You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. SEGER BROS. 237 West 142 St New York City. Dog Pets In Hotels.

"The one thing we have more trouble with than anything else," said the manager of one of the large hotels it upper Broadway, "is the fact that wo men insist on smuggling their pet dog to their rooms. We have no objection to dogs as dogs. If the animal is no too large or too fierce our guests may take them to their rooms during the day and may even feed them there But we draw the line at having dogs in the bedrooms at night. Any woman with a pet dog can have the beas cared for by the porter at night, and we have specially constructed kennelifor all kinds of dogs, and we give them the best of care. But owners o pets seem to think that no one save themselves understands Fido or Gyp The women seem to think that if dog gie has not the comforting assurance of the owner's nearness then doggle will not sleep well. So women try to smuggle their pets to their rooms un der their cloaks or by back ways or even bribe one of the porters to take it to their room, believing that we will not hear anything about it.
"As a matter of fact, the first thing

the porter does after getting his tip is to tip me, and a couple of hours late. the woman is called upon by a clerk who tells her dogs cannot stay in the bedrooms all night.-New York Press

His Neighbor's Cat.

A Cleveland lawyer tells of a mar living in a suburb of that city whose sleep had been disturbed nightly by the howling on his own back fence of his neighbor's cat. At last, in despair he consulted his lawyer.

"There sits the cat every night or our fence," explained the unhappy man, "and he yowls and yowls and yowls. Now, I don't want to have any trouble with this neighbor, but the thing has gone far enough, and I want you to suggest a remedy."

The lawyer looked solemn and salo not a word.

"I am well within my rights if I shoot the cat, am I not?" asked the

"I would hardly say that," replied the legal light. "The cat does not be long to you, as I understand it."

"And the fence does?"

"Then." concluded the lawyer. ") think it safe to say that you have a perfect right to tear down the fence." -Lippincott's.

Weeds Worth Millions.

New Zealand flax is one of a num-ber of wild weeds that yield their gatherers great wealth. The flax, the strongest known, grows wild in marshes. When it is cultivated it dwindles and its fibers become brittle and valueless.

Indian hemp grows wild, and out of it hasheesh, or keef, is made. Keef looks like flakes of chopped straw. It is smoked in a pipe; it is eaten on liver; it is drunk in water; it produces an intense, a delirious happiness, and among orientals it takes the place of beer and whisky.

The most valuable weed of all the wild growths is the seaweed. The nitrate beds of South America, which yield something like $65,000,000 a year, are nothing but beds of seaweed decomposed .- Columbus Dispatch.

One Kind of Fame.

Authorities who have in charge some of England's ancient treasures try to discourage the habit of carving initials on these relics. A fine of $15 was recently imposed on a man who had chipped his name in letters six inches high on one of the stones in the "Druids' Circle" near Keswick. Close to the giant stone globe at Swanage a special slab is provided for the harmless reception of the names of all who are addicted to this self advertisement. On popular Alpine summits it is customary for names to be left on cards in emptied wine bottles.-Chica-

A Story of Beau Nash.

Beau Nash was not entirely a butterfly, as is proved by the following anecdote: His father was a partner in a glass business at Swansea. This was little known, and the Duchess of Mariborough once twitted him with the obcurity of his birth. "Madam," replied Nash, "I seldom mention my father in company, not because I have any reason to be ashamed of him, but because he has some reason to be ashamed of me."
