Honest Americans.
A note going the rounds of the papers states that on his first visit to the United States a German Manufacturer was the guest of a kinsman in New York. He expressed surprise when a few days after his arrival he saw a number of men help themselves to papers at an unattended news stand where some men laid down the exact price of their purchase, others made change for themselves and still others walked away without paying.

The cashier gave the couple a hasty glance and said: "All right, I'll take a chance," and the men started for the street. At the door a right-about-face was executed, the check was paid, a good cigar was handed to the cashier to whom the plot was revealed, and the German exclaimed "Grossartig!"
Well every one knows that in the minor details of every day private life the American is about as honest as any mortal on earth. This gives encouragement that the vast amount of private honesty will force general honesty in politics and manufacturing.

It is a question if this latter is doing as much harm to the body politic as corruption in public places. It is said that there is nothing so successful as success. Now when the average man sees that in the matter of adulterated goods the maker waxes fat in wealth, he is tempted to do likewise, and so we find the farmer, generally conceded honest, coloring his butter, putting a preservative in his milk, placing the biggest fruit on the top of the barrel or basket, offering stale for fresh eggs and so on to the end of the list.

In addition to this, we find the workman trying to give the least service and active only when the employer's eye is on him. So it seems that it is only in certain minor things like paying for a paper when it is a matter of honor, the reader having helped himself at a stand, or liquidating a restaurant bill, are we honest, while there is so much general taking advantage of another in the greater affairs of life that it is reflected in our public life.

Given a people perfectly honest in every detail of business and every relation of life and it goes without saying that all politics will be pure. Like person, like government.—Lancaster Examiner.

Bryan's Plan of Campaign.
With the selection of Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, as chairman of the National Democratic Committee, Mr. Bryan's plan of campaign becomes clear.

He has placed an astute New York manager in charge of the practical work of the contest before him. Mr. Bryan, as in the past, will devote himself to the Central West, where his personal strength is great. Mr. Mack is a trained man of affairs, knowing the politics of New York like an open book, schooled by the experience and knowledge of the newspaper publisher and editor and familiar with every possible combination between Tammany Hall in New York City and the Democracy of New York State from Buffalo to Harlem River.
He knows the country at large and can direct general effort outside of the State. He is near Ohio and knows that State, Indiana, the Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, John W. Kern, will be responsible for, with Thomas Taggart to aid, familiar with every device by which votes can be rolled up in the southern Democratic end of the State. The great States west of Indiana are to be reached by bold appeals to current discontent, Indiana, New York and its adjacent States are to be attacked by shrewd political management and manipulation, of which Tammany Hall will be the center, and Norman E. Mack the director. The name and fame of that old and ferret leader, Henry Watterson, is enough for the South, already secure.
This is an astute plan. It will call for every Republican effort to meet it. In the East there is a too prevalent impression that Republican triumph is certain. The open odds are in its favor. Judge Taft grows on the country daily. But much remains to be done. In spite of such revival of business as has come, there is still an array of unemployed, whose votes are certain to be influenced by lack of work and wages. A period of depression is always unfavorable to the party in power.

These things can be met and will be met. The sober and final judgment of the American people will elect William H. Taft President, but his choice calls for a determination as vigorous, as widespread and as well organized as any by which the Republican party has won in the past. Its one great peril in this campaign is the over-confidence of its supporters.—Philadelphia Press.

GIVING OUT.
The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Emporium.
Around all day with an aching back; Can't rest at night;
Enough to make any one "give out." Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.

They will cure the backache; Cure every kidney ill.
Mrs. Geo. Zwack, living at 206 N. St. Marys St., St. Marys, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills entirely eradicated my headaches and since using them my back is a great deal stronger. I had used many different remedies without results previous to using Doan's Kidney Pills. My back ached so badly that no position I assumed was comfortable. My health was gradually running down and I felt very miserable when Doan's Kidney Pills came to my attention and I procured a box. They proved to be the remedy I required and after taking two boxes I was again well and strong. Doan's Kidney Pills were most satisfactory in my case so I can recommend them to others."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.
After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctor's fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by L. Taggart. Samples free.

Your Age by Mathematics.
"Ahem," said the king, "I have an interesting sum for you; it is a trial in mental arithmetic. Think of the number of the month of your birth."
Now, the professor was 50 years old, and had been born two days before Christmas, so he thought of 12, December being the twelfth month.
"Yes," said the professor.
"Multiply it by 2," continued the king.
"Yes."
"Add 5."
"Yes," answered the professor, doing so.
"Now multiply that by 50."
"Yes."
"Add your age."
"Yes."
"Subtract 365."
"Yes."
"Add 115."
"Yes."
"And now," said the king, "might I ask what the result is?"
"Twelve hundred and 60," replied the professor, wondering.

"Thank you," was the king's response. "So you were born in December, 60 years ago, eh?"
"Why, how in the world do you know?" cried the professor.
"Why, retorted the king, from your answer—1260. The month of your birth was the twelfth and the last two figures give your age."

Over Thirty-Five Years.
In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by L. Taggart.
