DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases are too Dangerous for Emporium People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Emporium.

Mrs. William Swartz, living on Maple street, Emporium, Pa., says: "I suffered for a long time with dull nagging backaches and pains through my loins, so severe at times that I could hardly attend to my work. Every move I made caused me severe pain. I was unable to rest at night and in the morning would be worn out and tired. My kidneys were very active and the secretions caused me much annoyance and embarrassment. I used many remedies but was unable to obtain relief until a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured this remedy from L. Taggart, the druggist, and used them in accordance with directions. The backache and pains quickly vanished, the kidneys were strengthened and my general health was improved. I am indeed grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit received from their use and heartily recommend them to kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

English Spavin Liniment removed Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses; also Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, King Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, Swollen Throats, Congas, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. A wonderful Blemish Cure. Sold by L. Taggart, druggist. 32-1yr

On a New Footing.

Mr. Absalom Foote, an eccentric old gentleman who had grown tired of life in the city, decided to move to some smaller town, free from the roar of traffic, the bustle and confusion of the thronging multitude, where he could end his days tranquilly, as became a man of his age. In casting about for a location, his eye chanced to light upon the advertisement in a village paper of one Thomas R. Foote, who wanted to dispose of his boot and shoe store at a bargain, having made up his mind to remove to the city.

"That's the very thing," he said. "Selling shoes is a nice easy occupation. It will give me just enough to do to keep me from stagnating, and it won't wear me out with overwork. I'll investigate it. It's queer, though, that his name is Foote, my name is Foote, he wants to come to the city and I want to go to the country."

A visit to the little town decided him. He liked its appearance and location. He was pleased, moreover, with "Foote's Shoe Store" and bought it, good will and all, at a bargain.

"Well," said the other Mr. Foote, "you won't have to change the sign."

"No," he answered slowly. "I'll just add a little to it."

The next day he added this, just below the sign: "This place has changed feet."

A Psychic Phenomenon.

An extraordinary incident is connected with Professor von Herkmer's famous painting, "The Last Muster," which was the picture of its year at the academy.

One morning soon after the exhibition was opened the artist was astonished to receive a letter from a lady, a perfect stranger, who said she was not aware until she saw "The Last Muster" at the academy on the previous day that her mother, then dead, had ever sat to the professor for her portrait.

Now, the figure in the picture was painted solely from imagination, and the artist hastened to explain this fact to his correspondent. She thereupon asked for an appointment and took an oil painting of her mother, asserting that it was a faithful representation of that lady.

The academician was astonished to perceive that he had really portrayed on his own canvas a facsimile of the figure in this other painting, although it was that of a woman whom he had never seen in his life.—London M. A. P.

Shipwrecks and Courts Martial.

The custom of holding courts martial in the British navy after every case of shipwreck has a curious origin. In 1741 the Wager, one of Commodore Anson's vessels, was wrecked off the coast of Chile, most of the crew being saved. The men and some of the junior officers held that they were no longer amenable to discipline because their pay ceased with the wreck, but the captain, whose name was Davy Cheap, differed, treated them as mutineers and shot one of his midshipmen. He was then deposed, and most of the crew made off in three of the boats. Later when it was proposed to proceed against the so-called mutineers the officers of the crown decided that the men had been correct in their view. This discovery led to the framing of section 91 of the articles of war, which provides that in the case of shipwreck, destruction or capture by the enemy a ship is held to remain in commission pending inquiry by a court martial.

The Pigs of Brittany.

"Brittany is all right," the traveled man said cautiously, "but beware of the pigs there. The Breton pig is not fat and indolent like ours. He is as lean and fiery as a wolf and twice a wolf's size. All over Brittany you see him, swaggering up and down the white roads in search of roots, berries, frogs, anything—for he must forage for himself—his master never feeds him. Step out of his way, or he will snarl and leap at you."

"The Bretons are great drunkards. Sometimes they fall asleep beside the road. They awake with a sharp pain in the arm or leg, the pain of a hungry hog's teeth."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Picture Story.

Two hunters are seen walking all over the moving picture.

They think they are following bear tracks. Suddenly the foremost hunter stops with a start.

"By gum," he shouts, "them ain't bear's tracks at all; them's the slide man's dirty thumb marks."—Bohemian Magazine.

The $1,500 Kind.

"Ah, that's pretty!" said Mr. Snooks, looking over a number of architectural designs. "What is that?"

"That," said the architect, "is a $1,500 bungalow."

"What will it cost to buy it?" asked Mr. Snooks.

"About $8,000," said the architect.—Judge's Library.

A Redhot Flood.

An example of mixed metaphor was heard at a seamen's meeting at South Shields, an enthusiastic speaker urging the crowd to "take the tide by the flood and grasp it red hot."—London Chronicle.

The Secret.

Blobs—There is only one thing a woman loves better than to be told a secret. Shobs—What is that? Blobs—To find it out for herself.—Philadelphia Record.

Beautiful this thought and beautiful the language wherewith Sir Philip Sidney gave it expression, "They are never alone who are accompanied by noble thoughts."

NOTES OF INTEREST.

James Hobson will erect an addition to his home on West Creek. The new building will be built of stone and brick.

Harper's Weekly has discovered nineteen railroad presidents who 27 years ago were either machinists, telegraph operators, water boys on trains or other wage earners.

John C. Lane, of Renovo, a brakeman on local freight No. 93, had his leg broken while attempting to board his train at Ridgway last week, by being struck by the platform at the freight depot.

In buildings, equipment and reputation, the Lock Haven State Normal School is the equal of the best. Its graduates are the best advertisement. To those who are thinking of becoming teachers, it is an ideal school. The Fall term begins Sept. 7th. Send for its catalogue to the Principal.

If you are thinking of going to a Normal School this coming year, it will be to your advantage to patronize a well established and thoroughly reputable school. The Lock Haven State Normal School meets these requirements. The Fall term begins Sept. 7th. A catalogue will be sent upon application to the Principal.

Fire Wednesday morning of last week destroyed the Merrill house at Dents Run, causing a loss of $15,000. All the guests escaped in safety, although some of them lost a part of their clothing. The fire was discovered by the crew of a B. & S. freight train which was passing through the place. The train was stopped and the crew aroused the people in the house and tried to fight the flames.

The Hyde & Douth lumber plant at Grandin, near Eagle Rock, was practically destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The saw mill, planing mill, general store, ice house and 1,000 ties were burned, entailing a loss of $25,000, on which there was $23,000 insurance. Millions of feet of lumber and a large boarding house was saved only through the assistance rendered by the Oil City firemen. The loss to the company is made comparatively light through the fact that their lease expires during September.

If the old brindle cow should get out many a daddy would walk the streets half the night for her, but let a 12 year old boy or girl fail to show up parents retire for the night, in a good many cases, without an anxious thought. We dare not be hopeful over the future of the human race as long as the fathers and mothers think more of rounding up a $50 cow than they do of corralling their sons and daughters at a reasonable hour in the evening.—Ex.

According to Government reports there were 55,402,336,113 stinking cigarettes consumed in the United States last year by 25,000,000 smokers, it is said. Which means in round figures that about three times as many more American citizens who do not smoke, but detest the rank smelling cigarette have had their olfactory sense outraged 55,402,336,113 times, which is a very conservative estimate, as it is safe to say that no where near one-third of the citizens of this country are in the habit of smoking those abominations. So those staggering billion figures can be multiplied several times without trenching on the truth a particle. A sad commentary on the good sense of the American people.

How to Live on $5.

Libby Prison Diarrhoea Relieved.

Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old Libby Prison diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23d Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except Libby Prison diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by L. Taggart.
