A Fortunate Purchase.

Did you ever stop to think what becomes of the travelers samples of a large Wholesale Dry Goods House? Buffalo's largest wholesale house, the Clawson & Wilson Co., employ forty traveling salesmen. Every six months they return their samples to be replaced by new ones. Mr. R. Kuehne, on his way to New York last week, stopped off at Buffalo, just in time when these samples were put on sale at a ridiculous low price and the result was a large purchase. Beginning next Friday, (Feb. 28), the ladies of this county will have a chance to buy a lot of good merchandise at Emporium's largest and most progressive Dry Goods Store at prices never before heard of in this part of the state. Here are the items: 269 Corsets, mostly size 21, at following prices: Regular $1.50 self-reducing Corsets, not very many of these, at 50c; the regular $1.00 Corsets at 39c; the regular 50c Corsets at 25c and the regular 25c girdles, (of these there are not many) at 15c. There are 969 pieces of Ladies Neckwear, 10c and 15c Embroidered Turn-over Collars will be sold at 5c; the 25c Embroidered Collars, all washable and a large variety of styles, will be sold for 10c and some very beautiful Neck-pieces, which are usually 50c, at 19c. Then there are 228 Ladies Belts in Leather, Silk, etc. The $1.00 kind will be 50c and the regular 50c belts are marked 25c. There is also a lot of Jewelry, 50c Bracelets will be 25c; Fine Pearl Necklaces, the 50c kind, will be 25c; Peter Piper Leather Fobs for children, the 25c kind will be 5c. Handsome Belt Buckles, 50c kind 25c; the regular 25c kind 10c and one lot, without slides, 25c quality at 5c. "A Trip to the Moon" at Theatorium on Saturday night. Handsome views, colored.

"A Royal Slave."

With all its wealth of special scenery, gorgeous costumes, bright and catchy specialties—is the attraction at the Emporium Opera House, Friday evening, Feb. 28th. This piece, which has attained such an enviable reputation and secured such a hold on the hearts of theatregoers from one end of this broad land to the other—is from the pen of Mr. Clarence Bennett, author of the "Holy City," another notable success. Mr. Bennett has located his scenes near the city of Mexico and based the fabric of the play on events which actually occurred during the brief reign of the unfortunate Emperor Maximilian. The great treasure—the secret of which was so loyally and jealously guarded by El Aguila (The Eagle) who although a serf, traced his lineage from the royal Montezumas—is founded on fact. The success of this piece has been so phenomenal in America that the firm has decided to present it next year in England.

First Trip Down Town.

Mr. A. Kresge, who has been ill since the 2nd of last December, yesterday was able to get down town for the first since that time. He was attacked with pneumonia at the beginning of the winter and had a critical time with that treacherous disease, and afterwards experienced much trouble with his heart. He has been gaining nicely the past two weeks, however, and he and his family are cheerful in the belief that the restoration of his health is of a permanent character.—DuBois Courier, 22d. The many Emporium friends of our old friend and former citizen regret to learn of his illness. The old veteran, who is salesman for the Phoenix Mill Co., has been prospering in his old age and stands well with the business world. We hope our good friend may be spared many years. Mr. Kresge has been for many years one of our most prompt subscribers.

Celebration of the Holy Communion each Sunday in Lent (except first in the month) at 8 a. m.
"Lent is not a substitute for the daily Christian life; it is not being religious for a few weeks and careless afterwards, it is a session of special thought, earnest study; faithful endeavor, to know better the conditions under which we are to achieve success, and the better fulfill our duty to God."

Oriental Plays all the Rage.

Mr. Butler the energetic manager of the Emporium Opera House has secured Clarence Bennett's beautiful Mexican play, "A Royal Slave" for Friday evening, Feb. 28th. The author has evolved a story, startling in its intensity, calling into play the strongest emotions human nature possesses. The loyal, undying devotion of Aguila to his young mistress, the passionate hate of the Countess Inez de Ora, the sweet confiding love of the gentle Isadora—relieved by the bright, breezy comedy of the American newspaper correspondent and the equally sprightly Annetta with the specialties they introduce—all contribute their share in making "A Royal Slave" one of the most enjoyable of this season's offerings.

The Social Swim.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY PARTY.
MRS. FRID ARN JOHNSON very prettily entertained about twenty lady friends last Saturday afternoon, from three o'clock until eight, at her home on Sixth street, which being the chief amusement, but the real pleasure came with the unique and elaborate refreshments. The favors were metal cannons mounted on boxes of confectionery, also carnations. The decorations were flags and Washington's portraits. When the score cards were tallied it was ascertained that the following captured the prizes: First, Mrs. J. P. McNarney; second, Miss Lane; Booby, Mrs. H. S. Lloyd.

Drunken Orgies.

The drunken rowdies made the west ward disgraceful, last Saturday night. Certainly something can be done to put a stop to this lawlessness and close up the pig's ears. Again last night a drove of young lads, beastly drunk, came down Fourth street. Shame!

The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number.

It is a self evident fact that our citizens, regardless of party, who have the material interests of our entire county at heart, are fast resolving to insist upon the indorsement of Hon. Josiah Howard for Representative by all parties, thereby enabling him to better meet the demands of our people. Mr. Howard is through and through imbued with a desire to build up our county and has a right to expect both political parties, representatives of the entire people, to aid him in his efforts. Let us all join hands for Cameron county, our homes and firesides, and good moral government. Let us elect Mr. Howard who will aid in giving us better schools, better roads and better farms, lower taxes. In fact let us ALL work for Cameron county and the best way will be to show Hon. Josiah Howard that we appreciate his devotion and sacrifice by according him a unanimous election.

DEATH'S DOINGS

SIZER.
As announced last week, just as we were going to press, the sudden death of Nelson H. Sizer cast a gloom over a large circle of friends. Nelson Sizer was born at Sizerville, this county, and resided here until he grew to manhood, when he actively engaged in business. He was the soul of honor in every day life. After moving to Altoona, Pa., he was employed as salesman by the Doid Packing Co. His funeral took place on Friday last. The following was written by H. D. Burlingame, (a cousin) and read at the burial ceremony of the United Commercial Travelers:
BIOGRAPHY.

"NELSON H. SIZER was born at Sizerville, Pa., March 4th, 1854. He was one of five children two of whom survive him. After reaching manhood he for many years followed the lumbering business as foreman and inspector. His strong characteristics, so essential to a successful traveling salesman, were called to the attention of the Jacob Doid Packing Company when needing a salesman, and he was offered the position which he has held for the past several years. His record as a salesman will ever stand as an example worthy to be followed by his fellow brethren; honest in all his dealing, faithful to his employer, firm but fair with his customers. He was a man that was very emphatic in his denunciation of man, or things that appeared to him to be different from what they seemed to be. Among his friends and associates he proved a great entertainer. Few were his equal in his power of description.

His friends are numbered from the highest to the lowest, and among his acquaintances the most humble received his greatest attention. He had a very strong individuality and the word Sizer meant more for him than a name. Peace be unto him."

NELSON H. SIZER, a well known traveling salesman, residing at Llysven, died at 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning, of typhoid fever, at the Altoona hospital. He was admitted to the institution Feb. 14. Mr. Sizer was born at Sizerville, Cameron county, Pa., and was aged 54 years. For the past seven or eight years he had been a resident of this city. He was a traveling salesman for the Jacob Doid Packing company. Besides his wife, he is survived by one brother, F. H., of New Castle, and one sister, Miss Dora Sizer, of Sizerville. The well known Burlingame family were cousins of the deceased. Mr. Sizer was a man of strong individuality and had a host of friends. He was a member of the United Commercial Travelers and his death is the first in the local lodge since its organization four years ago. The lodge will have charge of the funeral.—Altoona Times, Feb. 20, 1908.

Mrs. Zora D. Lewis Dead.

MRS. ZORA D. LEWIS, of North Creek, wife of Francis A. Lewis, after a brief illness, passed from this life, Feb. 19, 1908.

The deceased was born at Little Genessee, N. Y., April 29, 1853, came to this county as a teacher in our public schools; after several years of very acceptable work, united in marriage with Francis A. Lewis. Unto this union was born three daughters, Mrs. M. E. Taylor, of North Creek, Mrs. Esal Brundage, and Mrs. Harry Hockman, of Mina, Potter county.

She is also survived by her husband and one sister, Mrs. Loomis, of Little Genessee, N. Y., also a large circle of relatives and friends.

By order of Divine Providence she was surrounded by her entire family in her last hours, everything being done for her comfort and restoration that human hands could do, yet it seemed to be the will of God that she should depart.

Mrs. Lewis was a much learned and able woman, very active in all the righteous enterprises in the neighborhood, always present at church as her health would permit and gave liberally of her means to the support of the gospel. She will be greatly missed by the church and community.

The sorrow stricken family have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors in these their hours of great sorrow and bereavement.

Funeral services were conducted at the Rich Valley church, Feb. 22, 1908, at 2 p. m., by the writer.

Notwithstanding the season of the year there was a lovely profusion of flowers and the very large congregation assembled from all parts of the county was an expression of the high esteem in which she was held. Interment in the Rich Valley cemetery.

The family wishes to tender thanks to the singers of FreeMethodist church, Emporium and also the neighbors and friends for their assistance in their sad affliction.

REV. A. C. DOW.

Sentenced to Jail.

Chief of Police Frank Mundy returned from Scranton on Tuesday morning, where he was a witness in the case of U. S. vs Burks Carr, who was arrested for passing "raised" money. The prisoner plead guilty and was sentenced to one year in Sunbury jail. The prisoner's wife, who resides in Emporium, on West Fifth street, last Friday night gave birth to a child.

Married in West Virginia.

Miss Edith A. DeArmit, who left Emporium some months ago for Elkins West Va., was on Feb. 22d, married to Mr. Jas. M. Paris of the same city. The bride is a very excellent young lady and has many friends in this county who wish her much happiness, with the husband of her choice. The PRESS especially extends its compliments to the happy couple.

A Jolly Sleigh Ride.

Eighteen of Emporium's brightest children, properly chaperoned by their dear "Mother and Father," enjoyed a sleigh ride to Sizerville, on Tuesday evening. The happy family were royally entertained at the Sizerville Springs Hotel, where a bounteous repast was served by Miss Councilman, in whose praise too much cannot be said for her excellent cooking, and as they passed the cheese to Charley," they all felt very much at home and supper time sped all too quickly. After supper, the young folks played several games while the "Mother and Father" sat quietly in a corner, very much interested in a game of dominoes. As the early hours began to arrive the parents wisely decided to depart for their home and after a pleasant homeward journey they all voted that they had had a most enjoyable evening.

Six O'clock Dinner.

Harold Seger entertained a few of his friends at his home on Fourth street, last Monday evening, by giving a "Stag" six o'clock dinner, the occasion being in honor of his birthday. The young men were served by two of Emporium fairest daughters, the Misses Lena Coyle and Christie MacDonald. His guests were Messrs. David Mulcahy, John Quigley, Herbert Vogt, Edward Foster, Frank Cavanaugh, Raymond Klees, Charles Farrell and Hugh Swartz.

Correction.

In last issue of PRESS we stated that J. A. Muthersbaugh had been station agent at Driftwood for fifteen years when we should have said twenty-seven years.

The Next President.

The Democratic state committee of Penn'a has decided to send an independent delegation to their national convention.

The Republican delegates on the other hand will undoubtedly be solid for Senator Knox.

This means the death of Bryan and Bryanism, and further means that the man who grasps at fads and fancies and is willing to promise any and everything that seems popular and catchy, never did represent the sober thinking part of our people. Trusts must be regulated, but legitimate industry must be protected and encouraged.

Labor must be protected and given fair play.

The tariff must be taken out of politics and adjusted from year to year on a business basis, so that industry and labor shall have regular employment at good wages. These are large and hard problems and it takes men of large experience and honest purpose to work them out on a progressive and just basis.

Senator Knox is a Statesman of broad experience and the highest integrity and ability.

With Senator Knox, Congressman Barclay and Representative Howard as our standard bearers, the Republicans of Cameron county, in fact all parties, feel justly proud.

Greatest Lumber Cut.

More lumber was cut in the United States last year than in any other year in its history. The enormous amount of 37,550,736 board feet was produced, and the mill value of this was $621,151,388. In addition, there were produced 11,858,260,000 shingles, valued at $24,155,555, and 3,812,807,000 lath, valued at $11,490,570. On the whole, it is safe to say that the present annual lumber cut of the United States approximates 40 billion feet, and that the total mill value of the lumber, lath, and shingles each year produced is not less than $700,000,000. These figures give some idea of how vast is the lumber industry and how great is the demand for its products.

A glance at the kinds of lumber produced shows very clearly the passing of white pine and oak, one of the greatest softwood and the other the greatest hardwood which the forest has ever grown. Since 1899 the cut of white pine has fallen off more than 40 per cent. while that of white oak has fallen off more than 36 per cent. To-day yellow pine leads all other woods in amount cut, while Douglas fir—and this will be a surprise to many—comes second. Since 1899 the cut of Douglas fir has increased 186 per cent. Louisiana is the foremost yellow pine State, with Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas following in order. Washington produces by far the greatest amount of Douglas fir.

A comparison of the lumber producing States shows that since 1899 there have been many changes in their relative rank. Washington, which in 1899 stood sixth, now leads, while Wisconsin, which eight years ago led all others, is now third. In the same period Oregon, Louisiana, Mississippi, Idaho and California made great strides as lumber producing States, on the other hand, the amount produced in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Indiana, and Ohio fell off anywhere from 29 to 54 per cent.

The highest-priced native woods are walnut, hickory, and ash, and the cheapest are larch and white fir. From the fact, however, that since 1899 the average increase in the price of lumber has been 49 per cent. it will not be long before cheap woods are few and far between.

Figures upon the lumber cut of the United States in 1906 are contained in Circular 122 of the Forest Service, which can be had upon application to the Forester, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Lewis.

In Remembrance of Zora D. Lewis, aged 54 years 9 months and 21 days, Member of the Ladies Missionary Society.

Another member, now has left us,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has behest us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Yet again we hope to meet her,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven in joy to greet her,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

It is sad that one we cherish,
Should be taken from our flock,
But the joys that do not perish,
Live in memory alone.

All the years we've spent together,
All the happy, golden hours,
Shall be cherished in remembrance,
Fragrant sweets from memory's flowers.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er,
On the border land we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of change,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall and our missing member,
In our Father's mansion fair.

Not now, but in the coming years,
It may be in the better land,
We'll read the meaning of our tears,
And there, sometime, we'll understand.
