The Mountain Mission Church.

EDITOR PRESS:—Kindly print in your good paper a clipping from the Westleyan Methodist of Jan. 29th, and what has been done since for the Mountain Mission Church at Castle Garden:

"Since our last report we have received from the following persons $23. The ones giving $5 are those who have joined in the 100 to give $5 each. Jennie Ayers, Houghton, $5; Mrs. J. M. English, Driftwood, $5; L. Bird, Penfield, Pa., $5; Hon. H. H. Mullin, Emporium, Pa., $5; Mrs. Dell Smith, Towanda, Pa., $5; Mrs. C. S. Walker, Addison, N. Y., $2; Esther Comstock, Houghton, N. Y., $1. We have now seven names who have responded to Brother Bond's call for 100 to give $5 each to complete the Mountain Mission church. There has been up to this date, put into this church, cash, $1,497.75, and about $250 in gifts, and it will take the biggest part of $500 to complete this structure. What is needed yet is the inside work to be done, laid and plastering, floor laid, seated, painted and then we can hold meetings. Is this church to stop here or is it to go on to completion, and be a blessing or be a failure and let our enemies say I knew they never would complete it; did I not tell you so? We leave all in God's hands, let him do whatever seemeth good in His sight."

Since the above was reported we have received from the following persons: Mrs. Minnie Batchelder, Wy-side, $5.00; Miss Poe Couwick, $15.55; Rev. C. Cicard, Seneca Falls, N. Y., "Please include me as one of the 100 who will pay $5.00 to finish your church, enclosed find check for same; J. O. Brookbank, Driftwood Pa., put me down as one of the 100 for $5.00; J. M. English, $5.00; and this way the good work goes on.

On Jan. the 29th inst, the following letter was received from an unknown man at Randolph, N. Y.: "I write to know if there has been enough contributed to clear up the debt on your church, and if not please let me know at once, or as soon as possible, and oblige.

Yours in Jesus,
G. W. DEITER.
Just what this means we are unable to tell at present, but will explain later on. Any one that chances to read this and if they feel as though they ought to join the 100, just send your name and $5.00 to J. O. Brookbank, Driftwood, Pa., and it will be acknowledged promptly with thanks. Yours for the Mountain Mission Church, sure
J. M. ENGLISH.

Will the Democrats

Endorse Mr. Howard?

It is quite likely they will endorse Hon. C. F. Barclay, in this district, for Congress, because they can not help themselves, and it is also quite likely they will endorse Mr. Howard for the legislature for the same reason.

Mr. Howard and Mr. Blumle have always been good friends and, both being good citizens, their friends in both parties would not desert them. A great many of Mr. Blumle's friends are also friends of Mr. Howard and would have voted for him two years ago if they had not felt that they should stay loyal to Mr. Blumle.

Now, that the people, under the new primary law make their own nominations, these men will insist on voting to endorse Mr. Howard and if this spirit prevails the compliment will be no more than a just tribute to Mr. Howard, who in a great common sense way is harmonizing all factions to work together for the permanent development and growth of Cameron county.

The Party for the People.

The Republican party is the great party for the people. We do not know of a democratic state that has a uniform primary law allowing the people to make their own nominations.

Under this law any man if he has the required number of friends to sign his petition, can have his name printed on the primary ballot for the nomination, and the beauty of it is that the voters can sign the petitions of as many different candidates as they wish; and really, in the spirit of fair play, the candidates should sign each others papers. This will likely be necessary for small counties, especially in the minority party.

This year there are three candidates already announced for the Republican nomination of Associate Judge in this county and they will all find it is no small job to go around and hunt up two hundred men of their own party to sign their paper, but the voters should graciously help them out and when the primaries are over each candidate and his friends in the same gracious American spirit should submit to the winner and all join hands for his election.

More Candidates.

As the time approaches for the Uniform Primary candidates are entering the field as will be seen by glancing at the announcements in this issue of the Press. J. A. Wykoff, of Grove, had the field all to himself for Associate Judge, but now J. A. Mutterbaugh, of Driftwood, has entered the race from his headquarters at Driftwood, while Wm. Berry, of Sterling Run, an old time Republican, lines up at the rope. Let the contest be friendly.

Two new aspirants have shown up on the Democratic side—John W. Norris for Sheriff and Wm. H. Smith for County Commissioner. Mr. Norris will make a breezy campaign while he is at it and take defeat good naturedly. Mr. Smith of Lumber for County Commissioner is a mighty good citizen and would make a highly efficient official if elected by the minority party. His opponent on the Republican side, Mr. Benjamin Dayton, who resides in the same township, has lived in Lumber for 42 years and followed the occupation of bridge carpenter, being many years in the employ of the Pennsylvania R. R. The best of feeling seems to prevail between the candidates, which is right and proper.

New Clerks.

Edward Breen, Esq., for many years clerk at the Sartwell House, Port Allegany, Pa., has accepted a similar position with the New Warner at this place. He is popular with the traveling public. Mr. F. W. Moore has also been appointed night wet goods dispenser in the "sample goods" department.

Handsome Dining Room.

The New Warner House dining room has been handsomely refitted and handsome new carpet placed on the floor. In addition to repainting and furnishing a pressed steel decorated ceiling has been placed in position. Meals were served in the new rooms on Tuesday.

Faust is Well Played.

Faust, the story old, of man's temptation and his fall, was presented at the Grand last night by Porter J. White and a good company. The acting was excellent. The mechanism and the electrical effects were superior to those of any production of Faust ever seen here. It is certainly a good company, aided by very effective settings and mechanism.—Danville, (Ill.) Democrat. "Faust will be seen here at Emporium Opera House, Tuesday evening, Feb. 11th.

Fire at Port Allegany.

Port Allegany was visited by a very destructive fire on Sunday morning, in which the Sillman block was totally destroyed. The fruit store owned by Spalla, the clothing store of Mr. Sterns and the shoe store of Mr. Klock, as well as the offices on the second floor were all destroyed.

Ring's Little Liver Pills wake up lazy livers, clean the system and clear the skin. Try them for biliousness and sick headache. Price 25c at R. C. Dodson's drug store. 3m.

The Social Swim.

Miss Catherine Orr, entertained the E. N. G. K. at her home on Saturday evening. Her guests were: Misses Edna Adams, Jessie Fowler, Laura Hout, Jennie Robinson, Helen Cook, Mary Jessop, Florence Faucett, Margaret Weisenfluh, Martha Burns, Mary Burns, Jennie Craven, Lizzie Zwald, and Messrs. John Robinson, Charles Jessop, Henry Hout, Alfred Zwald, Charles McOlevie, Ralph Schnee, Mark Ellis, William Gauniz and Thomas Bailey. Various games were indulged in, and after a bountiful supper, the guests departed for their homes.

Lewis-Martin.

Miss Dessie Lewis and Mr. Clifton Martin have returned from a month's visit to Buffalo and Watkins Glen, having stolen the march on their friends by quietly going to Buffalo on Dec. 21st and were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. Their many Emporium friends congratulate the happy couple. The Press extends its best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Martin for a happy life and we know they will be happy for both are industrious and of a happy disposition.

Little Sallie Holinshead the child actress in "A Ragged Hero" which will be seen here at the Opera House on Friday evening, Feb. 7, made her first public appearance when she was a baby in arms being carried on in a play in which the noted Clara Norris, appeared as her mother. This little lady has ideas of her own on the subject of her career and very positively states that when she grows up she is going to be as great an emotional actress as Mrs. Leslie Carter.

"A Ragged Hero."

It is claimed for "A Ragged Hero" which will be seen here at the Emporium Opera House on Friday evening, February 7th, that it is one of the greatest melo-dramas of many years and the criticisms it has received in New York and on the road this season seems to indicate that the management is not claiming too much.

"Faust."

Faust contains a large measure of moral philosophy, both in the actual words of the players and in the grand ensemble of its weird lights and shadows, its comedies and tragedies. Sam Jones aptly characterized it when he said it was "better than a sermon." Will appear at Emporium Opera House on Tuesday evening, Feb. 11th.

DEATH'S DOINGS

DAVEY.
Mrs. Clara Ensign-Davey, aged 72 years, after an illness of six weeks, of a complication of diseases, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Moore, at St. Marys, on Saturday, Feb. 1st, 1908. Her remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker LaBar's assistant, C. W. Rishell. Religious services were held at the residence on Monday, at one o'clock. Rev. Graybill officiating, after which the remains were brought to Emporium and taken to the Methodist church, of which the deceased was an active member. The services were conducted by Revs. Mr. Cleaver and Mr. Allen. The Ladies Relief Corps of G. A. R., an association in which the deceased took a very active interest conducted their regulation ritualistic exercises. Owing to the fact that the host of friends of the respected lady were not informed of the funeral, very many were prevented from paying that respect due an excellent lady, who has for years been active in all good work. Mrs. Davey was an exceptionally bright woman and more than once contributed to the columns of the Press.

A number of relatives and friends from out of town attended the last sad rites and consoled with the bereaved husband, Mr. E. C. Davey. Those in attendance, as near as we are able to learn were: Mr. and Mrs. (daughter) Thos. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. (daughter) Thos. Moore, Mr. Geo. Root, St. Marys; Mrs. McElhaney, (daughter), Buffalo; Benjamin Davey (son) and wife, Olean; Mrs. L. Lucore, (sister) Sizerville; Mrs. Mary Edwards, A. L. Ensign Sinnamahoning, in addition to the Lucore and Ensign relatives residing in town.

Murderer Donley.

Now that William S. Donley has been sentenced to death for the murder of his niece there is some speculation as to whether or not his zealous and faithful attorneys, W. C. Kress, Esq., and R. B. McCormick, Esq., will make any further effort towards securing a new trial in a higher court and thus possibly postpone for a time at least the last act in the sad drama, or whether they will permit the law to take its course, which will mean that Donley will be executed the coming spring or early summer on a day to be fixed by the governor, and which will be announced in due time.

Donley, since he is in the shadow of the gallows, is more persistent in his statements that he is innocent than ever before, and his counsel stated to the court Saturday that they are now more firmly of the belief that he is innocent than at any previous time.—Lock Haven Democrat.
