Candidate Sheatz Will Sweep the State.

AN ADDRESS BY REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

HE SHATTERS THE ARGUMENT OF THE OPPOSITION.

URNS TABLES ON HARMAN AND BERRY

Points Out the Failure of the Contentions of the Opposition, Which He Denounces as a Reflection on Governor Stuart and Auditor General Young.

KANE, OCTOBER 21.—John O. Sheatz was enthusiastically greeted by a large number of Republican party workers and voters of the lower part of McKean county at a mass meeting here last evening. The gathering was held in the Young Men's Christian Association hall, which has a seating capacity of about 600, but fully 800 were packed in the room.

In presenting Mr. Sheatz Chairman Rogers stigmatized as "villainous falsehoods" the assertions made in the interest of the Democratic candidate that Sheatz, as chairman of the Appropriations committee of the House at the last legislative session, had loaded the veterans' pension bill with a large appropriation so as to insure its veto by the Governor. He appealed to all the old soldiers to support Mr. Sheatz as a loyal Republican and the "sincere friend of the boys who wore the blue."

RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM. Mr. Sheatz was received with great applause when he faced the audience. He spoke in conversational style, relating the assurance that there was no bargaining on his part in connection with his nomination and that no one had any authority to make any pledge or promise to any man or any set of men which he would in any way recognize. "My only obligation, if I shall be elected," he said, "will be to the people of the Keystone State, and that obligation will be to give an honest, upright and efficient administration of the office."

In regard to the contention of State Treasurer Berry and Democratic Treasurer Candidate Harman that the latter should be elected because a Democrat should be on the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings at Harrisburg, Mr. Sheatz said that such an argument was a reflection on Governor Stuart and Auditor General Young, or both. "It implies," he said, "that either or both of these high officials are dishonest and it also suggests the idea that a board composed of three Republican members would not perform its duties properly. Such an insinuation is absurd on its face. If a Democrat is needed to act as a check upon Governor Stuart and Auditor General Young, then the reverse would be true if these offices should happen to be occupied by Democrats, and I am positive that if there was a Democratic Governor and a Democratic Auditor General at Harrisburg neither State Treasurer Berry nor Candidate Harman would advocate the election of a Republican to succeed Berry."

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES F. BARCLAY.

OTHER SPEECHES.

Speeches were also made by State Representatives E. E. Baidelman, of Dauphin county; Josiah Howard, of Cameron, and Congressman C. F. Barclay, of the Twenty-first district, comprising Cameron, Clearfield, Centre and McKean counties.

Mr. Sheatz and the other orators reached here last evening from Bradford. En route they stopped off at Smethport, county seat of McKean, and were entertained at dinner by a local committee.

Upon their arrival here they were taken in charge by a reception committee and escorted to the Griffin hotel, where the candidate held a reception and was serenaded by a band of music.

According to its own honest confession the time has been when the Independent has been hard put to it to find any good to say for some of its own candidates. By the same token it has often been hard put to it to find anything to say against the Republican candidates. A case in point this year is Mr. John O. Sheatz, our nominee for State Treasurer.

Experience desirable, but not necessary. Good opportunity for right person. Address Publisher, Box 69, Station O., New York. 36-2t.

A Happy Band. Mrs. Frank G. Judd chaperoned a party of twenty young ladies and gents to Driftwood last Saturday. It was a lively bunch of nice girls and good boys—full of fun but poor talkers, never anything to talk about.

Apology. This issue of the Press is not up to our usual variety of news. Our foreman has been called away on account of death, while another employee has a crippled finger, thereby putting us "strictly up against it." We ask the indulgence of our readers and patrons for this issue. We hope to secure additional help in order to catch up with the great amount of work now in our jobbing department. Such is life.

Honor Roll. Report of Canoe Run school for the month ending Oct. 18, 1907: Whole attendance, males 17, females 13; average attendance, males 17, females 13; per cent. of attendance, males 93, females 92.

Our Kids Downed. Emporium Has Been went to Austin last Friday morning to play the Austin Stars and accepted the lemon without a kick, the score standing 12 to 5 in favor of Austin. The following composed our club: Arverd Nystrum, Rob't Leutz, Chas. Robinson, Oscar Foster, Frank Egan, Clark Metzger, Ernest Fredette, Grover Hogan, Leo Ritchie, Vincent Ritchie, Mose Minard, Capt. While en route for Austin the boys stopped at Sizerville, just in time assist removing the furniture from Adam Market's residence, which was being destroyed by fire.

Our kids hope to get even with the Austin team next Saturday.

"Leah Kleschna." "Leah Kleschna" has been acted over seven hundred times by Mrs. Fiske and has never received any unfavorable criticism. It took New York by storm and was welcomed with a chorus of praise that crowded the theatre for months. The same record has been made by the company that will appear in "Leah Kleschna" at the Emporium Opera House on Saturday evening, Oct. 26th, which is also under Harrison Grey Fisk's management, and is said everywhere to be of metropolitan excellence and to give the greatest satisfaction. Its appearance here is a big event and there will be a large demand for seats when the sale opens on Oct. 24th.

The Campaign Closes. On Tuesday, Nov. 5, the electors of Cameron county will again declare themselves in favor of the Republican principles and its candidates. While this is an off year there will no doubt be a light vote, possibly not more than one thousand in this county. Only two candidates are in the field—Hon. John O. Sheatz, for State Treasurer, and Charles J. Howard for County Treasurer. Both are entitled to your votes and should have a rousing majority in this county. Mr. Sheatz accompanied by Hon. Charles F. Barclay and Hon. Josiah Howard last week made a tour of McKean county and addressed meetings at Bradford, Smethport, Mt. Jewitt and Kane. The fact was clearly demonstrated that the old soldiers take no stock in the wall from the Fishing Creek Confederacy candidate Harman. The old boys in blue will make an X in the Republican box.

DEATH'S DOINGS

MRS. SARAH ELIZABETH PYE, aged 56 years, wife of John S. Pye, of East Allegheny Avenue, died at the family residence last Sunday after an illness of several months, from a complication of diseases. She was a great sufferer and sought relief from specialists without any benefit. Deceased leaves a husband and nine children. Her funeral took place from Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Johnson officiating. The family has resided in Emporium for many years and have the sympathy of many friends.

Our townsman Mr. Thos. Gallagher, on Monday received a telegram conveying the sad intelligence that his sister, Mrs. Eliza Revella, of Philadelphia, passed away, after a long illness. Mrs. R. was a visitor in Emporium many times, in fact was here two weeks ago for a few days. Mr. Gallagher and niece, Miss Mazie, left for Philadelphia Monday night, to attend the funeral.

Cottage Hotel Leased. County Treasurer John Cummings informs the PRESS that he has rented the Cottage Hotel—selling the furniture and stock—to Mr. Wm. Bente, of Pittsburg. Pittsburgers seem to be stuck on Emporium, this being the third landlord to locate here within a few months.

Happy Events. One of the most pleasant events that ever occurred among the colored society of Emporium, took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey, East Allegheny avenue, last Friday evening, when Mrs. W. H. Brady assisted by Miss Annitta Dorsey, tendered them a surprise party in honor of the twenty-second year of their married life. The dining room was beautifully decorated in pink and white, long streamers of pink ribbon extending from the chandelier down to the table on all sides, forming a grand scene for all present. A centerpiece of flowers, autumn leaves and all the fruits of the season. An elaborate supper was served by Mrs. Brady, and while the happy family were seated around the table, Mrs. Brady read a poem of her own composition entitled "Twenty-two Years Ago To-Day." Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey were the recipients of many beautiful presents that will help them to remember the happy hours of that evening. They retired at a late hour, thanking God for the many blessings he had bestowed upon them during the years of their married life. x x x

Teachers Institute. The very successful session of Cameron County Teachers' Institute closes to-morrow morning. Each session has been one of interest to all who were fortunate enough to be present. The instructors—Dr. S. D. Fess, Dr. S. C. Schumacher, Prof. H. F. Stauffer, Mr. W. H. Schoff, Dr. Henry R. Rose, Dr. Flickinger and Prof. C. E. Plasterer—stand with the most able ever enjoyed by our Institutes. Miss Collins chose carefully when she engaged such talent. The evening entertainments were very pleasing and attracted very large audiences.

The Monday evening entertainment at the Opera House was the Boston Concert Company. The reader, Miss Pooler, was without doubt the favorite with the immense audience. The first number entitled, "Miss Civilization," by Richard Harding Davis, was enthusiastically applauded, as was also the other selections given. Miss Carmen MacIntyre, the violinist and soprano, showed remarkable skill and talent in her recitals. Each number rendered was thoroughly enjoyed and highly appreciated. Mr. Leon C. Batchelder, Flute and Piccolo player, surprised the large audience by his wonderful skill on these instruments. After each number he was recalled and responded to the hearty encores most graciously. He's a genuine treat. Miss Elsie Phelan, piano accompanist, filled in her part of the program, in a most pleasing manner. Her number, "Piano Solo and Songs" was heartily applauded and she acknowledged the encores in a gracious manner. Her easy matter of fact style captured her listeners.

Dr. S. D. Fess Tuesday evening, on "Humanity of Lincoln" was a treat. We have listened to some of the ablest platform orators but never was we so completely captured as we were Tuesday evening when Dr. Fess described Lincoln. Grand beyond description. Wednesday evening, Dr. Henry R. Rose, gave illustrated lecture "Parisian." It was fine and elevating. This evening "The Royal Gypsy Concert Company" will close the evening session. The Company will no doubt have a crowded house.

At Emporium Opera House. Harrison Grey Fiske's "Leah Kleschna" company, that comes to the Emporium Opera House on Saturday evening, has been playing a number of towns hereabout and it is said every where to be the best attraction seen in years, if ever before. There is no misrepresentation about the performance, which is tremendously dramatic and splendidly acted. Harrison Grey Fiske, under whose management the play was produced when Mrs. Fiske acted it for six months in New York and for three seasons in other cities, is also the manager for this company. The quality of the performance of "Leah Kleschna" shows what a difference it makes when one of the big metropolitan managers sends a play out under his own name, he cannot afford to have his reputation suffer by an inferior attraction. The company is just as good as those seen in New York; and all the scenery, costumes and properties are carried. Mr. Fiske is the first manager to send companies to the one-night stands and if other managers would follow his example they would get just as crowded houses as in the big cities. No one who wants to see a really first-class performance of a thrilling modern play should miss "Leah Kleschna." The sale of seats will open on Oct. 24.

Sad Message. The PRESS' faithful foreman, Mr. O. Proudfoot, was called to Milesburg on Wednesday by a telegram informing him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Jas. Wallace, aged 24 years. Deceased had been ill for several months. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her death.

Religious. Sabbath services at the Free Methodist church, Oct. 27th, as follows: Sabbath school 10 a. m.; preaching of the word at 11 a. m., and 7:00 p. m.; class meeting at 12 o'clock, morning topic, "Acceptable Christian Service," evening topic, "Bible Repentance." A cordial welcome to all. Come. F. B. SCHRIENER, Pastor.

Crushed to Death. John Johnson, head sawyer on the night crew of the Goodyear Lumber Company saw mill at Austin, was crushed to death between two logs while at work in the mill at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been employed by the Goodyears for 25 years and was one of the most expert sawyers in this section, and was a most valued and highly respected citizen. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. A widow and three children survive him.

Did you Ever Receive Higher Wages. Snyder County "Tribune." "The election in Snyder County this fall will be an unusually quiet one, owing to the fact that we have no local ticket and hence will have no excitement. It is highly important that every voter in Snyder County who believes in the success of Republican principles should attend the election, Tuesday, November 5th. "Farmers, did you ever have better times? Laborers and mechanics did you ever receive higher wages than at present? If this is true, why change? You should remember your past experiences in the matter of a change in administrations. At this time, when the tariff question is being agitated, it is bad policy for Pennsylvania to halt or hesitate on the issues. Let us poll the full Republican vote in Snyder."
