Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says, "Fully eighty per cent. of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food, people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly all cases. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of to-day, although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all Druggists. 50c.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't wear yourself out worrying night and day about it—just give it a little Cascasweet. Cascasweet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

You never have any trouble to get children to take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. They like it because it tastes nearly like maple sugar. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is a safe, sure and prompt remedy for coughs and colds and is good for every member of the family. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Panama Canal—Eric Canal.

Machinery is digging the Panama Canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie.

Machinery produces the L. & M. Paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand.

The L. & M., gives the best job in the world, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 or 15 years.

It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 cts per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house.

If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint will repaint house for nothing.

If you take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A week's treatment 25 cents. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

SOUND THE SLOGAN

Trio of Distinguished Pennsylvanians Blaze the Way.

REPUBLICAN LINES SOLID

Senator Knox, Governor Stuart and Former Postmaster General Smith Unite in Call to Elect John O. Sheatz State Treasurer.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 1.

United States Senator Philander C. Knox, Governor Edwin S. Stuart and former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith make a distinguished trio that have gone upon record, within the last few days, in most emphatic terms in favor of the election of John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Not only have they eulogized Mr. Sheatz in the highest terms, but they have sent a note of warning to Republicans of the Keystone state of the danger that would come to the Republican party in the nation as the result of a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania this fall.

Upon the eve of a presidential campaign, they plead for the wiping out of all factional lines, the cementing of the party organization, and a vigorous and aggressive onslaught upon the works of the common enemy in this, the skirmish of a great national political battle.

Knox Points the Way.

Senator Knox, who is taking a lively interest in the state campaign, has, over his own signature, just given expression to these sentiments:

"We have in Pennsylvania this year a perfectly simple proposition, and one in respect to which I do not think it is possible to mislead the public.

"The Republican party has presented a good candidate on his own and his party's good record; and, after all, how much more substantial a record is than a prospectus. There are no side issues this year and no middle ground. The issue of the campaign now on is the approval or disapproval of the party's unswerving continuity of act and purpose to express the public will in legislation and administration.

Live Issues Are Met.

"The Republican party in Pennsylvania has responded to the awakened political and commercial conscience of the people in a way which would commend itself to all to whom political and commercial rights are dear. The reform measures for the protection of the elective franchise; the abolishing of fees in elective offices; the safeguarding of the state's funds and other legislation of the late extra session of the legislature of the commonwealth, to which has been added the legislation of last winter of almost equal importance in character and effect, constitute a record of real achievement for which the Republican party can justly claim credit.

"The last time we tried conclusions in Pennsylvania with our friends of the opposition we marched to victory with Edwin S. Stuart at the head of the ticket, who, as governor, has fulfilled all the expectations and predictions expressed of him.

"Now, with a record of permanent reform to our credit, one of the fruits of which was the untrammelled selection of John O. Sheatz by delegates directly chosen by the people, we should poll a vote for this candidate of unassailed integrity and large public experience that will set at rest once and for all the shallow pretense that Republican success in this campaign involves anything beyond the endorsement of Republican policies and the calling of a well-versed and tested public servant to higher honors and graver responsibilities for which he is eminently qualified."

Governor Goes Upon Record.

Governor Stuart, who has promised to make one or more speeches in favor of Mr. Sheatz's election, in commenting upon the issues in the state canvass, said:

"This campaign turns solely upon the election of a state treasurer, and next to the election of an honest man it is important to elect a Republican. I do not propose to indulge in personalities. Mr. Harman is an upright, honest man. I have known Mr. Sheatz for 20 years, and there is no reason why every Republican cannot vote for John O. Sheatz for state treasurer. I was in almost daily contact with Mr. Sheatz during the legislative session. He was chairman of that most important committee, appropriations, and I know no man who ever held public office or trust who took care of the purse strings more honestly than did he.

"Every act that he performed was for the good of the commonwealth. I say this from a personal knowledge of the man. Sheatz stands for honesty in politics and decency in the management of public affairs. Any man who stands for anything else is not a Republican and not deserving of the name."

A Tip to the Independents.

Former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, and one time minister to Russia, is already upon the stump advocating the election of the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Mr. Smith is looked upon as expressing the views of those with whom he has been associated in independent political movements in this state, and his pronounced stand in behalf of Mr.

Sheatz has discouraged the Democrats, who had been counting upon independent support for their ticket.

"I am glad," says Mr. Smith, "that the Republican party is now united in Pennsylvania in support of an exceptionally strong candidate for the office of state treasurer.

"The party is harmonious, and I am asking all who have stood with me in the past, for the principles which I have championed, to give loyal and earnest support to the Republican nominee for state treasurer, Mr. John O. Sheatz.

"Mr. Sheatz has a splendid record as a member of the general assembly.

"In 1905 he alone of all the members of the legislature from Philadelphia had the courage and independence to stand up and vote against the ripper bill. He was chairman of the committee of appropriations, and in all the work of that important committee, around which the cormorants of the state flutter, there is not a single blot or blemish, and there has not been a criticism of any of its actions."

Messrs. Knox, Stuart and Smith all predict the election of Mr. Sheatz by a large majority.

To Republicans—Just a Word.

Although afforded the widest opportunity for investigation, the Democratic members of the Capitol investigating Commission, aided by able counsel of their own political faith, have utterly failed in the attempt to fasten any of the wrongdoing in the Capitol job on the Republican party as an organization. That men who owe their political prominence and the offices they so unworthily filled to the Republican party are implicated, is true; but that party promises to see that justice is dealt out to those who robbed the State, as well as those officials whose supineness, if not worse, aided the looters.

It is silly to assume, as some bigoted partisans do, that there is any greater average of honesty in the Democratic than in the Republican party. Dishonest men are not partial in the distribution of their party fealty. Attached to the organization of every political party are men who are always "on the make." There is no doubt that the percentage of defaulters, crooked officials, and looters of public funds is distributed in about equal proportion among the political parties. To assume that any greater degree of intelligence, any greater proportion of honesty and efficiency, attaches to members of one party than to those of another, is an argument of the salient fanatic.

To attempt the argument that Pennsylvania must elect any Democrat selected by Col. Guffey for State Treasurer in order that the Capitol thieves be punished and future raids prevented, is an insult to the great majority of the people of the State, who are Republicans. To argue that the people's moneys are not safe unless entrusted to the keeping of a Mr. Harman, introduced to the public Wednesday as the Democratic nominee for Treasurer, is an assumption that Republicans may not hereafter be entrusted with that office.

Stripped of all its bosh and misrepresentation, the Democratic argument is revealed as simply an attempt to rejuvenate that organization in preparation for next year's important campaign. If Col. Guffey's Mr. Harman were to be elected State Treasurer, the event would be halted by every Democratic paper from Maine to California as a great Democratic victory. Even the Bryan organs would, by their peculiar style of reasoning (?) find comfort for their cause.

The plain duty of Republican voters in Pennsylvania is to elect John O. Sheatz. There is no claim that he is not honest, capable and fit in every way. There is no claim that he is owned by any faction, clique, or individual. He is the choice of a Republican convention, unhampered by any dictation. In the face of the most bitter and vindictive charges, notwithstanding fanatical misrepresentation, the people of Pennsylvania chose Edwin S. Stuart as their Governor, and are not disappointed in that choice. That he will push an unrelenting and vigorous prosecution of the Capitol looters is assured. Every guilty man that can be reached will pay the penalty. His record in Philadelphia assures the people that no specious plea will save a single malefactor.

Wise Republicans will not aid in the project to encourage the Democratic party in the Nation by defeating the Republican nominee for Treasurer. They will not, if they are wise, hearken to the sophistry of the eager Democratic organs which preach the doctrine of Republican dishonesty and Democratic saintliness. Should they do so, and Pennsylvania be made to appear as favoring the Democratic party, they must not be surprised at the Democratic sneer, the laugh in the sleeve, that will greet them, the morning after.—Johnstown Tribune.
