Sensible Dog.

"Talking about the intelligence of animals," said young Kanobiter, "why, I have a dog up at the farm that's simply wonderful."
"How so?" said Pitken.
"Why, you see, I was out shooting one day when I found a large, handsome dog lying on the ground moaning with pain. Some ruffian had shot it in the leg. I carried it home, bandaged the wound and finally cured the poor beast. Some months after that I was compelled to travel a lonely road after dark when suddenly Ponto, who accompanied me, growled warningly. The next moment a highwayman stepped out of the bushes and put a pistol to my head."
"Ah," cried the listener. "I see! Thereupon the grateful dog seized the robber by the throat."
"Not at all. The man robbed me as easily enough—took watch, purse, everything."
"But Ponto?"
"Ran off as fast as his legs would carry him. That's the point—don't you see? Animal instinct—didn't want to get shot again." — Illustrated London News

Looking For Light.

"Do you think Bliggins would make a good husband?" asked the conscientious youth.
"Why do you ask?" inquired the girl in surprise.
"Because if you think such a fool as Bliggins could manage it I have a good mind to take a chance myself." — Washington Star.

Insomnia.

"Did you try counting 1,000 sheep, as I told you?"
"Yes, doc. But then I got to figuring what I could get for 'em by the pound at present prices, and after that I just couldn't go to sleep." — Kansas City Journal.

"One Touch of Nature Flakes the Whole World Kin."
When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy who write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by L. Taggart.

For Whooping Cough.
Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will keep the cough loose, expectoration easy and render the fits of coughing less frequent and less severe. It is safe and sure. For sale by L. Taggart.

For Constipation.
L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by L. Taggart.

A Healing Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.
As a healing salve for burns, sores, sore nipples and chapped hands Chamberlain's Salve is most excellent. It allays the pain of a burn almost instantly, and unless the injury is very severe, heals the parts without leaving a scar. Price 25 cents. For sale by L. Taggart.

He Got What He Needed.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.
