Fighting Tuberculosis.

It is encouraging to note the progress of the efforts of the State Department of Health to drive out the "white man's plague." At the Cameron county dispensary alone the number of patients registered since last November is 12. It is impossible to say what benefit has followed by acquainting sufferers with their actual condition, instructing them how to seek recovery, how to guard against infecting other members of their families, and helping those who were too poor to purchase the necessary articles of diet. The benefit must be very large. In time a dispensary will be established in every county in the State, and this work will be associated with the maintenance of sanatoria in which many patients will be completely isolated. We have made a determined beginning. There is no doubt that in the course of the next ten years the decreased death rate from tuberculosis in Pennsylvania will herald the practical extermination of the disease. That is by no means a fantastic hope.

At the last session of the Legislature a million dollars was voted for the purpose of conducting the campaign. Dr. Dixon, the head of the State Department of Health, and his able lieutenants have entered vigorously into the work. The great results already accomplished are decidedly encouraging. Of the sum appropriated $400,000 is to be used for the establishment and maintenance of county dispensaries and the study of conditions that predispose to the contraction and propagation of the disease. The remainder, $600,000 is to be used for the establishment and maintenance of county dispensaries and the study of conditions that predispose to the contraction and propagation of the disease. The remainder, $600,000 is to be used for the establishment and maintenance of county dispensaries and the study of conditions that predispose to the contraction and propagation of the disease.

Drugs are of little or no value in the cure of tuberculosis. A nutritive diet, living in the open air and rest, are the prime factors. The best the physicians can do is to instruct the patients in these essentials. That is the object of the dispensary; and when the present sufferers and the public in general realize the great good that can be accomplished in that way, the work just begun in Pennsylvania will be regarded as the most invaluable in a humanitarian sense yet undertaken by the State. The dispensary is open every Tuesday and Friday afternoon from 1 to 4 P. M., at office of Dr. H. S. Falk.

Tickling the World.

Laugh and the world laughs with you, is an old and true saying, and if you want to realize the truth of it, just pay a visit to the Emporium Opera House on Friday evening, March 20, and see Jerry from Kerry. You may not find all of the world there, but you will find as many as can be accommodated, and they will all be laughing with you, for Jerry from Kerry is one of the funniest attractions on the road to-day. A superior Concert Band and Orchestra are carried by this Company. Don't fail to hear the free band concert afternoon and evening.

Juvenile Band.

Prof. L. S. Fisk has organized a Juvenile Band with sixteen members, between the ages of 12 and 15 years. If at any time during the day or night you hear a noise, don't get frightened, it may only be one of the boys pounding at the chromatic scale. Mr. Fisk has tried to reorganize the old band, but sufficient interest has not been manifest and he has interested the younger blood. We hope he may be successful and give the town a good musical organization.

Gillette Must Die.

Governor Hughes will not interfere in any way with the execution of the death sentence upon Chester Gillette, convicted of the murder of Grace Brown, of South Otselec, in the Adirondacks in July 1906. The date set for the execution is the week beginning March 30.

Goes to M. E. Conference.

The following Emporium Methodists leave to-day for York, Pa., to attend M. E. Conference as lay-delegates, F. P. Rentz, H. A. Cox, T. B. Lloyd, W. H. Cramer, H. O. Haupt. Chickens will roost high as long as they remain in York county.

We are sole agents for Hart, Shoffner & Marks Clothing. Call and see them at my store.
JASPER HARRIS.

Struck by a Train.

Extra west, engine 465, on March 13th, struck a man about one-fourth of a mile west of Huntley tower, knocking him off the track and breaking his right jaw, besides bruising him badly about the head and body. The injured man was taken to Driftwood on the Buffalo flyer and given in charge of Dr. Corbett for treatment. The man's name was Patrick Glenn, who said his home was in Glasgow, Scotland. With a companion, he was walking toward Sterling Run and mistook the main track for the siding and was injured thereby.
J. F. S.

Suffering from Injuries.

Mrs. A. O. Swartwood has been confined to her residence for three weeks, suffering from injuries received by falling on a sidewalk on West Sixth street. It is a miracle that more of our people are not seriously injured by the horrible condition of the walks in all parts of town. Taxes are high now without paying damages for injuries received by the negligence of our Borough authorities. If the owners of property will not repair their walks the Councilmen violate the law by not posting the legal notice upon the properties, thereby fastening the damages on the property owners.

DEATH'S DOINGS

RUSSELL
James Russell, aged 90 years, of Mason Hill, Gibson township, died last Thursday, the funeral taking place on Sunday afternoon last from his late residence, Rev. Ebersole officiating. His remains were laid to rest by the side of his wife, who passed away about three months ago.

WHITING.

George Whiting, aged 17, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Whiting, of Sterling Run, died at Lock Haven Hospital Monday night after an operation for appendicitis. He rallied from the operation performed on March 8th, but suddenly failed and passed away on the 16th. With him at the time of his death were his father, Milton S. Whiting, and two sisters, Misses Floy and Nellie, and brother Lewis, also his uncles Elmer E. and Edward E. The remains arrived at Sterling Run on Monday evening. The funeral took place yesterday, Wednesday, from the old homestead, at Sterling Run. Religious services were conducted by Revs. Allen and Ebersole both of whom visited him at the hospital.

The deceased was a popular young man and his death is a shock to the family and the large circle of friends.

A Funny Farce Comedy.

Jerry from Kerry which comes to the Emporium Opera House on Friday evening, March 20th, is a hurrah farce comedy, up-to-date and clean. Clever specialties are the features. The company consists of bright lively fun makers. Good earnest work and an evident desire to please makes for this Company a favorable impression. There is a continual round of merriment throughout the performance; new songs; pretty music, charming girls, funny comedians and all the pleasing features one expects to see in a show of this kind. The company includes, many well known and clever artists.

The Patterns, now with the Jerry from Kerry Company, have no superiors in Farce Comedy. There are three of them. All are skillful musicians and their comedy is of the cleanest and highest type. The single, double and triple solos and duets on tuba and euphonium deserves special mention.

The following officers were elected to serve for the next six months: President, Rev. G. H. Johnson; Vice President, W. S. Sterner; Secretary, Miss Verena Hertig and Treasurer, Belle Husted. Miss Alicia Swain gave a very interesting talk on the story of "Rosalind" by Thomas Lodge. After the usual routine business the meeting stood adjourned. The next meeting will be held the second Thursday in April and a full attendance is desired.

The guests arrived one at a time until it finally dawned on them that it was a planned thing. After congratulations were extended, the evening was given up to a general good time. Mr. and Mrs. Strayer were remembered by some very handsome gifts, and after refreshments were served their friends departed for their homes wishing Mr. Strayer and his estimable wife many happy returns of the day. Last Saturday evening the friends of Mrs. J. R. Fetter tendered her a pleasant surprise at her home on Fourth street, the occasion being her birthday. Political Straws.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(Special)—Three times has Pennsylvania presented a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination without success, but this year the Republicans of that state believe that in Senator P. C. Knox they have a candidate who stands a good chance of being accorded the honor.

In 1860 Simon Cameron was Pennsylvania's candidate, the convention being held at Chicago. Mr. Cameron got 47 1/2 of the 54 votes from his state on the first ballot but was then withdrawn and the delegation went to Lincoln.

Gov. John F. Hartraft was the candidate of Pennsylvania in 1876 and the delegation was instructed by the state convention to vote as a unit for Hartraft which was done on the first ballot. But on the second ballot four delegates went to Blaine, though the remainder stood by Hartraft until the seventh ballot when he was withdrawn and Hayes was nominated.

In 1896 Senator M. S. Quay was presented as Pennsylvania's candidate and he received 58 votes from his state while McKinley got six. It was generally understood in this instance that Quay's candidacy was merely for political purposes and that the senator had no idea of being nominated.

In these three instances that Pennsylvania has had a presidential candidate, the vote of the state has been divided. Never before has there been complete harmony in support of a candidate, but the party has been split and thus has weakened its chances of success. This year the circumstances are entirely different. Senator Knox will go into the convention with the 66 votes of Pennsylvania solidly back of him and they will be cast for him not only on the first ballot but on every succeeding ballot. In addition he will have many other delegates, enough to make it plain from the start that his candidacy is an earnest one.

Frank T. Beers Promoted.

Our townsman, Mr. Frank T. Beers, who for several years has been in the employ of the Dupont Powder Company, and for some time general manager of the plant at Emporium, was this week appointed general manager of the Company's extensive operations at Barksdale, Wis., the third largest plant owned by the Duponts. Mr. Beers left yesterday to assume charge of the new position, but will not move from Emporium for the present. This is an important advancement for Mr. Beers and while we regret deeply the removal of Mr. Beers and his excellent family from Emporium, we congratulate him upon the confidence placed in an Emporium boy, whose energy and faithfulness is recognized by this powerful organization. Washburn, Wis., will be Mr. Beers home address. Robt. H. Lyons, assistant Supt., is in charge of the plant at Emporium and his friends hope he may be appointed Supt. He is reliable and careful.

Resigned Position.

Miss Carrie Huff, who has been the faithful chief clerk in Emporium post office for six years, resigned her position to-day and accepted a similar position in the Austin postoffice, leaving this morning to enter upon the discharge of her duties. Austin can rest assured they have secured a sensible and obliging lady, who will "make good" with all classes of patrons. She has the best wishes of the PRESS and all citizens, who regret to have her leave us.

"We Told You So."

Hon. I. K. Hockley, in this week's Independent, states that Judge Hall orders him out of the race for the democratic nomination for Representative, but refuses to go. We always told you so, I. K., when you took orders against your better judgment and hustled to the detriment of Cameron county. You will have to take your medicine, young man! bitter as the dose may be. The last sentence of your letter purports to find out whether the Democracy of Cameron county is owned by I. K. Hockley or Judge Hall has long since been settled in the negative.

Let the band play, "There will be a hot time in the old town this fall." We're up a tree watching the fracas. Police!

Library Reception.

The reopening of Emporium Free Library last Tuesday evening was a highly flattering compliment to the managers, as well as a testimonial of appreciation by our citizens. The program was pleasing to those in attendance. The library is now composed of over 1500 high grade books—no cheap trash—all the liberal donation of Hon. Josiah Howard, the founder and benefactor. Our readers should call at the library and see for themselves this storehouse of knowledge and not wait to be invited.

All candidates voted for at the February election must file their expense accounts to-day, to comply with the law. This is important.

Rev. N. E. Cleaver, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church made his report last Sunday evening to his congregation, showing that during the year $3,360 was raised and paid by the church and Sunday school, after which he preached a fine sermon.

"There is blood on the moon now, says the Port Allegany Reporter. A wide-awake Port Allegany artisan is accused by an irate husband, of monkeying with the effects of his wife, and even to carrying this monkey-business farther." The Reporter is investigating this case to ascertain just how far the artisan was able to go.
