Free Dispensary for Tuberculosis.
Following the successful operations of the Free Dispensary for Tuberculosis in Wilkes-Barre and Reading, the State Board of Health has decided to open one in Emporium for the benefit of those people of Cameron county who are unable or unwilling to go a sanitarium. Dr. H. S. Falk, of Emporium, will have charge of the dispensary, and until suitable quarters can be procured he will conduct it from his office. The class of people to be treated are those who are too poor to pay for medical advice.

Pulmonary Tuberculosis (or consumption as it is commonly called) is one of the most dreaded as well as most common diseases of the human body, and by opening free dispensaries in each county of the State, the Board of Health will try and educate the people in the proper methods to combat it.
The dispensary is now open from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m., on Tuesdays and Fridays of each month.

Catalogue of the Rochester Business Institute.
The catalogue issued by the Rochester Business Institute is a beautiful specimen of the printer's art. It illustrates the different departments of the institution and fully describes the courses of study. It gives complete information regarding rates, terms, registration dates, and many other particulars. Any person contemplating a commercial course should have a copy of this catalogue.

Pretty Music and Pure Fun.
We have looked long for something good to come out of the East and at last "The Toymakers" are on their way and will arrive in this town at the Emporium Opera House, on Friday evening, Nov. 1st for one night only. Get the book first and you will doubly enjoy this comic musical absurdity which was taken from it and both of them written by Charles Felton Pidgin, who is Chief of the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics.

Up-to-Date Store Fronts.
Mrs. M. A. Rockwell has completed one of the most stylish store fronts, on the block in which her drug store and post office is located that has yet been produced in Emporium. When completed will present a pleasing and city appearance.

Jos. Lechner has completely remodeled his shoe store building and put in a new and neat front.

Autumn Colds.
Catching cold in the Autumn is dangerous; a deep-seated cold now, may hang on all winter and cause serious results before Spring.

If you will carry a vial of Dr. Humphreys' "Seventy-seven" in your pocket (as many do) for the next few months and take a dose at the first chill or shiver you will escape Colds the entire winter.
All druggists sell it, most druggists recommend it. 25c. Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., Cor., William and John Streets, New York.

Latest Popular Music.
Miss May Gould, teacher of piano forte has received a full line of the latest and most popular sheet music. All the popular airs, Popular and classical music. Prices reasonable.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 28th, 1907.
The President's return to the capitol has operated, as usual, to give impetus to the national government and everything seems to be moving more briskly under the stimulus of his energy. One of the Chief Executive, and one which exhibits his characteristic firmness, was to announce that he would formally approve of the Oklahoma convention which will add five members to the House and two to the Senate at the coming session. Mr. Roosevelt made it very clear that he did not approve of the convention personally, that he shared the very poor opinion which Secretary Taft expressed of the instrument. In fact, he told some of his friends that were he to put his personal opinion of the constitution into words it would not be fit for publication. But he examined it in the light of the discretion conferred on him by Congress and finding no ground on which to reject it, within such circumscribed limits, he will formally approve it as soon as the certified copy and the certificates of its adoption reach him. Oklahoma has already elected her officers and members of Congress. The latter include two Democratic Senators, three Democratic Representatives and two Republican members of the lower house. The chief opponent of the admission of Oklahoma has been Speaker Cannon but the President believed that he had no right to take political considerations into account when he passed on the problem.

The President is keeping very quiet regarding his coming speeches which are said to be very interesting and straight from the shoulder, as his utterances usually are. Neither will he reveal anything regarding his coming message to Congress except that so far as he now knows it will not contain any suggestions of amendment of the anti-trust law. The Attorney General has some ideas on this subject, however, and when he has laid them before the Executive they may appeal to him so strongly as to lead to their being incorporated in the message. It is probable that the President will take advantage of the great prosperity of the country and the extraordinarily prosperous condition of the Treasury to urge a considerable addition to the navy and the enactment of the navy pay bill, which will give to the enlisted men and officers of both the army and navy, material increases of compensation, running from a 30 per cent. increase for the enlisted men to 10 per cent. for the higher ranking officers.

National Committee Ward and Brooker, of New York and Connecticut respectively, took luncheon with the President the day after he reached Washington and reported on political conditions in their respective states. They told the President that everything in both states looked most favorable for a great Republican victory next Autumn. Mr. Ward said that New Yorker's were delighted with Governor Hughes administration and would renominate him and elect him governor. He also expressed the belief that the New York delegation would cast a solid vote for Secretary Taft in the national convention. Mr. Brooker told the President that he was certain Connecticut would send a Taft delegation to the convention. The President expressed the utmost gratification at this news.

It is regarded as noteworthy that never since the President announced that the battleship fleet would go to the Pacific has a cross word been heard from Japan. It is known in inner circles in Washington that the Japanese legislation of the last session has signally failed of its purpose, the exclusion of Japanese laborers from this country and it is regarded as almost certain that the United States will be obliged to seek an exclusion treaty with Japan during the coming winter. Of course battleships are not diplomats but it is the experience of every diplomat that they have much to do with making successful the work of the most accomplished diplomatist. It is a fact that during the last quarter of the fiscal year something over 10,000 Japanese secured admission to this country and while many of these came in as teachers and merchants, most of them were found doing manual labor within a very short time after their admission, while the government was obliged to expend $15,000 for railroad fares alone for the deportation of Japanese who had sneaked in over the Mexican and Canadian boundaries. It is expected, however, that Canada's decision not to admit Japanese without passports will have the effect of checking the practice of Japanese slipping into this country illegally.

Big Purchase of Land.

The Pennsylvania R. R. Co., has purchased 220 acres of land at Lock Haven and important improvements are contemplated. It is predicted that the P. & E., may build shops at Lock Haven, to be an auxiliary to the Renovo shops. Would that the Pennsy might again try to make the needed changes at Emporium. We believe our citizens would insist upon fair treatment.

Birthday Surprise.

Thos. Moore, and wife of St. Marys, accompanied by the following ladies: Mesdames Rhone, Hatch, Pass, Chittle and Smith, arrived in Emporium Tuesday morning, bright and early, the object being to make Mrs. E. C. Davy a surprise visit upon her birthday. Mr. Davy met the party at the New Warner and drove them to the farm home on Four Mile, where the day was delightfully passed. We noticed the party were well supplied with baskets and bundles and we rather guessed they contained something good.
Mrs. Davey is one of Cameron county's most estimable ladies and always ready to aid in any good work. Had her many Emporium friends been given a "hint" no doubt Four Mile would have looked like a camp meeting.

CHARLES L. BUTLER.

The visit of Miss Mabel Butler to our sanctum before leaving for her home at Painesville, Ohio, reminds ye editor that we failed to call the attention of the citizens of Painesville to the fact that Charles L. Butler had located in their town and tell them who and what he is, for friend Butler might live here for 50 years and they would never here from him who was more than his name. Mr. Butler came here 24 years ago and married, at once taking an active part in public matters. His clear conception of every public question, deep thinking and constant reading of the best literature, soon caused his neighbors to place him in the town council where he remained for six years and labored zealously to the best interests of the tax-payers, when he resigned. Of pleasing address, Mr. Butler was popular throughout the county and served on the board of County Auditors for six years and refused to allow the Republican party to nominate him for Sheriff, in a Republican county, and continued to serve for ten years as a member of the Republican County Committee, always hustling to elect its candidates and keeping his pen busy in advocacy of Republican principles and its candidates—always to be depended on. The Republican state organization always relied upon his wisdom and integrity in congressional and state elections and more than once he was depended on for effective work. He never wanted an office, but was true as gold and would go his last dollar for a friend and ride day and night if necessary. Painesville will find our former citizen, who always bore the best reputation for honesty, good government and correct living, a valuable acquisition to their city. None were more highly respected than Chas. L. Butler and family and we regret that circumstances compelled them to leave us.

Moved to Bolivar, N. Y.

Michael Murphy, one of our respected citizens who has resided here for 30 years, being engaged in hotel business has located at Bolivar, N. Y., where he has leased the Newton House. He left this morning, accompanied by Geo. Narby, his clerk, to take charge of his new place. We hope the change is only temporary.

Early Morning Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rendt announce the marriage of their daughter Maude Shirley to Mr. Carl Almon Blair. The ceremony took place at Presbyterian church Tuesday morning at seven o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Blair took Erie mail on a trip west. Both are respected and popular young people and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a happy life.

Lady Maccabees.

Every Lady Maccabee is expected to meet Miss Nellie Lonsbury, Great Record Keeper at Hive Review next Thursday night. She will explain the new laws. All persons having by laws will please return them and get new ones.

DEBORAH HOCKLEY, L. C.

The Murder Trial.

For the second time in the history of Cameron county, we are to have a trial for murder at the court to be held here on the 14th of this month, when Orrie O'Dell, who, on July 18th, 1907, deliberately murdered his wife, May, leaving two children.

Unless there may be some legal reason for postponement the trial will be called possibly on the second day of court. District Attorney, J. P. McNarney will have charge of the case in behalf of the Commonwealth. He has passed through similar ordeals and knows well how many obstructions are in the road. The Court has assigned as counsel for O'Dell, Mr. Fred Arn Johnson, the youngest member of Cameron county bar, and we may expect his maiden effort to be an able one, for he has been devoting considerable time with the prisoner and study in the case. While it is often the practice of courts to assign young attorneys in cases of similar nature, but in this instance such is not true, the Court complimenting Mr. Johnson on his ability as a learned lawyer and the able manner he handles legal work entrusted to him.

He is a graduate of Dickinson Law School, class of 1906, and has for several years been closely applying himself. Our readers will remember that six months ago Mr. Johnson successfully passed the examination before the State Board of Law Examination for admission to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. We feel positive our young friend will ably battle for his client, although the great weight of evidence is against him.

The Lunatic and the Lady.

"The Lunatic and the Lady" company are Mr. Frank Christie who plays "The Lunatic," Miss Jeanette Mozar plays the part of "The Lady," Adele Hinton, David Firmann, Dan Davidson, Sid J. Deschane, Blanche Leslie, Amelia Baird Christie, Grace Perry, Katherine Schuyler, and a host of others of the best comedy and musical performers that could be obtained. A special feature on which the company prides itself is the beautiful chorus christened "The Some Noise Girls" by a New York paper. "The Lunatic and the Lady" will play the Emporium Opera House next Wednesday, Oct. 9.

Found Dead.

Last Friday, Chas. Drangel, drove a supply wagon from Fred Buehler's lumber camp on Hicks Run, to this place to purchase, or rather get upon the order of said Buehler supplies (?) necessary for a sheep roost. About 1:30 p. m., he started for camp with a load of beer, whiskey and other supplies (?) and when he reached the end of the new State Road he stopped in the middle of the road and was found by Geo. L. Day, doubled up under the wagon. Thinking the man drunk, Mr. Day, assisted by Ray Haskins, picked up the man placed him in the wagon, unhitched the horses and pulled the wagon out of the road. About five thirty o'clock John A. Johnson, while driving past discovered that the man was dead. Justice of Peace, M. M. Larrabee, was notified to take charge of the remains, when he empanelled a jury composed of B. L. Spence, foreman, Wm. Brown, Edward Viner, W. S. Lingle, Geo. L. Day and Albert Murray viewed the body and adjourned until Saturday evening, when upon hearing evidence, rendered the following verdict: "That Chas. Drangel, whose body was found Sept. 17, 1907, in a wagon on the West Creek State Road, near Day Bro's tenement house, came to his death from either falling from his wagon, or from excessive use of liquor." His remains were taken to LaBar's undertaking rooms and embalmed, being held there until word is received from his parents in Sweden, who are said to be wealthy. Deceased aged about 48, came to America about twenty years ago and used to work at Brockwayville.

This case of embalming is said, by all who have viewed the remains to be a fine piece of work. Mr. Rishell who done the work, says he can keep the body six months.

Sold Out.

Jas. J. Daugherty has disposed of his plumbing business to Frank Cavanagh and left town for Bradford today, where his family resides.

Hand Crushed.

Yesterday evening, about six o'clock, Gust Carlson, Jr., employed in Junction yard fell from a car while making a flying switch, his right hand coming in contact with the wheels. All the fingers of his right hand were partly amputated by Dr. Smith, assisted by Dr. DeLong.

Notice to Parents.

Following is an extract from the compulsory School Law:

"Every parent, guardian or other person in this commonwealth, having control or charge of a child or children between the ages of eight and sixteen years shall be required to send such child or children to a day school in which the common English branches are taught, and such child or children shall attend such school continuously during the entire term in which the public school in their respective district, shall be in session, unless such child or children shall be excused from such attendance by the board of the school district in which the parent, guardian, or other person resides, upon presentation to said board of satisfactory evidence showing such child or children are prevented from attendance upon school or application to study by mental, physical or other urgent reasons. But the term urgent reasons shall be strictly construed and shall not permit of irregular attendance.

This act shall not apply to any child between the ages of thirteen and sixteen who can read and write the English language intelligently and is regularly engaged in any useful employment or service. A certificate of age and ability to read and write the English language intelligently shall be issued by the Superintendent of Schools, Notary Public, or Justice of the Peace.

The every neglect of duty imposed by the first section of this act, the principal or teacher or person in parental relation, offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace forfeit a fine not exceeding two dollars on first conviction, and a fine not exceeding five dollars for each subsequent conviction; and in default of payment of said fine the defendant may be committed to the county prison for a period not exceeding two days for the first conviction, and for a period not exceeding five days for each subsequent conviction."

The above clipping is published by order of the Emporium School Board. The directors have no choice but to enforce its provisions.

R. R. McQUAY Sec'y.

National Protective Legion.

Many people in this vicinity are greatly exercised over report being made concerning the National Protective Legion and the action taken in last biennial convention. It is correctly stated that the cash dividend of the organization payable each five years, will be materially reduced. An authoritative statement concerning this society so well known in our place, is to the effect that cash dividend in future will be declared upon a purely mathematical basis and that the amount to be paid each year, will not be known until an actuary shall have made computations to determine it. In future the dividends will vary each and every year, and the amount paid on each full rate certificate, will be changed to such sum as is the actual increment upon the certificates issued during the year, five years previous thereto.

This action was in accordance with demands made by the Insurance Department of nearly every state in the union where the Legion does business and it was largely a compulsory change. However the change seems an admirable one inasmuch as it assures the perpetuity of the society and removes all obstacles exercised by the various Insurance Departments and other officials in authority. Furthermore, it removes all criticism as freely passed by Old Line Companies. From its National Offices we gather information, that they earnestly approved the measure, and of its assurance of equity and justice to all the membership. To the public we will also state that 925 representatives were in attendance at the meeting and voted unanimously to adopt the change that was made. From the stand point of one who carefully reviews the conditions as presented, good judgment indicates that correct action was taken.

The first local presentation of "The Lunatic and the Lady" will be at the Emporium Opera House on Wednesday, Oct. 9. It is said to be a very successful musical comedy built along familiar lines but staged and presented far above the average offering at popular prices. In fact, few comic operatic shows at higher prices are better done. In this piece the lunatic has an exaggerated time as it were. The costumes and stage effects are brilliant and the company in every way. The management will scarcely be able to offer a more meritorious musical comedy on the season.
