Emmanuel Church Notice. Sept. 6, 12th Sunday after Trinity: 10:30 a. m., Mid-day celebration of the Holy Communion. Second sermon in series on Our Lord's Healing Ministry. 7:30 p. m., Evening Prayer and Sermon. Choir. Badly Expressed. In Grant-Duff's "Notes From a Diary" it is told that when Landseer, the great animal painter, was presented to the king of Portugal his majesty said: "Ah, I am so glad to see you! I always like beasts!" Trouble Ahead. Parke—Old man, we've known each other for years, and it does seem strange that our wives have never met. Don't you think it would be a good idea to bring this about? Lane—Seems to me that's rather a hard way of doing it. "Doing what?" "Getting rid of each other."—Life.

SHAKE IT OFF. Rid Yourself of Unnecessary Burdens. Don't bear unnecessary burdens. Burdens of a bad back are unnecessary. Get rid of them. Doan's Kidney Pills cure bad backs; Cure lame, weak and aching backs; Cure every form of kidney ills. Foret Hopper, Broad St., Port Allegany, Pa., says: "My estimation of Doan's Kidney Pills is of the highest, for they gave me great relief from backache. I suffered constantly with this trouble for some time and it was accompanied by a lameness across the loins which made me unable to stoop without receiving sharp thrusts of pain. The kidney action also gave me much trouble, especially during the night and was accompanied by pain during passage. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, the backache has entirely disappeared and the trouble with the kidney secretions has been corrected. For the results received, I have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and do not hesitate to recommend them to any one suffering in the same manner." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Traveling Man Received the Thanks of Every Passenger in the Car. "I must tell you my experience on an East Bound O. B. & N. R. R., train from Pendleton to LeGrands Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car. I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, so bad in fact that I was almost afraid to take the risk; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it,) ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; that I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into LeGrande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into LeGrande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car.' A Definition of 'Definitive' This word when linked to an article, which merits its use, says: "Madam, beyond this there is nothing to attain." Such a word and such a word only can properly be used to describe Eaton's Hot-Pressed Vellum. Money cannot buy a better writing paper, for experience cannot produce one. H. S. LLOYD.
