WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, May 9, 1908. An epoch-making gathering will assemble in Washingto on May 13th, at which time the Governors of almost every state in the union accompanied by three lieutenants. The National Inland Waterways Commission, the Supreme Court of the United States, and representatives of both houses of Congress will gather in the west room of the White House to participate in a conference, presided over by the President of the United States, and during the six sessions to occur on the 10th, 14th and 15th, will endeavor to formulate a practical programme for the co-operative conservation of the national resources of the nation. With a view to promoting that spirit of good fellowship, which will make greatly for the success of the conference, President Roosevelt will entertain at dinner on the evening before the conference, the Governors, the members of the Supreme Court, the Secretaries of the Interior and of Agriculture, and five distinguished citizens of the United States, namely Ex-President Cleveland, William J. Bryan, J. J. Hill, Andrew Carnegie and John Mitchell. All have accepted the invitation with the exception of Mr. Cleveland, and he has indicated his desire to attend if his health will permit. On the evening of May 14th, Gifford Pinehot, National Forester, will give a large reception in honor of the Governors and other distinguished guests, and on the afternoon of the 15th, Mrs. Roosevelt will give a garden party in their honor, in the White House grounds. Republicans in Washington who are thoroughly familiar with conditions in Ohio, have never felt any serious anxiety concerning the outcome of the election in that State, but certain of the more timid souls have feared that Mr. Foraker's antagonism to the Na tional ticket might militate against Republican success. All such fears, now, however have been dispelled by the extraordinary course of the Ohio Democracy. They have made the error of nominating for Governor, Judge Harmon who has consistently opposed William J. Bryan in the past and who now finds himself a candidate for Governor on a ticket which cordially endorses Bryan. Republicans are asking what will be the effect of Judge Harmon's nomination? Will he swallow Bryan and Bryanism, or will he stand by his own principles in opposition to the platform on which he is nominated? Will the Bryan Democrats of Ohio enthusiastically vote for their anti-Bryan candidate, or will their loyalty to Mr. Bryan prompt them to knife Judge Harmon? In any event, application prompt relief to any form of there will be, in the opinion of Wash-Piles. Soothes and heals. > The marble bust of Abraham Lincoln by Sculptur Gutzon Borglum of New York which has been accepted by the Joint Library Committee and will be given a place in the Capitol building, is a present to the govern ment from Eugene Meyer, Jr., of New York. The head, of heroic size, was sent to the White House in February last for the inspection of President Roosevelt and has remained there untill recently. The President was much pleased with it and Robert Lincoln says of it, in a letter: "I think it the most extraordinarily good portrait of

REAPING BENEFIT.

From the Experience of Emporium People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit of the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Emporium resican be had.

Mrs. Anna Zimmit, living on West Fourth street, Emporium, Pa., says: "I have received a great deal of relief from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered with kidney trouble for years and though I doctored and used numerous and its Leville Leville. remedies I could get no relief. I suffered with bachache, pains through my loins, severe headaches, and a constant feeling of languor and depression. The kidneys were much disordered and the secretions very irregular causing me to arise many times during the night. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box from L. Taggart, the druggist. This remedy gave me more relief than anything I ever used. I am seldom troubled with backache, the kidneys have been strengthened and I feel better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills have been a great help to me and I strangly advise anyone suffering with kidney trouble to use this remedy.

B. G. Stewart, a merchant of Cedor View, Miss., says: "I tell my customers when they buy a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills they get the worth of that much gold in weight, if afflicted with constipation, malaria or billousness."

When the baby is cross and has you worried and worn out when you will find that a little Cascasweet, the well known remedy for babies and children, will quiet the little one in a short tim. Animals at Play.

Cats delight in racing about, but not so often, I think, in circles, as dogs do. They prefer straight lines and sharp turns with the genuine goat jump, This sudden flight into the air, which rs to take place without the ani-I's knowledge or intention, cannot to cat finds the high jump ts prey, but in escaping its hereditary enemy. Brehm records a movement play of young chamols. When in sumperpetual snow they delight to play on it. They throw themselves in a crouching position on the upper end of a steep snow covered incline, work all four legs with a swimming motion to get a start and then slide down on the surface of the snow, often traversing a distance of from 100 to 150 meters in this way, while the snow flies up and covers them with a fine powder. rived at the bottom, they spring to their feet and slowly clamber up again the distance they have slid down.

"The Play of Animals," by Karl

Go to church and hear the pastor, in his pulpit large and wide, tell about the dread disaster that o'erwhelmed the man who lied. It was Colone Ananias, who in days long dead and gone, shocked his neighbors (who were pious) when he put the truth in pawn. Ah, he took the truth and hauled it through the cinders and the slack, and he slugged it, and he mauled it, and he split it up the back; so some bears came up and ate him, at the prophet's stern command, and the generations hate him as they march adown the land. He was cast into a furnace that was full of coal and wood, and he mut-tered, "This will learn us" (for his grammar wasn't good.) In the Red sea's depths he wallowed, with his chariots and men, till a whale came up and swallowed him, and he felt seedy then. Let us therefore shun the fable and the foolish, futile lie; do the best that we are able, camp in heaven by and by.-Emporia Gazette.

The Glory of New York. What other city is there of like size which matches New York in position? It is a seaside city; the salt water laves its feet. As the traveler approaches it he thinks of Venice rising from the sea or is perhaps reminded of ancient Tyre, which "stood out in the sea as a hand from a wrist" and of which the houses were impressively tall. "Impressive" is not too indulgent a word for the skyscrapers of New York—clean faced, simple, original and audacious, they are characteristic of the land and of the people. They are not ugly concessions to utility, but a rather grand adaptation of archite-ture to discussed a property. ture to circumstances. The ancients harassed with dread of piracy, would not have dared to build a city like New York on the edge of a great harbor open to the sea. It is something which the modern world alone could have given us.—London Spectator.

Work of a Burmese Bud.

Instead of a coming out party as we know it, the Burmese girl's entrance into society begins when she has her ears pierced. As soon after this as she feels inclined she selects a husband and goes to live in a home of her own. The home is provided by the man, but it becomes his wife's as soon as they are married. All women, young and old, are addicted to the use of tobacco. women seem to prefer the very a woman on the streets of a village with one of these huge cigars in her mouth and two or three more stuck in Deceitful.

"Men are queer animals," said the pessimist. "They are all more or less deceitful."

"Oh, I don't believe that!" replied the optimist. "I think there are plenty of people who strive to be honest. I do, and I don't give myself credit for being any better than the Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with bilious ness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birming-ham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by L. Taggart.

It Reached the Spot. E. The Most Common Cause of Suffering,

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the rea son that it is the most common of all ills and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief, amd make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by L. THE SUMMER VACATION GUIDE

The summer vacation is the bright spot in the dull routine of the year's work. It breaks the monotony of the daily round, and cheers and invigorates for the strenuous life ahead.

America abounds with delightful summer resorts in valley, on mountain and beside the sea. The Atlantic coast line from Labrador to Cape Hatteras contains the greatest number of resorts devoted entirely to the pursuit of pleasure and health in the world.

One may purchase from Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents excursion tickets to over eight hundred of these resorts, covering all the desirable places from the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the gentle sandy slopes of the Virginia beaches; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; in the wilds of Canada, along the shores of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes.

The famous seacoast resorts of New Jersey-Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Spring Lake, Seaside Park, Beach Haven and others so well known that description is superfluous-are among the most popular and most easily accessible resorts in the country.

The Pennsyivania Railroad Summer Excursion Book, to be obtained of Ticket Agents at ten cents a copy, or of the General Passenger Agents Philadelphia, by mail postpaid for 25 cents, describes them all and gives the rates and stop-over privileges allowed
