WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, March 7, 1908.

Politics continues to be the chief interest in Washington despite the fact that the political news is all one way. There is still the same determined opposition to Secretary Taft on the part of politicians who are dominated by the interests, an opposition which is not personal but arises from the fear that Taft will be loyal to the Roosevelt policies on the one hand and from hatred of President Roosevelt on the other. And yet, this opposition is accomplishing nothing. The people are not in sympathy with it and as long as that is the situation there seems to be little likelihood of its success. The one hope of the anti-Taft crowd is to control the convention by the use of contesting delegations from the Southern states. There are too many wise politicians in the Republican party, it is believed, however, to permit that programme's being carried out. The party had one serious experience with a candidate whose nomination was tainted with unfairness and trickery. I refer to the case of Folger of New York who was nominated for Governor and who ran against Grover Cleveland for the governorship of the Empire State. It was learned after the convention that Mr. Folger had been nominated by the use of a forged telegram and the result was that Cleveland carried the state by 191,000 majority. Is it likely that the Republican party will repeat that disastrous experiment in a national convention?

Recently there has been an attempt to stir up opposition to the President by dispatches declaring that he is really working for a third term. If people would only think they would discover that reports of this character come only from sources antagonistic to the President, sources which have the least opportunity of knowing what his real wishes and motives are, Mr. Roosevelt is not seeking a third term. Will not accept one, and is in dead earnest in his desire to have Secretary Taft nominated both because he regards Mr. Taft as preeminently the best man for the place and because he is convinced that no other candidate would carry the election.
