REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For County Treasurer, CHAS. J. HOWARD, of Portage.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says, "Fully eighty per cent. of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food, people are inclined to over-indulge themselves."

This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly all cases. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them.

It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion.

You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of to-day, although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered.

He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me."

The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga.

"She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well."

That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all Druggists. 50c.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't wear yourself out worrying night and day about it—just give it a little Cascasweet. Cascasweet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

You never have any trouble to get children to take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. They like it because it tastes nearly like maple sugar. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is a safe, sure and prompt remedy for coughs and colds and is good for every member of the family. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Panama Canal—Erie Canal.

Machinery is digging the Panama Canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie.

Machinery produces the L. & M. Paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand.

The L. & M., gives the best job in the world, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M., White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 or 15 years.

It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 cts per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house.

If any defect exists in L. & M. Painte will repaint house for nothing.

A DESPERATE GAME

Democrats Resort to Campaign of Slander and Abuse.

BOURBON TACTICS REVIVED

Despite Onslaught of the Enemy Republican Lines in Pennsylvania Are Unbroken and Moving On to Triumph.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 15.

Without a single issue upon which to make a campaign, the Democrats of Pennsylvania, in a desperate effort to win the coming election, have resorted to the old-time tactics of slander, personal abuse and wilful misrepresentation of the Republican party and its candidate.

In the closing hours of the present state contest the Democratic editors and professional spellbinders find the tide of popular sentiment running so strongly against them that they seem to have lost all regard for decency and self-respect in the reckless and unscrupulous methods employed to promote their cause.

Despite the fact that before he was made the Republican nominee for state treasurer, John O. Sheatz was lauded by every Democratic newspaper in the state as a fearless, independent and public-spirited member of the state legislature, these same journalistic stars are now filling the columns of their newspapers with violent attacks upon Mr. Sheatz, with statements entirely at variance with their laudatory references to him while he was a member of the general assembly, fighting the battles of the people, and they are calling upon the voters to defeat him at the polls and elect in his stead a man whose strongest claim upon them is that he is a Democrat.

Reckless Democratic Oratory.

Supplementing the work of the Democratic editors, are a corps of professional Democratic politicians who are stumping the counties repeating charges that are absolutely unfounded, and circulating most flagrantly false statements in regard to Mr. Sheatz's votes in the legislature and in other ways misrepresenting the Republican candidate and his party.

This campaign of vituperation and abuse is a logical sequence to the attempt at the very outset of the contest to weaken Mr. Sheatz among the old soldiers of Pennsylvania by the distribution of circulars teeming with falsehoods and malice, and designed to array the veterans of the Civil War against him in the matter of the soldiers' pension bill.

The prompt and emphatic repudiation of this scheme by leading and influential members of the Grand Army, who knew Mr. Sheatz's ardent and conscientious interest in the old soldiers and sailors, and who, over their signatures, told the story of his devotion to their cause, for the time being completely demoralized the managers of the Democratic machine.

Bourbon Tactics Recalled.

Hostilities have been resumed, however. There has evidently been an agreement among the Democratic politicians to go the limit in the closing days of the canvass in the matter of misrepresentation and abuse of everything Republican, and especially of the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Last week marked the opening of this contemptible campaign. It is to be carried on without cessation until the polls close upon the 5th of November, but there is every reason to believe that the well-meaning citizens of the Keystone state will recognize this revival of the despicable Bourbon methods which for years characterized Democratic campaigns in this and other states.

The citizens of Pennsylvania are all familiar with the high personal character, the unblemished public record, the clear purpose and the proved integrity of John O. Sheatz, and it is certain that the more the Democratic editors and machine orators attack him the greater will be his majority at the coming election.

The people have confidence in Mr. Sheatz and will resent the disreputable campaign that is being waged against him.

There will be a box social held at the home of William A. Sprung, at Sizerville, for the purpose of getting an organ for the Shippen school, on Saturday evening, Oct. 19. All are invited to come.

Dittling, of 1014 Hemlock St., Harrisburg, Pa., says: "My mother was greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. She suffered for years with kidney complaint and there was an almost constant aching across the small of her back and pain through her body. Frequent attacks of dizziness added to her trouble and the secretions from the kidneys were in a very bad condition. She was treated by a physician but was unable to get relief. Nothing did her any good until we procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for her. Their good effects were noticeable from the start, and after finishing one box there was a decided improvement in every way. She can now rest well and has a much better appetite. We can certainly speak well of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Rev. Madison C. Peters Attacks Assaults Upon Personal Liberty in this State. From the Philadelphia Press, October, 7th, 1907.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Dr. Madison C. Peters in his sermon here on "Why the Church Has Lost Her Hold on the People," referred to the Fairbanks "cocktail" incident and made reference to the interference of certain religionists in Pennsylvania with personal liberty and with making Temperance a partisan political issue. Dr. Peters said: "All men resent interference with personal liberty. When fanatical men of straight-laced views undertake to dictate to broad-minded men of liberal views and attempt to guide them in the narrow path of their own stunted natures, as to their private business and personal relations with the world,—when the church does this, she strikes at the foundation not only of personal liberty, but interferes with what does not concern her in the least."

"Churchly interference in private life has recently been emphasized in the matter of Vice-President Fairbanks' luncheon to President Roosevelt, where the serving of a cocktail has been made by the churches of the Middle West a political issue. If Mr. Fairbanks deemed it proper to serve cocktails in the privacy of his own home that was his own affair and he acted entirely within the jurisdiction of a free-born American."

"Mr. Fairbanks has been savagely attacked in hundreds of sermons, all of them lacking that Christian charity which, though supposed to cover a multitude of sins, as practiced by these men is not large enough to cover a single cocktail. And the church to which he has given a life-time of service and support, after a most bitter campaign, defeated him as a lay delegate to the general Convention. Of course Mr. Fairbanks happens to be a real Christian gentleman, broad-minded enough to overlook the pettiness of small-minded men, yet who could blame him if he kept out of the church for the future? While those ministers who have denounced Mr. Fairbanks may represent the spirit of the church, the Vice-President knows full well that they are not the true exponents of the teachings of Jesus."

Then Dr. Peters, who is a native of Pennsylvania, of Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry, and who was for many years a minister in Philadelphia and knows whereof he speaks, further said. "The attitude which the church is taking on the temperance question in Pennsylvania in its fanaticism is like that which the people of Indiana have shown towards the Vice-President. In the name of Temperance, political meetings are held in the churches, even on the Sabbath Day, with the avowed purpose of advancing the political interests of a minority party, denouncing men who had been conspicuous in the church for years, but who cannot see the temperance question as some of their neighbors see it, with the consequent result that throughout the State in every community can be found men who were regular attendants and supporters of the church twenty-five years ago, but who now never enter a church with the possible exception of attending a funeral or witnessing a wedding."

"I believe myself in total abstinence for the individual, but that gives me no excuse for interfering with the personal liberty of my neighbor. Notwithstanding our proud boast of freedom, we are still under both secular and churchly restrictions. The church in her severe attitude is only living up to her old-time traditions, regardless of civilization and progress. When she sets her anathema on those who step beyond her narrow confines, she assumes a prerogative on matters alien to her jurisdiction. When she arbitrarily takes upon herself the regulation of private actions and usurps the right of conscience, striking, as she has in the Fairbanks' incident, at the privacy of the home-life and interfering with what does not concern her, she will lose her hold upon the people."

"The church is fundamentally wrong when she seeks to extend her jurisdiction to the affairs of private life. The people will not stand for much interference in Europe, much less in America. The church is driving thousands from her doors by the assumption of an authority she does not possess. In the past she has always suffered for her meddling with personal liberty and freedom of conscience. She is under the ban in Europe at present time for just this very offence. By interfering with the rights of others, religious fanatics, in this country are driving men out of the church. The narrow-minded conservatism, the petty intolerance, the contemptible bigotry displayed in the Fairbanks' attack ought to be a warning to the American people, for the American people will resent any interference with what they believe to be their rights under the Constitution to enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, not as the church dictates, but as they themselves see it."

WASHINGTON LETTER. [From our Regular Correspondent.] Washington, Oct. 12th, 1907. In administration circles the opinion prevails that there is no doubt that Secretary Taft's visit to China will increase the cordial relations between China and the United States and add to the prestige of American trade in the Orient. The Chinese press and people seem convinced at last that this country has no desire to annex any part of their territory and that the American people desire China's progress in the development of her resources and in the welfare of her people, and the cordial sentiment of the Chinese government toward the United States is held to be one more star added to the Roosevelt firmament.

Great interest has been aroused, not only in military but also in civilian circles, by the discovery that army officers are again thinking seriously of the advisability of transferring the Coast Artillery from the War to the Navy Department, and have presented to the Secretary of War, arguments which whether or not convincing, have at least led him to suggest to General Murray, Chief of Artillery, the advisability of drawing a bill providing for such transfer. While army officers are very anxious to get rid of this branch of the service and would like to see all expenditures for fortifications and maintenance of the Coast Artillery charged by Congress and by the public to the navy, the transfer cannot be consummated, presumably, without the sanction of the Secretary of the Navy and the Staff officers of that department and there is every indication that they will receive the scheme with wholesale condemnation. Moreover, the difficulties involved in the preparation of a bill providing for such transfer are far more numerous than Mr. Taft appreciated, or else his suggestion that such a measure be drafted was merely another demonstration of the kindly shrewdness he not infrequently exhibits in compelling his friends to prove to themselves that the schemes they have recommended to him with the utmost fervor and enthusiasm are by no means practicable. While this subject seems likely to be debated with great earnestness until the arguments to be presented on each side of the question have been exhausted, there is not after all much expectation that action by either the President or the Secretary of War will result. This past week the National Association of Railway Commissioners have been presenting arguments for the necessity of their continued existence in their annual session in Washington. They have put themselves on record as opposed to the views of the President for Federal control of railroads doing an interstate business, and have declared for an extension of the powers of the Commission instead of any curtailment thereof. The amazement, recently expressed by Mr. Wakeman, Secretary of the American Protective Tariff League, over the extent of the sentiment for tariff revision throughout the country, is a source of amazement to those politicians and officials in Washington who have, this past summer, taken the revision pulse of the country. The desire for a revision of our tariff schedules is so universal that it is regarded as a demand by the intelligent politicians. It is claimed indigestion is the nation disease. That's why the demand for Rings Dyspepsia Tablets keeps increasing because they do the work. Stomach trouble, indigestion, dyspepsia, bloating, etc., yield quickly. Two days treatment free.
