DEATH'S DOINGS

OVERHISER.

FRANK M. OVERHISER, aged 65 years and eight months, passed away on Friday morning at his residence on West Fourth street, after a long and painful illness, covering several years. His death was peaceful. He leaves a wife, nee Miss Isabella O. Root, formerly of Coudersport, to whom he was united in marriage in 1870, also one brother, Ex-Sheriff R. M. Overhiser. Deceased came here with his parents in 1854 and always resided in Emporium, being engaged in several lines of business. When in health he was jolly, good company and always made friends. During his illness his faithful wife stood by him and administered to his every want and her task was not an easy one. Many were the kind words of sympathy and condolence extended to her, as well as acts of kindness, which she deeply appreciates.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. Dr. Johnston, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church officiated and made appropriate remarks. A male quartet, composed of H. C. Olmsted, I. K. Hockley, Chas. Felt and W. S. Sterner, sang several hymns. Interment was made in Newton cemetery.
