll up such a vote as will show just where we stand on the great questions that affect this country. A review of the field will show that he has reason to be hopeful. That there is a large normal Republican majority in Pennsylvania is not disputed. Except as a result of some great reversal of public opinion due to scandalous abuse that majority is always cast for party candidates. The battle this fall finds the Democrats without a campaign slogan and without an issue. That of the grafting at Harrisburg has been worn threadbare. Besides, it cast no reflection on the Republican party, which is moving vigorously to punish the guilty. From every section comes cheering assurance that there will this fall be a return of old-time Republican majorities.—Scranton Republican.

The are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish, the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by R. C. Citizens Crowd to Hear Republican Nominee For Treasurer.

HE IS THE MAN OF THE HOUR

Ovation Given the Former Apprentice Boy at Baldwin's By Shipyard Workers in Kensington and County Meetings Are Largely Attended.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 17.

With remarkable earnestness and enthusiasm for an off year the Republicans of Pennsylvania are pushing their campaign for the election of John O. Sheatz as state treasurer in every county in the state.

The demand from the voters to hear Mr. Sheatz is unprecedented under the circumstances. Two weeks before the time for which his canvass was scheduled to be opened, he has had to keep upon the go responding to calls to address meetings, to attend county fairs, and to take part in gatherings of Grangers and other bodies of citizens of the grand old commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sheatz does not claim to be an orator. He is a plain, matter of fact business man; an honest, sincere, unsophisticated man of the people. Wherever he has spoken he has made friends and wherever his pledges to conduct the office of state treasurer in accordance with the promises made at the outset of his campaign are heard, they are believed.

He has made votes wherever he has gone, whether he spoke to his old neighbors of Berks county, or to the sturdy Republicans of the adjoining county of Lehigh, where he addressed several thousands at the Republican county meeting at Emaus, or to the great assemblage in Northampton that cheered him to the echo at the county meeting at Bethlehem, or at the Elks' clam bake in Allegheny county, where fully 20,000 citizens gave him a tremendous ovation, or at the meeting last week in the Kensington district of Philadelphia, where 5000 employees of the ship yards in that section saluted him as a former apprentice boy working in overalls in Baldwin's locomotive works, and resolved to roll up a handsome majority for him on election day—it was the same story.

Sheatz—the Man of the Hour.
The man of the hour—a man to meet every requirement of a faithful, honest, economical administration of the office of state treasurer.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, who is working night and day to keep up with his correspondence with Republicans in every county in the state who are enlisted for Mr. Sheatz's campaign, is looking forward to great results as the outcome of the activity of the members of the State League of Republican Clubs, of which Mr. Sheatz is vice president.

After addressing the club men's convention, Candidate Sheatz will go to the Hanover fair in Susquehanna county on Thursday of next week, and on the following day he is booked to address a meeting in Wilkes-Barre, where great preparations are being made by prominent Republicans to give him a cordial reception. Former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith will accompany Mr. Sheatz to Wilkes-Barre and make a speech in favor of his election.

Wants to Meet the People.
After next week Mr. Sheatz will have a regular itinerary and will speak once or twice almost every day until the end of the campaign.
"I want to meet the voters face to face," remarked Mr. Sheatz, a few days ago. "I want them to see what manner of man I am, and to talk to them frankly upon the issues of the campaign. I want to leave it to them to judge whether my record at Harrisburg as a member of the legislature does not justify confidence in my fulfilling all my pledges regarding the administration of the office of state treasurer."

WHY YOU SHOULD SEE JAMESTOWN.

The Jamestown Exposition is no longer a prospect, it has developed into an interesting reality. Its field is distinctly historical, and it liberally illustrates by picture and reproduction the development of American civilization and American institutions from the day of the first settlement on Jamestown peninsula in 1607 through three hundred years to the present time. Famous buildings in the National history have been reproduced by thirty different states, filled with memories of the olden times and of memorials of the upward march.

The National Government has taken a keen interest in the Exposition, and is one of its chief exhibitors. The display of modern warships of all nations on Hampton Roads is unique and attractive feature, and the military manoeuvres lend a stirring touch of the daily program.

The Jamestown Exposition is a prominent event in our National history and should be visited by every American citizen who desires to see what three hundred years of American enterprise has wrought in our land.

The Pennsylvania Railroad offers attractive series via Pennsylvania and its "Cape Charles Route," by its routes via Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay lines, via Washington and the Potomac River line, and via Washington and Richmond. The rates are reasonable and the fare varies according to the route and length of the stay.

Ask Ticket Agents for rates of fare, stop-over privileges and time of trains.

What Our Reporter saw in New York

A recent visit to one of the largest paint factories in the world disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of Paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing.

This was the celebrated L. & M. Paint. The L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 or 15 years.

4 gallons L. & M., mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.20 per gallon.

If any defect exists in L. & M., Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Donation of L. & M., made to church. Sold by Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Pennsylvania, and Good Reason for it.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure?

No reason why any Pennsylvania reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Sallie K. Dittling, of 1014 Hemlock St., Harrisburg, Pa., says: "My mother was greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. She suffered for years with kidney complaint and there was an almost constant aching across the small of her back and pain through her body. Frequent attacks of dizziness added to her trouble and the secretions from the kidneys were in a very bad condition. She was treated by a physician but was unable to get relief. Nothing did her any good until we procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for her. Their good effects were noticeable from the start, and after finishing one box there was a decided improvement in every way. She can now rest well and has a much better appetite. We can certainly speak well of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
