State Will Get Every Dollar. "The commonwealth of Pennsylvania will get every dollar of the money it had on deposit in the Allegheny National Bank, of Pittsburgh, when it closed its doors."

It will get it with interest, too, and within a short time, possibly two or three weeks," said State Treasurer John O. Sheatz last evening.

Mr. Sheatz had just returned from Pittsburgh, having been successful in making arrangements to recover for the state every penny of the $523,000 which the commonwealth had on deposit in the Allegheny National Bank.

Mr. Sheatz expects that the money will be paid over at one time and that the account which has been carried as suspended almost from the day he took office will be finally closed within two or three weeks.

He is apparently very glad that the money will be recovered without the long delay or annoyance of action against the signers of the bonds who had a dispute as to liability.

It is understood here that the bank has already collected enough money to meet all its obligations and that the deposit will all be paid in full.

burg Telegraph, Thursday.

Billy Bryan Spiked. Candidate Bryan in his desperate effort to keep a hitch on his platform just tight enough to slide off when the situation suits his case, is getting some hot spikes in his air bag.

"Certainly enough, as Mr. Chaplin's letter was being copied, confirmation of Mr. Chaplin's declaration was being received from Stuart C. Leake, the Southern railroad man. Mr. Leake is the commercial agent of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad. He has been a Democrat all his life.

I shall vote for Mr. Taft this year, he said and railroad men generally, in the South so far as I am able to get at their news, will do the same.

"Another announcement which pleased the candidate came from Wyndham R. Meridith of Richmond, who is president of Virginia Barr association which met here to-day. He is also a lifelong Democrat.

But I shall vote for Mr. Taft, he declared to-day, and a large majority of the conservative element of the Democracy not only in Virginia, but all through the South, will vote the same way.

New Music For Our Readers. "I'LL COME BACK WHEN THE AUTUMN LEAVES ARE FALLING."

Composed by Carl O. Peterson. This is one of the greatest song hits of the year and is sung nightly in over 300 theatres throughout the United States by the most popular singers and is always greeted with great applause.

The chorus is in march time and is very catchy.

CHORUS. I'll come back when the autumn leaves are falling.

I'll come back to you again; In my heart there will always be a calling.

For you, dearest, just the same. Do not cry, do not worry, little sweetheart.

For it fills my heart with pain; I'll come back when the autumn leaves are falling.

I'll come back to you again. The regular retail price of this great song is 50 cents per copy.

By special arrangements with the publishers OUR READERS will receive a copy post-paid by sending 15 cents in postage stamps to THE GLOBE MUSIC CO., No. 1155 Broadway, New York.

N. B.—For Church Entertainments sixteen beautiful moving picture slides can be obtained by addressing the publishers.

REAPING BENEFIT. From the Experience of Emporium People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors.

The public utterances of Emporium residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Fall Fashions for the School Girl. There must always be a good-looking tailored suit that can be worn with a lingerie waist or a pretty silk blouse for church-shopping, matinees and informal teas in the wardrobe of the school girl, says the September Delinquent.

The little girls wear straight plaited skirts with bretelles or suspenders, and double-breasted box-coats that are childish looking in spite of being tailor made.

The older girls wear the smart single-breasted coats with a pointed outline at the bottom, which gives the figure a graceful little dip. The plaited skirt is prettier than the gored one for this kind of a suit.

If the Autumn tailor-made is to be worn again in the Spring, choose a color that will look well in warm weather; navy or royal blue is good for either season—so is golden brown or smoke-gray or a pretty check.

For every-day wear throughout the school year, there is nothing prettier for a girl, whether she is eight or eighteen, than the regulation sailor suit in dark blue serge.

In fact, many boarding schools require it during school hours, and the effect produced by it when it is worn by all students is very pretty.

For the warm days in the Autumn and the long stretch of hot weather in May and June, a girl should have plenty of simple tub dresses. Even the six and eight cent wash fabrics make up prettily and keep a girl sweet and fresh looking, without involving any great expense.

The princess or semi-princess jumper dresses and the separate jumper joined under a belt to a pretty skirt are the neatest kinds of dresses.

For rainy days there should be a walking skirt, a flannel waist or two and a long stormcoat. There is the sweater or jersey for out-door sports, and the gymnasium suit required by most schools.

These things complete the list of the ordinary daytime outfit. For the dinner hour, white serge or cloth, etamines and voiles in pale blues and pinks, or dainty Dresden silks make appropriate little dresses that can be worn Fall, Winter and Spring.

These dresses need not represent any great expenditure—in fact, they should be most simple, and their beauty should lie in their daintiness and freshness.

The younger children will need a greater supply than the older girls, for they are always meeting with calamities.

On the other hand, the older girl will need an evening wrap, a pretty dancing frock or two of batiste or tulle, as well as a suitable reception dress.

There are dances and promenades, glee-club concerts and formal dinners, that will require pretty dresses from time to time during the year.

The more complete the outfit, the keener will be the girl's enjoyment of her school life.

Libby Prison Diarrhoea Relieved. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes:

"Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old Libby Prison diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick."

I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23d Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except Libby Prison diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once."
