The Jordan Re-Union.
Another year has rolled around, and we are called upon to chronicle the event of the Jordan re-union, which took place June 20th, 1908. Just a year ago the mother, Mrs. N. D. Jordan and seven daughters, as follows: Mrs. Wm. H. Logue, Mrs. Thos. Logue, Mrs. J. H. Beck, Mrs. John W. Nelson, Mrs. Geo. A. Strawbridge, Mrs. R. J. Miller and Miss Nora all met for the first time at the home of their mother at Sterling Run and had such an enjoyable time, that it was decided that they meet each year, as near that time as was possible. They all agreed to meet at the old homestead at Huntley, but as it has been somewhat neglected they landed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Logue, and had a lively time till, "the male side of the house" realized, as usual, that it was time for luncheon. So it was decided they build a good stout table out in the orchard under the trees. The ladies brought on the good things, and it was not long till every one was doing justice to himself and a jollier, not to say quieter crowd had visited that section for years.

After dinner they all repaired to the home, where Mr. Elmer Hanes was in waiting for a photograph of the happy group. It was a fine day and we trust for a good picture. Not one was absent that attended last year, as the Lord is kind to those who love and serve him. He has not permitted one to be called from the large family. As all were present, mother and seven daughters, and their husbands except one, (Thos. Logue) and sixteen grandchildren.

Pleasant Callers.
The PRESS sanctum was favored by a call on Wednesday from Mr. Edgar Youngman, P. & E. Division Ticket Agent, Williamsport, Pa., accompanied by our townsman, Mr. Thos. Gallagher, for many years the obliging agent for the company at this place. Mess on the P. & E. picking up.

Outing Party.
A jolly outing party, composed of Messrs. E. D. White and wife, F. F. Hilliker and family and Dr. Leon Felt and wife, passed last week on Parker Run, having a great time, eating speckled beauties and enjoying the delightful mountain air.

Hicks Run Crowded.
The residents of Hicks Run never witnessed a larger celebration than was held there last Saturday. Fully two thousand people were present and were well entertained by all the amusements that belong to a Fourth of July celebration. The day was most pleasantly spent by viewing a parade in the morning, followed by speaking and fanatics. Dancing was an enjoyable feature all day and lasted until mid-night. Hicks Run Band furnished most excellent music. For such a large crowd, everything ran along very quietly and in order. The people who had the privilege of attending the celebration, will remember it as a day well spent.

Montgomery—Bradshaw.
A beautiful home wedding took place at Pierson, Fla., June 17, 1908 at 2:30 p. m. when Margaret L. Montgomery and David Bradshaw were united in marriage. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper, who are close friends of the bride and groom.

The parlor was tastefully decorated in green, with a touch of color here and there. Pink and white, these being the bride's colors.

To the strains of a beautiful wedding march rendered by Mrs. J. Pitt Felt, the bridal party entered the room around which were grouped loving friends waiting to witness this the crowning event in the lives of their two friends.

Miss Jessie Pelton and Mr. J. J. Peterson, officiating as bridesmaid and best man, entered the room first, separating and taking their places at either side of the bridal arch. They were followed by the bride and groom, who stopped under the arch. The bride was prettily gowned in a princess dress of white silk crepe de-chene and carried a lovely bouquet of brides roses. The groom wore conventional black. The solemn Presbyterian ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. B. Knapp of DeLand.

After our two friends were united for better or worse they faced those present to receive their blessings and congratulations which were never given with more love and fervor than to these young people who had united their joys and sorrows. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Pitt Felt of Emporium.

After congratulations the party adjourned to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with asparagus fern, pink and white oleanders. After a delightful repast the party repaired to the parlor where a social hour was pleasantly passed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw left on the 8:15 train for DeLand where they will reside for a short time. The bride's traveling dress was a jacket suit of old rose trimmed in brown, with hat and gloves to match.

The bride is a lovely young lady whom we were pleased to have with us the greater part of last winter. Her home is in Emporium, Pa., but we of Pierson and Emporia, Fla., feel that we have some claim on her too. She was a general favorite where ever she went and while we wish her all the joys and as few of the sorrows of life, we cannot help but feel sad at her parting.

The groom has made his home at Daytona, Fla., for the past few years, though the early part of his life was spent in Pierson. He is a popular young man and has many friends, both in Pierson and Daytona. They will make their future home at Daytona, Fla., where the groom has a position as an architect.—DeLand (Fla.) New.

Mighty Hunter Wykoff.
Isaac William Wykoff, of Cameron, the trapper and hunter, was a PRESS visitor on Monday and gave us the result of his winter's trapping and hunting, viz: 102 Muskrats, 19 Mink, 12 Coons, 4 Weasels, 1 Wild Cat, 1 Otter, 4 Foxes and 11 Skunks. In addition to his trapping during recent years he reports 69 bear as the record of his hunting during the years he has followed his life in the woods. Mr. Wykoff is now 73 years old and thinks his record will beat any other in Cameron county, unless it be Fred Yentzer. Who can beat his record.

Not Only Mother But Father Love

Some weeks ago, an application for a child reached THE DELINEATOR, which is conducting an active campaign for the placing of homeless children in family homes. It was signed with the writer's surname and the initial of the Christian name, and the reply was directed "Mrs.—." An answer came promptly:

"There is no Mrs.—, and I suppose that settles it. Why a man, sane, sensible and of good character, should not want to have about him a little child, even though he be unmarried, passes beyond my comprehension. I am a bachelor and I want to adopt a boy, but I suppose the rules will forbid."

There has been a good deal written about dormant mother-love, but the fact that there is a sentiment as father-love seems to have kept well in the background.

Yet it would be a poor country that confined its sentiment to its women. The natural emotions are the inheritance of both sexes, even if it is but one which has the courage to confess them.

Mission Work.

Mr. H. O. McClarran, of Bradford, who is doing mission work was a PRESS caller last week and stated that he had held meetings in the lumber camps of J. E. DuBois, conducted and managed by Messrs. Taylor, Lantz and Kelley. Meetings held the previous Friday, Saturday and Sunday were attended by about four hundred men. A Sunday School was organized in the Lantz Camp.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., July 11th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Street Paving.

Shall Emporium abate the mud nuisance and pave Fourth street thereby putting a stop to squandering thousand dollars of the people's money, continues to agitate our citizens. Those opposed to public improvements—unless some one else foots the bills—are conducting a gum shoe campaign against the paving project and making many untruthful, as well as ridiculous, asertions.

All live towns are rapidly paving their streets, thereby giving employment to scores of idle workmen. Stop being "knockers," put your shoulders to the wheel and help build up Emporium. When the Council acts upon this petition let it be for paving. There never was a public improvement project yet advocated but some objectors appeared. Don't be a clam:

Sizerville Mineral Springs.

Sizerville Mineral Springs, one of nature's health resorts, with its well equipped hotel, is now ready for guests. Hon. F. H. Councilman has spared neither time or money to make this place suitable and comfortable for the entertainment of his guests. It is unnecessary to say anything in regards to the medicinal qualities of the mineral water of this great resort, as it is known far and wide, but with a fine hotel situated there where you may have baths, either hot or cold. The water will do more good for those afflicted than in the past. Board can be secured by the day or week and the table is set with the best the market affords, well cooked and plenty of it. The Councilmans are well known as a very hospitable people, anyone becoming a guest of theirs will be well entertained in putting it mildly. Let every one take advantage of this fine resort and visit it often, drink plenty of the water and partake of some of the sumptuous meals at this elegant hotel and you will feel better natured toward all your fellowmen.

Hitchcock is the Man.

HOT SPRINGS, VA., July 7.—The executive committee of the Republican national committee will meet here to-morrow, and from present indications there will only be a brief session, at which Frank H. Hitchcock will be elected chairman and Representative McKinley of Illinois will be made treasurer of the national committee.

Back From the Farm.

Editor Hockley returned yesterday from visiting at his old home on the farm near Muncy, Pa. He is all filled up and "smeared" all over with spread. After he is at home over night his better half will go after him and clean him up in shape for the season's wear.

The Fourth at Port Allegany.

One of the largest celebrations ever held in Port Allegany was last Saturday, when the Ever Glorious was celebrated with all that vim imaginable. The streets were thronged from early morning until late at night and every one present was endowed with the true spirit of patriotism. The program was well taken care of and everything ran off smoothly. Port Allegany is well known as a very hospitable place and made good her reputation on the day of days in our national history. The Mountaineer Hose Company, of this place, attired in their white suits, with Joseph Burnside as foreman, made a very creditable appearance with thirty men in line. Taken as a whole the day will long be remembered by every one present.

From Colorado.

Our esteemed friends, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Groves, who reside at River Portal, Col., where the Dr., is located for the benefit of his health, sends us the Denver Sunday Times, of June 21st, containing an interesting description of the town, written by William Atherton Du Puy. In order that our readers may know what great work this government is doing, we publish the article, which is headed, "Sunshine Only Twenty Minutes a Day".

There is a thriving, bustling town in the West where the rays of the sun are felt only twenty minutes out of every twenty-four hours. River Portal, in the Gunnison Canon in Colorado, is the town, and the beetling precipices that overhang it, leaving only a strip of blue above, are responsible for the briefness of the sunshine.

It is a town of romance from the viewpoint of endeavor and accomplishment, and the task on which its inhabitants are engaged is like that accomplished when Hercules turned the River Styx into the Augean stables and cleaned them. But here it is a roaring mountain torrent that is to be turned into a tunnel pierced six miles under a mountain of solid rock, that its floods may spread out on the deserts and make them fertile for American farmers. Uncle Sam himself is back of the enterprise and has built the town. Five years ago Gunnison Canon was an unsolved mystery. At its upper end, where it entered a gorge with perpendicular cliffs rising three thousand feet, men had looked into its frothing rapids and turned back. Twenty-four miles below, the canon became again accessible, and men had come and watched the waters tumbling down from above, and had found no way of ascent.

At the upper end had been built the strongest rafts that men knew how to put together, and these had been started through the gorge. Those below had watched for and rescued fragments of these rafts. In this land of adventure two dare to attempt at running the canon for the mere love of the danger; but their bodies were broken to pieces on the rocks.

Such were the conditions when engineers of the Reclamation Service looked on the Gunnison River running to waste, and calculated its value if it could be transferred to the other side of the mountain and spread over the level plain. Here the Uncompahgre was under control; but it was insufficient to accomplish much toward reclaiming the great stretches of land available.

But engineering skill was brought to bear, and the thing is being done. Men were let down on scaffolds with block and tackle over cliffs half a mile high, to take observations of the stream and finally a party was fitted out on pneumatic rafts and succeeded in getting through the canon. Half way down they found a nook from which, in the course of erosion, a great block of mountain side had tumbled into the stream and been eaten away. From this point it was decided that the tunnel should be sent through the mountain, and the town for the men that did the work should be established in the cove.

So River Portal came into existence. It has to-day five hundred people, who boast of a civilization and opportunities that will compare favorably with any town of its size in the East. The men that are building the tunnel have brought their families to dwell in the eternal shade of the canon. Uncle Sam also maintains a hospital for the care of his sick, and a library where the inhabitants may read the best and latest newspapers, magazines and books. There is a well equipped public school, an electric lighting plant, and a pumping plant for the village water supply. Terraces have been leveled for the houses, which rise one above the other up the mountainside. The stream has been crowded back as far as possible toward the opposite bank, and land built up for other buildings. A government road has been cut from the solid rock of the mountain, and pitches into the canon at a grade of twenty-four per cent.

The sun rises at eleven twenty each morning and sets twenty minutes later; but the men need no sun, as they are at work underground, and it could never reach them.

Millinery, Half Price.

It is our policy not to carry goods over to another season, therefore we do not consider cost price on Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats. Large silk roses were cheap at 50c per bunch, now 25c.

An Old Timer Here.

Mr. James M. Vorsehe, of New York, accompanied by his wife and daughter are guests at the New Warner. Mr. Vorsehe resided in Emporium in 1866 and 1867 and was employed as night telegraph operator. The gentleman made the PRESS office a visit and inquired for many of the old timers. He left Emporium in the fall of 1867 and crossed the plains before any railroad was constructed and was with Sheridan and Custer during the Indian War of 1868. Mr. Vorsehe is engaged in promoting a smelting patent.

Pic-Nic.

The students of the Emporium Summer Normal, held a pic-nic at Sizerville, June 27th, the following members being present: Alvira Farr, Flora Schlect, Jossie Card, Margaret Nickler, Alice Quigley, Bessie Whaley, Gertrude Swesey, Nellie O'Keefe, Ruby Heideck, Clara Edwards, Anna Welsh, Olive Malloy, Margaret Weisenflah, Avis Lane, Jane Glenn, Gladys O'Keefe, Mabel Edwards, Rose Ganey, and Mrs. E. F. Zwald chaperon.

The recent improvements made on this pretty resort, render it a very good place for a day's outing. The girls realized this at a glance and all began to enjoy the day. The first thing in order being a ball game, proposed by the four champion players, Rose Ganey, Alice Quigley, Flora Schlect and Margaret Nickler. The score being a tie—4-4, which showed the great ability of the players on both sides. After the game all partook of a bounteous spread, the table being beautifully decorated with June roses.

Messrs. Councilmen kindly invited the party out for a spin in their autos. Of this grand opportunity all took advantage except one, the cause being due to reaction from an overwhelming appetite which could not be satisfied in due time for an auto ride. After taking several snap shots all departed, carrying with them a lasting impression of the place and the genial hospitality of the people.
