National Delegate.

I notice in the Press of March 26th, that one Lewis Emery aspires to go as a delegate to the Chicago Convention. Now can't he be that this is the same Lewis Emery who attempted to lead the cohorts of Democracy to victory in the Gubernatorial Campaign of 1906? If so he must be the man with the Monumental Cheek. He says that he wants to go to help nominate a man who will represent and put into effect the Roosevelt policies. Now if all Republicans would affiliate with the Democracy, as does Lewis Emery three years out of four it would be useless to nominate a Republican candidate for president, as the party would be so demoralized that there would be no chance to elect. No, Lewis, I think you have made a mistake; you should announce yourself as a delegate to the Democratic Convention. Centre and Clearfield counties present the names of Reynolds and Boulton, both of whom are good men and true. They have the right to claim this as McKean and Cameron have had the Congressmen ever since this district was framed. Lewis you may be a success as a petroleum magnate, in which case you should stick to the oil wagon. As a politician you are a failure and as a Republican you are not it.

M. J. B. BROOKS,
Driftwood, Pa., March 30, 1908.

COLOSSAL IMPUDENCE.

Attempt of Emery to Have Himself Elected National Delegate Rejected.

Curwensville Mountaineer.
A petition has been filed in the office of the county commissioners to have the name of Lewis Emery, Jr., the late Democratic candidate for governor, printed on the official ballot for the election of April 11 as a candidate for delegate to the Republican national convention.

Mr. Emery, who lives in Bradford, McKean county, was added in his desire to be elected national Delegate by a prominent independent Republican of Clearfield who circulated said petition, which requires the signatures of ten qualified Republican voters of this county. Well knowing that his mission was a perilous one, the prominent Independent Republican of Clearfield did not hesitate to obtain signers from the ranks of the Prohibition party, and even went so far as to secure the signature of the Hon. Peter Gearhart, who was the Democratic nominee for Assembly in 1906 and who again seeks the same honor from the party of Jefferson and Cleveland! A salesman who resides in Lycoming county was another signer of Emery's Clearfield county petition!

But the deed is done and now the Republicans of Clearfield county will gaze at the name of Lewis Emery, Jr., on April 11 as a candidate for delegate to their national convention which meets in Chicago next June.

Was there ever impudence so brazen as that possessed by Lewis Emery, Jr.?

Emery, who sought the Republican nomination for governor in 1906, is the same Emery who stumped the State for Robert E. Pattison for governor!

Emery, who professed to be a Lincoln Republican, accepted the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1906!

Emery, who aided the election of Democratic congressmen in 1906, is now asking a great honor from the stalwart Republicans of the Twenty-first district!

Emery, whose fondest hope was to obtain the governorship at any cost, is now crawling back to the camp of Republicanism!

The Press joins with their many friends in extending congratulations.

THOSE WHO PAY.

Trying to collect back accounts on a subscription list gives the editor a good insight into the characters of various people. Our experience in this line have been pleasant, laughable, humorous and exasperating. From our experience up to the present we have divided those paying up into the following seven classes. First, there are those who pay up, add another year's subscription, and tell you how they appreciate your paper and how they would hate to be without it. They are friends. Then there are those who pay up, a year ahead, apologize for making you wait, and thank you for being so accommodating. They are gentlemen. Next come those who pay up and continue their paper. They are square, honest men. In a class below these come those who after paying the editor several dollars of good money that might have pulled him out of many a hole in days gone by when they were first due, tells you he has no personal ill-will against you and your paper for trying to get your money, but that he does not desire it any longer. These are unjust and unreciprocating. In a class by himself comes the man who pays up, as he feels that you are robbing him, tells you your paper is no good, criticizes your methods of doing business and hastens to stop his paper. These are men whose obituaries we would be pleased to write, if it were not for the fact that editors are supposed to say nice things about dead ones. We would dub them soreheads. There is also the man who is important in his day and generation, the man who has been in business and has made a little pile himself and consequently thinks he knows a few things himself, and who tells you that you don't carry on your business properly, points out your errors with florid glee, tells what he would do if he were running a paper, makes a general nuisance of himself and caps the climax by stopping his paper. The man in spite of the fact that by some odd accident he has managed to scrape together a few shekels during his lifetime, we would christen a block head. Finally there is that measly bunch of dead-weights that hamper every business, and add thousands of dollars to the wrong side of the ledger of many an honest man every year, the man who has taken your paper a number of years, but now refuses it without pay. A comprehensive search through the utmost limits of our vocabulary failed to reveal an epithet sufficiently appropriate to this scamp and we expect that he will get his reward by and by.—Ex.

All newspapers publishers and their subscribers, like loyal citizens, must obey fixed laws, says the Towanda Reporter. Many newspaper men fear that they will lose good subscribers because of the new postal law, but we can hardly agree with them. No good subscriber would feel like doing the publisher of his paper an injustice because of the execution of a law with which he had nothing to do whatever in the making. It would be unfair indeed to cause him to suffer any loss thereby. The publisher has surely had his share of loss already, due to the advanced cost of white paper, and everything else he has to buy, without having received anything by way of increase of prices for subscription, advertising rates or job work. In the end we believe the ruling while intended to decrease the expenses and burdens of the postoffice department, will also benefit both publishers and subscribers, provided they accept it in the spirit it is made and give it their hearty support. While we would not have such a regulation, we have got one thing left to do, and that is to accept it.

Election of Corporal in The Boys' Brigade.

An election conducted in military style, under the supervision of Capt. B. H. Bliss of Ridgway, took place in the Boys' Brigade on Monday evening. The captain had announced last week that two corporals would be elected, and the boys were accordingly out in force. A majority vote of the total membership is necessary to an election. As the membership numbers 52, no one could be elected with less than 27 votes. Each corporal was voted for separately. On the first ballot for the first corporal, Gordon Vogt showed a decided lead, but fell seven votes short of a majority of the company. On the second ballot he had the necessary votes and seven to spare. For second corporal three fruitless ballots were held, the contest being very close between Remarge and Kaye. As neither of them received the necessary twenty-seven votes, the election of second corporal was postponed until next Monday evening.

HON. JOSIAH HOWARD.

We aim to be fair to all candidates and while we do not wish to take sides with any candidate before the primaries, yet in all justice we believe that, at this time, we should all unite in nominating and electing Hon. Josiah Howard to the Legislature. He has done more to beautify and build up our town and county than any one else and if the people in making their choice are to be governed by their good judgment as to who is the best man, then Mr. Howard, for character, experience, ability and good intentions to help us all morally, financially and economically is certainly a peer of all other candidates who have filed their names.

Cameron County needs Mr. Howard and needs his ability and influence and we should all help to put him in a position where he can do us the greatest good, both at home and with his friends throughout the State.

We as a county are too small to amount to much unless we work together. United we stand to grow and prosper; divided we continue to stay small. We believe every sensible reader will say that our only state facts when we say that Mr. Howard has all the elements of growth and progress and that both the Republican and Democratic parties should give him a joint nomination at the primaries and an unanimous election this fall.

"The Missouri Girl."

The unvarying success of Fred Raymond's comedy "The Missouri Girl" become proverbial among the theatrical profession and among the Kialto, or any place where actors collect, you will hear the usual remark, "Hasn't he got a gold mine?" The reason is plain, the play is one that creates fun and amusement in large quantities. The company presenting it is composed of the best people in the profession, and the management insists on their best efforts at all times. Five of the present cast have been successful stars at different times. At Emporium Opera House, Thursday evening, April 9th.

Mr. Howard and Mr. Sheatz were co-workers on the election committee which framed the personal registration and uniform primary and elections bills, passed by the legislature in 1906. Mr. Howard received a special invitation to the banquet for the active part he took in helping to nominate Mr. Sheatz for State Treasurer.

DEATH'S DOINGS

Mr. James Mulcahy, aged 69 years, died on Tuesday night of pneumonia, after an illness of several days, at his residence, West Fifth street. The funeral took place this morning, at nine o'clock, from St. Mark's church.

Deceased came to America about forty-five years ago, locating at New York city, where he married his good wife, who survives him. He located at Emporium about forty years ago and entered Emporium Tannery but later years took work with the Pennsylv. R. R. section crew and remained with them until retired. He was a good citizen and kind neighbor. The following relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral: D. J. Mulcahy and wife, Elwood City, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. O'Reilly, P'xusutawney; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mulcahy, St. Marys.
He leaves a wife and one son, Mr. D. J. Mulcahy, a prominent and prosperous citizen of Elwood City, Pa.

Those Rowdies.
Burgess Howard's attention is directed to the rowdism on the streets at night, especially in west ward. Chief Mundy will have to have assistance for a time in order to "round up" the rowdies.

Economy in 1908.
Pure Linseed Oil costs much less sold from the barrel than it does put up in Tin Cans as Mixed Paint—In the first instance you pay 60 cents per gallon—in the second $1.60. Now mix 3 gallons of pure linseed oil with 4 palls L. & M. Paint and you have, ready for use, 7 gallons of the best paint made costing only $1.20 per gallon. Done in 2 minutes. Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium, L. & M. Paint Agent.

A Beautiful Woman.
Her surroundings should be in harmony, and can best be made so by a well kept home. The L. & M. Pure Paint makes the home beautiful. It preserves it and prevents decay. The cost per gallon ready for use is only $1.20. It wears for ten years and longer. Thirty-three years of continuous use is evidence. Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium, L. & M. Paint Agent.
