For Vice President,

W. D. PORTER, of Allegany County.
For Congressman,
CHARLES F. BARCLAY,

For County, Auditors,

T. E. FULTON. GEO. A. WALKER, JR.

Congressman Barclay eminently deserves a re-election by an increased majority. He is one of the hardest workers in Congress and looks well to the needs of his district.

Hon. Josiah Howard unselfishly labors for the true advancement of every section of Cameron county. Keep him in the Legislature where his honest and stabborn fight for the right is appreciated. That he will be elected by a large majority none dispute.

Frank G. Judd is a careful business man, honest and upright. As Sheriff he would give the duties of the office every attention. He has been faithful to every trust imposed upon him. Vote for him.

Taft and Sherman are serenely floatng along with the mighty hosts of Republicans and honest Democrats, who place the welfare of the country above party, to victory.

Farmers, laborers, mechanics, remember that John A. Wykoff, the 'Republican candidate for Associate Judge, is a laboring man and will guard your interests on the Bench. Elect him.

It is said we are to have directoire bathing suits next summer. Why can't the modistes let the fashion alone? There is not sufficient cloth in the average bathing suit to cut a slash to be noticeable.

While Governor Hoskill, of Oklaho ma, is in the lime light, it is interesting to know that he is not only Governor, but a member of the Oklahoma Text Book Commission and that one of the text books adopted by the Commission contains the interesting information that when the future historianwrites the history of Oklahoma, he will pay tribute to Gov. Haskell who was elected as a reward for his able counsel and leadership in behalf of the peo-

A careful investigation of the condi-Cameron County Press tions in this Congressional district indicates clearly that Captain Barclay will again carry every county in the district and by increased majorities, notwithstanding the rosy predictions of the gentleman from Centre county. It is a case of facts against fancies.

> A boarding house keeper disposed of his wife and furniture to a boarder for $15, but in as much as the wife was neither real estate nor chatel, it was understood that he sold the furniture and threw her in for good measure.

> It is said that the newly elected governor of Maine is a manufacturer of canned tomatoes. There can be no competition between him and other statesmen who are dealing extensively in canned oratory.

May there not be something sinister in the prophesy of Gov. Hughes' friends that he will run like a race horse this time.

A man in Texas is proclaiming that if he was sure that marriage was a lottery, he would have his mother-in-law indicted for running the one that accepted him.

The optomistic young man from Centre county who thinks he is running for Congress in this district has a most vivid imagination. When he is in Centre county he imagines that he is going to carry every county in the district; when in Cameron he is sure he will carry Centre, Clearfield and McKean; when in Clearfield he tells his friends that Centre, Cameron and Mc-Kean are his beyond question and when in McKean he is dead sure that Centre, Cameron and Clearfield will give him big majorities. When the election is over he will have a less vivid imagination but will find that he has gathered a large crop of very expen sive experience and that Captain Barclay has the votes.

Congressman Barclay At Republican Club

Distinguished Representative and Other Party Candidates Address a Rousing Meeting.

Bradford Star, Sept. 25th.

The Hon. Charles F. Barclay, of Sinnamahoning, Cameron county, who so well represented this district in congress was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Bradford Republican club last night at Repulican headquarters, No. 5, Congress street. Mr. Barclay, the Hon. James A. Mc-Kean, candidate for assembly, Candidates E. L. Marsh, John A. Peterson, candidates for county commissioner. and William H. Morrison, who is running for sheriff, were also present to meet the voters.

President Paton called the meeting to order; there was a large attendance, and it grew as the evening passed. Secretary Boardman read the minutes of the last meeting, after which President Paton announced that on Tuesday next John Hayes Hammond, of Gloucester, Mass., president of the National League of Republican clubs would address a mass meeting at the Lyceum, and that there would be another notable speaker present, whose name he would not yet announce.

Captain Barclay was introduced and he made a good speech on party issues. He contrasted the two presidential candidates and characterized Taft as a man of achievements and Bryan as a man of wind.

Attorney Evan J. Jones, always a witty and interesting speaker. livened up the meeting with a good speech in which he mixed wit with wisdom. J. P. McNarney, of Emporium, was introduced and he made it plain to the voters the importance of being up and doing, and leaving no stone unturned to get out the vote and see that the vote was Republican. He said every man liked to vote for a winner and the way to do it was for every Republican in the county to vote the Republican ticket straight. If they all did that they would have voted for the Candidates James A. McKean and W. H. Morrison delivered brief addresses and were given rousing recep tions, after which that prince of ex temporaneous public speakers, Col. M. H. Houghton was introduced. The colonel was at his best. The topic, Republicanism, is dear to his heart and he made a speech that fairly elec-trified the crowd. It was a thriller and was puctuated with wit and satire of the keenest. He was given an ova-
