State Forestry Warden Crum, of Sinnamahoning was a caller on friends in town Tuesday.

Darius Ives and Thomas Hill and son, of Grove Hill, were callers in town this week.

W. R. Smith moved from his farm into the L. H. Smith tenement house on River street Thursday. A. W. Smith also moving from Willowdale Camp into the house vacated by W. R. Smith.

William Wykoff, of Cameron, was a business caller in town this week.

Quite a number of our young people, including some married folks have the roller skating craze and are following it to a finish. There is some lively blood in the "old town" yet.

Elegrapher J. H. James spent Sunday with friends in town.

Captain C. Wesley Barr, of the Tunnel Hill Navigation Company, passed our village enroute to Sinnamahoning with a large raft of logs, consigned to the new box factory at that point. As the craft passed the tower, Captain Barr removed his cap and ordered a salute of 21 guns to be fired, which made the mountains resound as if the days of "61" were back again. This class of old time river captains are fast passing away and only a few survivors are left who used to brave the treacherous waters of the West Branch with their crafts. He looks hale and hearty in spite of his many years before the mast. In talking over old times the Captain has kindly given us some of the old songs which the happy rollicking crews used in the old days, one of which we are permitted to publish in this issue: I have shook the hand of Dewey, and of Sampson and of Schley, 'Bob' Evans always tips his cap as me he passes by; And though on inland waters, I navigate for gain, My heart is with the sailor lads upon the raging main.

CHORUS. Reef the rudder! Spank the Boom! Heave Ho! my lads; Heave Ho! Wash the sails with a dusting broom, we're ready let her blow. The Nancy Hanks can stand the storm, her crew can fill the bill, We are the boys that fear no noise; we are from Tunnel Hill. Pine and hemlock, oak and birch, comprise my gallant crafts, They run so nice o'er rift and bar, 'tis a shame to call them rafts; With stately grace they glide along towards the new box mill. No better sailors in the world than those from Tunnel Hill.

CHORUS. Cork the port! Furl the helm! And drop the anchor in? Swad the deck and then "By Heck," we'll call the fiddlers in; And skip the light fantastic toe, away with cares and lills, Then give three cheers for Captain Barr who sails from Tunnel Hill.

THE LILLY.

Dr. H. W. Mitchell, dentist, Emporium, Pa. Over Vogt's Shoe Store.

The funeral services for Abraham Morton were conducted at this place on April 2d by Rev. Lawson and interment made by the side of his wife, who died a little over four years ago. Deceased was 63 years, seven months and 11 days of age and leaves two sons, George, of Austin and Harry of Costello and two daughters, Mrs. James Brooks of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Fred Comley of Cameron, Pa. He died on the last day of March, at the home of his son George, at Austin. He was an old veteran, having enlisted in the Maine Rifles in '63 and served to the end of the war, when he was honorably discharged. Now there are four soldiers buried in the cemetery here, viz: Horace Taylor, John Berfield, Jesse Hart, Abraham Morton.

Mr. Towers of Potter county is moving into Mrs. Wm. Wykoff's farm, Nick Thilegas moving to Medix Run, where he has secured work.

Uncle Jimmie O'Brien was over to Galeton last week and bought a horse, and now the potato ground will turn "tother side up" immediately. He has also the trimmings on the ground for finishing his new house and intends to move in as soon as possible. This will leave the Martindale property vacant.

Mrs. Maud Rukagaber of Austin is visiting at her father's, W. W. Wykoff. It is reported that the State Board of Health has notified the Bayless Pulp & Paper Co., of Austin, not to put any more of its poison into the stream. This is good if true, and hope it may be so.

BLUE BELL.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many an Emporium Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it.

The urine is nature's calendar.

Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Emporium people testify to this. Mrs. E. L. Rendt, living on Fifth street, Emporium, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me. I suffered with a disordered condition of the kidneys for years and the secretions were irregular and painful in passage. I suffered with constant back-ache and pains through my loins and was unable to rest at night on account of these annoyances. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I obtained a box from L. Taggart the druggist. This remedy gave me almost immediate relief. My back does not ache any more. I am able to sleep well at nights and the other symptoms have disappeared. I obtained more relief in a shorter time, from Doan's Kidney Pills than from anything else I ever used. This remedy has my hearty endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Answers. Two ministerial candidates named Adam and Low preached in a Scottish church. Mr. Low preached in the morning and took for his text, "Adam, where art thou?"

He made a most excellent discourse, and the congregation was much edified. In the evening Mr. Adam preached and took for his text, "Lo, here I am!"

His Economy. Father—It's only fair to tell you that I'm pleased with your economy this term. Your requests for money were too frequent last term. Son—Yes, father, I thought so, too, so this term I've had everything on tick.—London Tit-Bits.

Lucky. Smith—Just missed running down an old lady with my auto. Jones—Bah Jove, you're a lucky dog! Smith—Sure. I just had it painted last week.
