NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many an Emporium Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The mine is nature's calendar.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Emporium people testify to this.

Mrs. E. L. Rendt, living on Fifth St., Emporium, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me. I suffered with a disordered condition of the kidneys for years and the secretions were irregular and painful in passage."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

It is very important and in fact it is absolutely necessary to health that we give relief to the stomach promptly at the first signs of trouble—which are belching of gas, nausea, sour stomach, headache, irritability and nervousness.

Pinesalve Carbolyzed acts like a poultice, draws out inflammation and poison. Antiseptic healing. For chapped hands, lips, cuts and burns.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from kidney and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joe King, of Woodland, Tex. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief."

Rank Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga.

Terrapin. Terrapin begin laying about the middle of May and hatch in about thirty days. The female terrapin scratches a hole in the sand with her fore paws, deposits her eggs, from thirteen to nineteen, in it and then covers them up and leaves the hole of the sun on the sand to hatch out the young terrapins.

Pen Portrait of Grieg. Here is as vivid a picture of Grieg the man as any that has yet been drawn. A correspondent who saw the noted Scandinavian composer when he received his honorary degree at Cambridge, in England, in 1894, makes it for the Manchester Guardian: "It was a sad and a strong face that we saw, one might almost have said a grim face, but that there was nothing of hardness in it, a face which must have inspired both respect and affection in all who met him."

Beer Capacity of a Munich Porter. An English family touring in Bavaria called at the world famous Hofbrauhaus, the pride of Munich, writes our correspondent. To the waitress serving them the head of the family in a matter of fact way simply held up his five fingers. To the family's astonishment, the waitress came back with five quart pots filled to the brim with beer.

A Waiter's Amazing Wait. The waiter spoke indignantly. "Men go about," he said, "complaining of being mistook for waiters, but it is on the other foot really that the shoe rests. Us waiters are the real complainants in these cases of mistook on identity. Our kicks are sincere. The others' ring false. For at dances and balls and such like crushes many a young man makes money by being mistook for a waiter. How does he make money? Why, he is tipped, and all them tips he pockets, never thinking of handing them over to their rightful owners."

Savage Sense of Humor. Lecturing on New Guinea, A. H. Dunning said he once offered a native some smelling salts. After going through extraordinary contortions the native went away, returning soon with another native, whom he compelled to make acquaintance with the salts. The two brought a third, and so on until the whole village had been victimized. The savages watched each new sufferer with the keenest delight and took good care not to let him know what fate awaited him.—London Standard.

Ohio's Pioneer Town. Marietta was founded in the spring of 1788 by New Englanders, chief among them being General Rufus Putnam of Massachusetts, Samuel Holden Parsons of Connecticut and James M. Varnum of Rhode Island. The town was named after the unfortunate Marie Antoinette.

Not Too Crazy. Jones, the tailor, is informed that one of his clients has suddenly gone insane.

"Oh, the poor fellow! But he'll pay my bill at least, won't he?" "Oh, he isn't quite insane enough for that."—Paris Journal.

Answered. "Where shall the weary find rest?" exclaimed Rev. Dr. Fourthly, with dramatic emphasis. A short snore from the pew occupied by Deacon Hardesty was the only response.—Chicago Tribune.

The test of political institutions is the condition of the country whose fortunes they regulate.—Beaconsfield.

Bucktail Monument Erected. The Bucktail monument was erected last week by Mr. Alex. Robinson, Jr., representing the John M. Gessler's Sons, builders, of Philadelphia, and it has been declared one of the handsomest in the state. The tablets are yet to be placed, the builders making but one panel while four are necessary for the four tablets.

The figure surmounting the stone work was made from a cannon used in the battle of Gettysburg, and represents the Bucktails and their garb at the time they left their native haunts for the front.

W. H. Rauch, of Philadelphia, and F. F. Kirk, members of the Bucktail Commission, met with the local committee at the Commercial hotel. Monday afternoon, First Vice President J. F. Parsons, of Emporium, presiding. Secretary of the Commission Rauch stated that Monday, April 27, 1908, had been selected as the date for the dedication, that being the 47th anniversary of the day of their departure from Driftwood. It is also the birthday anniversary of General Grant. The annual reunion of the Bucktails will be held on that date and also on April 28th.

The committee is endeavoring to secure the presence of several very prominent persons, of whom more will be said later. A large number of invitations will be issued and the biggest event in the history of the county is promised.

Miss Margaret Kirk, of Cross Fork, a grand-daughter of Corporal F. F. Kirk, will on that occasion recite an original poem by Frank Leon Beeby, of Kennett Square, after which Miss Margaret Feuser, of Philadelphia, a niece of Sergeant W. H. Rauch, will unveil the monument.

The committee selected Congressman Barclay to accept the monument on behalf of the Bucktails and the citizens of Cameron county.—Driftwood Gazette.

"Miss Petticoats."

The play "Miss Petticoats" presented at the Opera House last evening was greatly enjoyed, especially by those who have read the book, the company doing remarkably well in rendering the characters as portrayed by the author, Agatha Renier, whose nick name is "Miss Petticoats" appears first in lowly circumstances, living in an old ship, her only companions her grand-father and some old sailors. The later acts reveal her in her brilliant evolution from this quaint home, through wiles of adventures and the vicissitudes of the smart set in her final graduation into the aristocratic circles where she dominates over her enemies in an exciting deal in stocks.

Miss Florine Farr played the part of "Miss Petticoats," and she gave a litesome, sweet interpretation to the earlier scenes; and in the more strong climaxes of the latter acts she proved herself an actress of force and dramatic intensity. The denouement and the exultation that take place in the last act was fine acting, and indeed it may be said of all the company that they took their roles well.—Hudson, N. Y., Evening Register, Nov. 20, '07. At Emporium Opera House, Jan. 21st, 1908. Reserved seats, $1.00, 75c; general admission, 50c; gallery, 25c.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by L. Taggart.
