The monitor, Florida, was called upon last Monday to furnish a practical demonstration of the effect of a bombardment by modern guns on the internal fittings of a war craft's structure. An attack was made on the Florida in Chesapeake bay by great guns and exploding torpedoes and the experiment was the most sensational ever attempted by the American navy and was a great victory for the steel construction.

SUPREME COURT
DECLARES AGAINST STREAM POLLUTION

Highest Tribunal of Justice in Pennsylvania Upholds Constitutionality of the Purity of Water Law.

MUST PROTECT PUBLIC HEALTH

Owner of Mill From Which Sewage Flowed into the Schuylkill River Is Held Guilty.

Judge Swartz, of the Montgomery county courts, in delivering his opinion said: "The act of the legislature is a police regulation for the protection of the public health. This is a highly beneficial act; it is doing much to promote public health."

Judge Porter, of the superior court, in his opinion said: "The statute was passed in the exercise of the police power of the state. That power undoubtedly extends to all regulations affecting the health, good order, morals, peace and safety of society. All sorts of restrictions and burdens are imposed under this power, and when these are not in conflict with any constitutional prohibition, or fundamental principle, they cannot be successfully assailed in a judicial tribunal. That the preservation of the waters of the state from pollution, involving danger to health, is a proper subject for the exercise of the police power cannot be seriously questioned."

Of widespread importance is the recent decision of the supreme court of Pennsylvania upholding the constitutionality of the act of April 22, 1905, known as the "Purity of Water Law," under which the commissioner of health is given power to protect the streams of the state from pollution.

The case in question was the "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania against Edward Emmers," and had been carried by the defendant from the Norristown county courts to the superior court and then to the supreme court, the decision in each instance convicting the party violating the Purity of Water Law by polluting a stream with sewage.

The defendant is the owner and operator of the hosiery mill situated on or near the banks of the Schuylkill river, in Montgomery county, where he employs a large number of operators. Nine water closets for the use of these employes, sewage from all of which closets was discharged by a single pipe into the Schuylkill river, were declared by the commissioner of health to be a menace to public health, and the defendant was given notice that this discharge of sewage must be discontinued under the provisions of the Purity of Water Law. Failing to comply with the law, the mill owner was prosecuted.

Conductor Assaulted by Hoboes.

At about midnight on Saturday night last, Conductor Crawford stopped his train in the P. & E. yard at Ridgway, and was walking along side of his train from the rear to front, when two men got off the train and demanded of the conductor, "Have you any money?" Mr. Crawford replied, "No but if I had I wouldn't give it to you," whereupon one of the men hit the conductor. The conductor drew his revolver, but had difficulty in getting it to go off, and the hoboes fled so rapidly that they escaped.—Ridgway Record.

Ingersoll on Clover.

In declining an invitation to a Clover club dinner once Colonel Robert Ingersoll wrote:

"A wonderful thing is 'clover.' It means honey and cream—that is to say, industry and contentment—that is to say, the happy bees in perfumed fields and at the cottage gate 'Old Boss,' the bountiful, serenely chewing satisfaction's cud in that blessed twilight pause that, like a benediction, falls between all toil and sleep. This clover makes me dream of happy hours, of childhood's rosy cheeks, of dimpled babes, of wholesome, loving wives, of honest men, of springs and brooks and violets and all there is of stainless joy in peaceful human life.

"A wonderful word is clover! Drop the 'c,' and you have the happiest of mankind. Take away the 'c' and 'r,' and you have left the only thing that makes a heaven of this dull and barren earth. Cut off the 'r' alone, and there remains a very deceitful bud that sweetens the breath and keeps peace in countless homes whose masters frequent clubs. After all, Bottom was right, 'Good hay, sweet hay, hath no fellow.'"
