FROM OUR REPORTERS.

HUNTLEY.

C. Wesley Barr, of Tunnel Hill, took dinner with A. W. Smith, of Willowdale, Sunday. Wesley sampled some of the A. W. Smith corn cakes and pronounced them all to the mustard. A. W. says he will begin trucking logs to the mill the latter part of the week.

Darius Ives is moving from the L. H. Smith house on River street to his farm on Grove Hill. W. Ray Smith will move into the house as soon as it is empty and A. W. Smith will move into the house formerly occupied by Ray. The ninth ward will lose a good democrat but will gain a good republican.

The street car killed a valuable dog belonging to D. W. Eastman, Tuesday, just opposite the Supervisors office.

Operator J. H. James is spending a few days with his parents in Warren being relieved by Operator McCartney, of Renovo.

Several of our young ladies are suffering from croup. We never knew that this disease was contagious until W. R. Smith, T. N., pronounced it so.

John L. Johnson, of the east side, spent Saturday with A. W. Smith, of Willowdale.

W. W. Johnson spent Sunday in Sterling Run.

Rev. J. L. Lechman, of Westport, was a guest of J. F. Sullivan Saturday.

Don't forget the oyster supper at William Nelson's Friday evening.

John Henry Johnson, of Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with his parents.

Henry Caldwell, of Sinnamahoning, is visiting with J. E. Johnson.

Margie Weldon, of Mason Hill, visited Gertrude Hill last week.

Elmer Hill, of Grove Hill, was down off the Hill Friday, visiting his sister.

Alice Jordan spent Saturday with her sister in Castle Garden.

A party of our young people called on our popular telegrapher, A. B. Croop, Sunday and enjoyed several selections which he renders so nicely on the mandolin.

CAMERON.

Steve Bunce, of Canoe Run, moved to Sterling Run, Thursday.

Andrew Jenks made a business trip to Emporium Friday.

Mrs. D. Krape and son Earnest visited friends in Driftwood between trains Friday.

Operator F. B. Hoag, who has accepted the third trick at Cameron in the telegraph office, moved his goods from Ridgeway last Saturday and hauled in Tuesday, locating in Isaac Wykoff's house. Frank we are glad to see you and your family locate in our community.

The Penn Vitrified Brick Co's engine made its first trip to town Wednesday, having been laying idle since last fall. This has the appearance of the works soon starting again, which we understand is the case. Glad to hear of it, as the town is about all "in."

Ruby Roemer, who has been teaching a very successful term of school at this place the past winter, left for her home at Brookville, Friday, on account of the illness of her mother. She returned Sunday evening, reporting her mother considerably better.

Operator G. L. Page made a trip to Haling on business pertaining to the I. C. Schools of Scranton, Pa., and reports good success.

A. F. Walker has been housed up for the past week with a severe cold, but is reported at this writing some better.

Joe Yocum is assisting Operator Krape in remodeling some of his line fences. Joe says if it were not for the "dormicks" it would not be such a bad job.

A. A. Smith, of Warren, who has accepted the position of signal repairman at this place, visited his family Sunday. We understand he expects to move here in the near future if he can secure a house.

Representative H. G. O'Hara, of DuBois, of the I. C. Schools, of Scranton, called upon their students in this place Thursday. All students reported doing nicely, and making very speedy progress.

Herman Anderson, section foreman, visited friends in Emporium, Sunday.

The I. C., called an extra session, Saturday morning in the Park opposite the Post Office. Members present: E. F. Conley, Pres.; D. C. Linger, Sec'y.; Henry Morse, Joe Yocum, Geo. Walker, Ed. Stuart, Frank Sullivan, William Wykoff and E. D. Krape, but before the meeting had fairly commenced Dan Sullivan, Sr., appeared and commenced to tell his story about his farm of last summer, which the members thought was out of the order of business, and Danny was quickly kicked out of the park. Before the excitement was over, A. F. Walker came along and endeavored to tell one of his last summer's fishing stories, when he met the same fate, and about that time along came a squad of police and the meeting was disbanded until further notice. It is a pity the police cannot let a quiet organization alone, when they are having a warm time and things do get lived up once in a while.

The Cameron Orchestra, which was recently incorporated, is making very rapid strides toward the top of the ladder, under the careful leadership of John McFadden and George Walker. It is reported being one of the best, for its size and time the boys have started, that is in the community. Boys, glad you are endeavoring to live up this old place again.

Mrs. Harry Vallas, is visiting her sister Mrs. Page this week.

Mrs. G. L. Page, visited her home at St. Marys between trains Monday.

Operator C. U. Lupro, who is the relief operator, spent Sunday learning the work at this tower. He was formerly located at Renovo.

FIRST FORK.

The Gilmore school has been closed for a couple of weeks, the teacher and all of Mr. Swank's folks being down with the mumps. It is to start up to-day, again, I understand.

Several teams belonging to Frank Greco, went up through here Saturday from Sagamore.

The barn of Israel Bailey, at Sinnamahoning, was struck by lightning on Wednesday evening and sat on fire, but was gotten out without doing very great damage.

We hear that LeGrande Wykoff has been appointed Warden over the state lands in this section.

Fred Williams has his sugar bush tapped and is making some fine maple syrup for home use.

The B. & S. R. R., have been running their trains very irregular owing to several land slides up about Hicks Run. The first in a couple weeks or so ago came in and swamped an engine and they had to transfer passengers for several days, and last week three slides came down, with the same result as to transfer.

They got it opened up on Saturday, and it is to be hoped that they will be able to get through now pretty near on schedule time.

John Russell and family leave to-day for their home in Urbana, Ohio, after visiting this winter with John Caldwell and other friends.
