FROM OUR REPORTERS.

SINNAMAHONING.

The Sinnamahoning Liars Club met in regular session Thursday night. A hot time was had. One member reported that he had picked up 22 pairs of buck horns near a big rock, where the bucks had dehorned themselves, in order that they would not be slaughtered, for the law says a deer without horns must not be killed. Another member said Batchelder lost his book on the game and fish laws and it was picked up by some of the buck family and in this way they have learned the new law. Bear stories were then taken up and after a lengthy discussion, the meeting wound up with snake stories. J. H. Drum told a good one which was recorded on the minutes. Frank Tice raised an objection as the season was too late for snake stories. Pap Blodget and Batchelder will be taken back after they get that wild cat on Pepper Hill. There were two visitors present, Jack Mead of Renovo, an ex-member and Geo. Tice, a third degree member of Galeson. The Club then adjourned to meet at the call of Mont Peasley, the great ananias.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by L. Taggart. nov

FIRST FORK.

The house of M. J. Logue had a narrow escape on Saturday morning. As it was the roof of the kitchen took fire, and the family being in the large part of the house, didn't discover it until it had done considerable damage. He had just reshingled the large part of the house and had lots of shingles left for repairs, so he was quite lucky after all.

Tom Hart and youngest son of Sterling Run, came across the hill Saturday and visited friends in this vicinity over Sunday.

Hunters are very plenty in this section, more so than game, as the bear appear to have left and the deer haven't arrived yet. Pheasants were never so scarce here as now, and the hunters have to vent their spite on the innocent little cot-tontail.

Mr. Batchelder of Sinnamahoning, is also in the ring and we may expect results in the near future. Besides this, C. Wesley Barr, of Tunnell Hill, may prove a dangerous rival as soon as he gets his fall work finished and the excitement of the recent election is over. Wesley has secured five coons and cut a bee tree, from which he got over 300 pounds of nice honey during the past week. The readers of the PRESS will watch this contest with interest. Capt. English of the R. F. D. will act as judge.

REAPING BENEFIT.

From the Experience of Emporium People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Emporium residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Mrs. Anna Zimet, living on West 4th street, at Emporium, Pa., says: "I have received a great deal of relief from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered with kidney trouble for years and though I doctored and used numerous remedies I could get no relief. I suffered with backache, pains through my loins, severe headaches and a constant feeling of languor and depression. The kidneys were much disordered and the secretions very irregular, causing me to rise many times during the night. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box from L. Taggart, the druggist. This remedy gave me more relief than anything I ever used. I am seldom troubled with backache, the kidneys have been strengthened and I feel better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills have been a great help to me and I strongly advise anyone suffering with kidney trouble to use this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup. As soon as he shows any signs of croup I give him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for three or four days which prevents the attack." This remedy is for sale by L. Taggart. nov

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

Washington, Nov. 16th, 1907.

The admirable address with which Secretary Root opened the Peace Conference of the Central American Republics is receiving the greatest commendation on all sides, as in it Mr. Root again emphasized the necessity of that policy which he regards as the key stone of international agreements. His argument was the same in substance as that urged so effectively in support of an international permanent court of arbitration, by the chairman of the American delegation at the Hague. The Secretary insists that "the mere declaration of general principles, the mere agreement upon lines of policy and conduct, are of little value unless there be definite and practical methods provided by which the responsibility to keep the agreement may be fixed upon some definite person, and the public sentiment of Central America be brought to bear to prevent its violation." This agreement, it is maintained, is sound and is especially applicable to the conditions which obtain in Central America, where, as Secretary Root so ably sets forth only the selfish ambitions of individuals prevent these people from living together in harmony, and where is found every tie of sentiment, relationship, religion and aspiration to weld these republics together.

The President's "In God we Trust" letter has aroused no little antagonism among a certain class of people in this city and it now appears that there is, after all, some authority for the inscription. But, in spite of the fact, the more intelligent contingent in Washington will express the hope that the President's dictum will stand and that Congress will not be besieged to restore the inscription on the "tribute money" of the country.

From advices which have reached the government from official and unofficial sources, those foreign corporations and governments which have obtained concessions from the Chinese government for the construction of railroads and other public works, are experiencing no little difficulty in the prosecution of their enterprises. Officials here claim that American interests in China are being watched carefully by our representatives there, and that any alleged violation of their rights are promptly reported to the State Department. The opposition to the foreigners and their work is said to extend alike to the Germans, the English and especially the Japanese.

Among the prominent men who are beginning to make flying visits to Washington, and presumably to the White House, is Andrew Carnegie, but when asked what brought him to the Capitol at this time he facetiously replied: "the Congressional Limited." It is understood, however, that he has come here to keep in touch with the peace conference, as he has taken a great interest in the effort to bring about lasting peace in Central America and has given $750,000 of the $1,000,000 fund that will erect the new building on the Van Ness site in this city.

The Postmaster of Gasconade, Mo.: Daniel A. Bugh, says of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, "I am doing so well, and improving so fast in health, that I cannot say too much for your Kidney and Bladder Pills. I feel like a new man. DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are sold by R. C. Dodson."

What Would You Do?
