The Dean's Raiment.
Dean Stanley was once driving with a friend from Monroale to Palermo. Both men were reading. Stanley sud-denly discovered that he was shiver-ing with a cold. He mentioned the matter to his friend.

"Well, hadn't you better put some-thing on?" said the latter, pointing to the dean's bag, which was close at hand.

Stanley thought it rather a good idea, and the friend went on reading. As they entered Palermo there were shouts of astonishment. Stanley was placidly reading. His friend found that the distinguished churchman had absentmindedly drawn out a night-shirt from his bag and put it on over his other clothing and thus arrayed was riding triumphantly into the city.—London Sketch.

The Earth's Shadow.
The earth has a shadow, but very few ever see it, except in eclipses of the moon, or else few recognize it when they see it. Nevertheless, many of us have noticed on fine, cloudless evenings in summer shortly before sunset a rosy pink arc on the horizon opposite the sun, with a bluish gray segment under it. As the sun sinks the arc rises until it attains the zenith and even passes it. This is the shad-ow of the earth.

Knew His Capacity.
Stranger (to waiter)—Isn't that man named Meler who is paying his bill over there?
Waiter—I don't know. I haven't been long here.
S.—What has he had?
W.—Ten glasses of beer and a bottle of wine.
S.—Oh, yes; it is he then.—Paris Rire.

Two Failures.
"I married for beauty alone," said a presumably happy benedict to an old chum. "And yet you remind me of a friend of mine who married for money," was the rejoinder. "How's that?" "He didn't get it," said the chum sar-castically.

Sarcastic.
His Wife—You have been drinking again. Haven't you, now? Her Hus-band—M'dear, I cannot tell a lie—His Wife—You can't! Then you are further gone than I thought!—Illus-trated Bits.

A pessimist is a man who won't take the one remaining seat in the car for fear a woman will get on at the next corner.—Dallas News.

Health in the Canal Zone.
The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stom-ach, liver and kidney troubles. Guar-anteed by all druggists. 50c.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indi-gestion which, when allowed to go un-cared for, will develop into a case of dys-pepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take some-thing that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy when you eat. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

CUPID OBJECTS

Dan Cupid refuses to allow his sentiments to be expressed on a cheap flimsy writing paper. To show respect and refinement and to pass Cupid's O. K. we must pen our words on a good substantial paper—one which takes the ink easily and of which we need not be ashamed. It is easy to write on a bad paper; but it is easier to do so on a good one. The cost is so little and the benefit so large, that you can't afford to use the bad. BERKSHIRE LINEN FABRIC, Correct in every detail.
