

Latest County Correspondence.

FROM OUR REPORTERS.

CAMERON.

Dr. W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's shoe store.

The men who have been remodeling the K. G. R. Hall, completed their work Tuesday.

William Wykoff reports good success the past week with trapping.

A. A. Smith visited his family at Warren, Sunday.

Bernard Egan, of Emporium, was seen in town Tuesday on business pertaining to the coming election.

Roy Hazlett and wife, after spending a few days in this place, started for home Tuesday morning accompanied by his sister Mildred.

Mrs. Vallis, of St. Marys, who has spent the past week with her sister Mrs. G. L. Page started for Buffalo Sunday, where she expects to stay for some time visiting relatives and friends in that place.

William McVane has just completed a new fence around his premises, which makes a great improvement on the appearance of his residence.

Operators Hoaz, Krape and Page were relieved last week, each for one day, by Operators Lupro and McCartan.

C. J. Goodnough, of Emporium, and Fred Webster, of Canoe Run, were in town Tuesday.

Ed. McFadden purchased a fine cow from Mrs. Mary Summerson, of Sterling Run, the past week.

A. A. Smith made a business trip to Emporium Tuesday to see about a house, houses being scarce in this place.

Agent Snyder who has a very fine flock of chickens, and has been giving them the best of care the past winter, has just found out he has been supplying Mr. Red Fox with his daily rations in the back yard.

LOUISE

STERLING RUN.

Dr. W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's shoe store.

Roy Strawbridge, of Johnsonburg, was the guest of his brother, Geo. Strawbridge, a few days this week.

The two Misses Summerson, Miss Hazelton and Mrs. Schwab, of Cameron were the guests of Mary Summerson, Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. J. Brooks has been quite ill the past week, is reported better at this writing.

Mrs. Emma Whiting and daughter, returned to Greys Run this week.

Mrs. J. R. Strawbridge was a Cameron visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Smith went to Buffalo for a short visit Tuesday.

Mrs. William Stephens and daughter visited at Sunbury the past week.

William Wing and Lola Hart were married last Wednesday evening. Mrs.

25th, by the Rev. Ebersole. They will make their future home at Fillmore, N. Y.

Mrs. John May is visiting her mother at Newberry this week.

Ernest Housler and son, of North Creed, visited in town Sunday.

Nellie and Gladys O'Keefe spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Ray Dinny was a Driftwood visitor Saturday.

Benj. Dayton and J. H. Darren were Emporium visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Liddle, of Reno, visited her daughter, Mrs. James Furlong, Saturday.

Mrs. C. A. Swartz and children, of Sinnamahoning, visited relatives in town the past week.

Oscar Norburg has purchased the Vosburg farm at Castle Garden.

Mrs. Carrie Herrick, of St. Marys, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

W. L. Thomas, Emporium, the mercantile appraiser, was in town Tuesday.

Lulu Lewis was a business caller in Emporium Thursday.

J. A. Mutterbaugh, of Driftwood, was in town Saturday looking for the nomination of Associate Judge.

Mrs. Bibiana Spangler returned home

Sunday from a week's visit in New York. Mrs. Logue, of Huntley, visited in town the past week.

BLUE BELL.

RICH VALLEY.

Dr. H. W. Mitchell, dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's Shoe Store.

Leon Chadwick and wife, of Emporium, are visiting the former's parents, Tillman Chadwick and wife this week.

Gertrude Housler is very ill with pneumonia at this writing, (Tue-day).

Lost—A man answering to the name of Billy Brown, said man is a tall, slim, heavy, thick set man; was wearing a full dress suit and silk hat when last seen. Any information will be thankfully received at No. 2 Cooks Run Junction.

Floyd Barton and wife visited V. M. Dow, and wife, of North Creek, over Sunday.

H. J. Lewis, of the city, is a guest of Oscar Heath and wife, of Elk Fork this week.

Roy Chadwick and lady of Elk Fork, called on city friends last week.

Frank Swesey moved into Mrs. Geo. Carter's house this week. His present residence the Benj. Swesey homestead, will be razed and a large commodious up-to-date home will be erected on plans drawn by a well known architect.

S. D. Housler moved into D. H. Adams' house this week.

Bertha Wright, of Emporium, was a Valley visitor this week.

Rev. Asgood's household effects arrived here last week. The Rev. gentleman is expected next week.

From what the editor of the Independent has to say in his paper, he must be between the D— and the deep sea. Will the little man never get old enough to learn by experience.

C. M. S.

SINNAMAHONING.

Dr. W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's shoe store.

William Wylie brought in a raft of logs for the Novelty Box Factory last Saturday.

J. F. Sullivan and wife, of Huntley, were trading in town Saturday.

J. B. Council, of Dixonville, was a visitor last week.

Mrs. Geo. W. Batchelder and daughter Eula are visiting at Huntley this week.

Office seekers are quite plentiful these times and are making some very brilliant promises.

A candidate was in town this week who was going to remodel the Republican party. Well maybe he can.

Vila Housler closed a very successful term of school at Wyside, this week.

Evangeline Brooks closed her school at Grove last week with a fine program and quite a number of Sinnamahoning people went down to take in the exercises of the last day.

The reports of our several schools are above the average this term which shows that we have had excellent talent to preside over our schools this term. It pays to have good teachers for young Americans.

The masquerade at the rink April 1st, was grand and lots of fun and the grand march was all right.

Sinnamahoning Lodge No. 1138, I. O. O. F., will install officers on Saturday evening, April 4th. All members are requested to be present.

Lloyd A. McCloskey has resigned his position with Crum Bros. and taken a position in the woolen mills, at Woolrich, Pa.

J. G. Johnson, of Laquin, visited his family over Sunday.

The new Board of Supervisors will meet to organize on April 6th.

Health officer B. H. Mutterbaugh, of Driftwood, was in town Tuesday, attending to the duties of that office.

Sawdust and shavings will soon be flying at the Novelty Box Factory.

C. O. Merrill, of Emporium, moved into the house of Mrs. Isaac Floyd last week.

George G. Gore died very suddenly Monday afternoon, after a short illness of diphtheria. He leaves a wife, mother and three sisters to mourn his sudden death. Owing to the disease being very contagious no funeral services were held but will be held later. Deceased was a young man and well respected by all who knew him. Rev. Conway W. Dickson attended burial services at Wyside Cemetery, Monday night at 9:30.

DEBSE.

HUNTLEY.

Dr. W. H. Mitchell, Dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's shoe store.

Anna Helmbrecht, of Castle Garden, spent Saturday with J. S. Jordan and family.

Clara B. McCloskey, of Driftwood, is spending a few days with the Misses Wylie.

Miss Mattie Collins, of Emporium, spent Sunday with B. J. Collins and family.

Lawrence Smith and wife are the guests of the former's parents this week.

Mrs. Geo. Batchelder, of Sinnamahoning, spent Sunday with her parents, J. S. Jordan and wife.

Elmer Hill, of Grove Hill, was a business caller in Sinnamahoning Saturday.

Sawyer E. D. Parks killed a large snake at the spring Sunday morning. This is the second of the season.

D. W. Eastman spent Sunday with his family in Couderdport.

The oyster supper held at William Nelson's, Friday evening, was a success both socially and financially.

William Wylie and son George rafted their timber to Sinnamahoning on Thursday.

O. L. Bailey, of Sinnamahoning, was a business caller in town Wednesday.

Fresh bread can be obtained from W. H. Logue's store every day—from the Sinnamahoning bakery. Give him a call.

John S. Jordan captured a young "coon" in his trap Friday and is going to keep it and try to domesticate it. He will feed it on W. H. Logue's York State cheese and peanut butter.

Roy Logue, who is employed by the Eric R. R., at Hornell is visiting his parents.

Supervisors L. H. Smith, of the east side, was a pleasant caller on the Press correspondent Sunday. He has already placed the supervisors duplicate in the Treasurer's hands for collection. This is the earliest that the duplicate has been turned over to the Treasurer in many years. Every tax payer can take advantage of the five per cent. discount if he pays his tax before June first. Mr. Smith reports the roads in good condition for this time of year and expects to pursue the work of improving the highways with increased activity.

Herman C. Jones spent Sunday with his parents at Tunnell Hill.

J. F. S.

Ludlams Spring Opening

OF

Millinery Goods

AND NOTIONS

Thursday and Friday, April 1 and 2, '08

Everything New and Up-to-Date

We carry the most reliable and select goods, such as you would purchase were you buying in the cities.

Miss Fisher, of Olean, N. Y.

Will be with us during our Opening with a complete line of HAIR GOODS.