Many useful and valuable presents were bestowed on the estimable couple and the PRESS joins with their many friends in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes.

John S. Jordan, the recognized champion hunter and trapper north of the Mason and Dixon Line, has secured his fourth bear since Oct. 19th. All of the animals were in good condition, the largest one weighing over 200 pounds. John is baiting his traps this season with raw cabbage and says it is the best bait he ever used. He has also secured five coons in the last ten days. Some time ago he visited in New York State and says the game is not near as plentiful there as it is here in "Old Pennsylvania" and says his native state is good enough for him. John says:

O leave me in old Pennsylvania,

Where the black squirrel barks on the tree;

Where the pheasant, the quail and the rabbit,

Are roaming so happy and free;

The bear and the deer and the wild cat,

Make their home in the mountains so high,

In my own native state, Pennsylvania

'Tis there that I'll live and die.

W. A. Nelson is a busy man these days, trapping coons and muskrats. He has been very successful this season and seldom comes in from his traps without having one or two fine muskrats or coons. We wish him every success.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many an Emporium Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Emporium people endorse this claim.

John Montgomery, living on West Sixth St., Emporium, Pa. says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a safe and reliable remedy for backache and kidney disorders. I suffered with lame back and sharp shooting pains through my loins and was so lame at times that I was unable to straighten up. Every move I made would cause pains to shoot through me. My kidneys were very weak and the secretions irregular causing me much annoyance and forcing me to arise many times during the night. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from L. Taggart, the druggist, and since using this remedy I have been completely cured of all annoying symptoms of kidney trouble. I am able to sleep soundly all night and do not have any more trouble with my back. I heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with Modern Naval Warfare.

Nothing in all modern times has advanced more rapidly than naval engineering and warfare. Ever since the public has been impressed with the fact that a nation's life depends on its navy, it has been becoming more and more interested. But as it makes dull reading and as very few have had any opportunity to inspect a monster Battleship at close range, most of us have, at least, only a vague sense of its magnitude and power. Therefore Lyman H. Howe's moving pictures of a great naval attack, in Emporium Opera House on Thursday, Oct. 31st. will prove not only distinctly novel and instructive, but will gratify much natural curiosity. To many minds, the series will impart the first true and full conception of naval realities, for however much we may have read of them, nothing conveys ideas more clearly than seeing actualities. The pictures were secured only thru special facilities given by the Lords of the Admiralty, England, and as Mr. Howe controls the sole American rights for the greater portion, they are exhibited in this country only by him. The scenes showing the physical drill and amusements aboard ship, are followed by perfect views of the latest sub-marines in cruising trim, and with only their backs and conning towers visible. Then a realistic torpedo attack is shown. These deadly and terrible weapons are shown leaving their muzzles and ploughing the sea. As they speed directly toward the audience, their paths are plainly visible. A touching scene showing Jack's last farewell to his sweetheart just before the battle, is then introduced as a natural incident of the tragedies of war. It is so finely and pathetically portrayed that it appeals forcefully to all human sympathy. The series concludes with scenes of a land attack by naval forces. The vigorous bombardment from the gunboats to shield the landing troops is followed by the flight up the slope, landing and hauling a 4 7 gun, and armored train and maxim battery in action. Finally the repulse is shown amid the boom of artillery and crackle of rifles, and the invaders are seen racing with their guns for the boats, while the victors fall in line of march to headquarters.

Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."
