

Congressman Chas. F. Barclay Labors Choice.

Under the caption of "Choice for Congress—List of Candidates whose Records we have examined and Found Right," in The United Labor Journal, published at Harrisburg, we clip part of an article concerning Congressman Chas. F. Barclay of this district. In this article it is stated that The United Labor Journal has conducted a careful and thorough investigation of members of congress and selected the friends of labor who should be re-elected. Out of eleven candidates mentioned in this issue Captain Barclay receives an unqualified endorsement as any, a part of which is as follows: "The election of Hon. Charles F. Barclay in the Twenty-first district is assured. His popularity with the masses leaves no doubt as to whether he will be elected. He commands the confidence and admiration of all classes of people with whom he comes in contact. His life record is one of which he has ample reason to be proud. He has risen to his present position of prestige and affluence through inborn qualities of honesty, ability and indomitable energy. Captain Barclay is not a stranger to work. He has had more than a speaking acquaintance with it throughout his entire career of usefulness. He began life as a wage earner and it is safe to say that no living man in the Keystone State more thoroughly understands the needs of the man who toils or who is more keenly sympathetic to those needs than Captain Barclay. This has been clearly demonstrated not only by his official record in the Halls of Congress, but also in all his relations with labor as an employer. The cause of labor will always be safe if placed in the hands of such able and honorable representatives as Captain C. F. Barclay." Organized labor recognizes in President Roosevelt a true friend of labor; all of the great movements started in his administration affect principally and primarily the working people. It is a well known fact that in carrying out his far reaching policies President Roosevelt has at all times had the cordial support of Congressman Barclay. Indeed it may be truthfully said that few representatives in the Halls of Congress stand closer to our President in the moulding of national policies and in the conduct of national affairs than does C. F. Barclay. It is not to be wondered, therefore, that a man who has been tried and found right, who enjoys the confidence of President Roosevelt, should also be entitled to receive the combined support and confidence of the thousands of union men by whom he is held in the highest respect and esteem.

The Usual Democratic Blunder.

The Democratic party never made a greater mistake than when they attacked the sincerity of President Roosevelt.

The American people hold in even higher honor his moral character than they do his universally recognized ability as a Statesman, and it hardly needed the President's vigorous letters to break the thin ice on which the opposition was skating.

Bryan and all his catchy imitations, loose color even before it begins to rain, while most of the Democrats object to wearing green goggles that make dry shavings look like nice clover.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., Oct. 10th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Alarming Illness.

Our citizens were greatly alarmed and concerned about the illness of our respected citizen, Mr. E. G. Coleman of West Fourth street. He was taken ill yesterday morning and remained in an unconscious condition most of the day. Drs. Smith, Heilman and Bush were called and remained with him most of the day and by evening a marked improvement existed, the patient regaining partial consciousness.

The trouble was congestion of the brain, with partial paralysis of left side. His son Edwin and Miss Marth, sister-in-law, of Olean, arrived yesterday evening.

That Street Paving.

Inasmuch as the street paving case will be carried to the Supreme Court by the Borough of Emporium, we refrain from publishing Judge Hall's opinion at this time. Public improvements are always bitterly opposed and we take it from the Judge's decision and opinion as rendered that he personally favored the ordinance; he says.

"We have arrived at this conclusion only after a most careful consideration and very reluctantly, because we feel that in the end it can be of no practical benefit to any one, and that its effect will be merely to delay for a time, a very desirable and much needed improvement in the Borough of Emporium. If there were an appeal from our decision we would feel very much disposed to hold that the Tullis signature was valid in the absence of a condition specifically stated, hoping that the appellate Court might sustain us in the interest of the progress and welfare of the town, but as there is no such appeal, and, therefore, no redress if we should be in error, we are bound under our conscience and our oath to decide the case strictly under the law as it now exists and as we understand it."

Something There to Please All.

A new evidence of the brightness and progressiveness of Emporium will be given Thursday and Friday evenings, Oct. 22d and 23rd, when 200 of our most popular belles and beaux will exhibit their versatility and talent in the Business Men's Carnival, which is to be held at the Opera House under the auspices of the ladies of the M. E. Church, of Emporium.

The author of this sprightly entertainment, Mrs. M. A. Harris, of Carlisle, Pa., has arrived in our town for the purpose of drilling and rehearsing the large cast for this carnival, which is the very latest in home talent productions, and is of the vaudeville order.

Twenty-five spirited specialties are introduced each night, in rapid and sparkling succession, Jews, Reubens, droll colored gentlemen, maiden ladies, wicked boys, Spaniards, Italians and Irishmen to say nothing of the Germans, chase each other in one long ha-ha. Farce and frolic, sense and nonsense, beauty and music vie with each other in the rush to please. All the best and most tuneful of the popular airs will be sung.

Then there are appealing classical pieces to be rendered by our leading vocalists, for those who love really good music.

The skits present the merits of our leading business men in an entirely novel way. Wherever the carnival has been presented, the unanimous verdict has been that it was the very best home talent performance ever given.

Did you ever see two lovers quarrel? Come and see it produced and hear the charming and beautiful music to it, sung by the most gallant of Spanish cavaliers and the daintiest of señoritas.

Did you ever see any fun in Wash-day? Well, you'll see it here; poor Mrs. Brown probably didn't, but you'll be sure to roar.

Suffice it to say there is something in the carnival to please all, and you'll miss some good home talent efforts if you fail to go and see it.

Seriously Injured on Log Train

Last Monday, about noon, Burton W. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Edwards, of Sixth street, while working on Howord Company's North Creek log train. The train stopped at Camp No. 27; Bert was standing between two loaded cars when the brakes were let off, the cars came together with a thud, catching him between the logs. He was brought to his Emporium home Monday afternoon. Drs. Falk and Bush are attending the injured young man and are watching him carefully. If they think there is any serious danger, he will be taken to Williamsport Hospital. He is resting easier at this time.

This Thursday a. m., he is no worse.

Cameron County Republicans

Every Voter Should be Proud to Stand with Such Winners as These.

We want the largest Republican vote this fall ever given in Cameron County.

This is the Winning Ticket.

- |                       |                                 |
|-----------------------|---------------------------------|
| Hon. W. H. Taft       | for President                   |
| Hon. Jas. S. Sherman  | for Vice President              |
| Hon. W. D. Porter     | for Judge of the Superior Court |
| Hon. C. F. Barclay    | for Congress                    |
| Hon. Josiah Howard    | for Assembly                    |
| John A. Wykoff, Esq., | for Associate Judge             |
| Frank G. Judd         | for Sheriff                     |
| John W. Lewis         | for County Commissioner         |
| S. P. Kreider         | for County Commissioner         |
| T. E. Fulton          | for County Auditor              |
| Geo. A. Walker        | for County Auditor              |

This is as good a ticket as was ever presented to the voters of Cameron county and should have a good old fashioned Republican majority like we rolled up for President McKinley and Roosevelt. Keep on the "Sunny Jim" smile, boys.

The Importance of Electing a Republican Congress.

A Republican President with a democratic Congress would result in handicapping the Administration.

A Democratic House would involve the attempt to pass all sorts of vicious legislation that would cause uncertainty in business, check the wheels of progress, and be disastrous to the policies inaugurated by President Roosevelt.

In this Congressional district the Republicans has Captain C. F. Barclay as their candidate for re-election.

He is a veteran of the Civil War. He has been attentive to his duties as a Congressman, and is a sound protectionist.

He has sustained the President in all important legislation.

He is opposed to the free trade doctrine of Bryanism.

He is on the Committee of Pensions, and is in a position to look after the welfare of the old soldiers.

He deserves the hearty support of every Republican in the District.

The Democratic candidate is W. H. Walker.

He is committed to Bryanism and free trade.

He would vote for free trade if elected and impose upon his constituents and the country all the direful disasters that would follow.

But why should people vote for Walker?

He is a clever fellow socially.

He has no qualifications as a legislator.

He has not achieved any great success as a lawyer of twelve years' practice.

He is inclined to be windy, using other person's brains as his capital.

But he has achieved some local renown as a fairly expert chauffeur of a cheap automobile, in which he proudly parades his personal magnificence before the people.

Beyond this he is nil.—Bellefonte Weekly Gazette.

Delightful Trip.

Geo. A. Walker and sister, Miss Grace, returned home last Friday from an extended visit of several weeks, covering the Lakes and principal western cities, in fact they contemplated extending their visit to Pacific coast but were compelled to return home for two reasons—Miss Grace having an engagement to attend a wedding at Shipensburg and George had to look after his political fences. They report a delightful visit.

Frank G. Judd is a good citizen, a good business man and will make a good Sheriff. Vote for him.

Music Lessons.

Miss Ida Seger desires to announce that she is now ready to teach Piano Forte. Special attention given to beginners. Will prefer to call at the homes. 34-4.

Second-Hand Store.

Ferris Swaya has leased the Card building on Broad street and has opened a second-hand store, dealing in clothing, furnishing goods, tinware, stoves, etc. Will purchase anything you may have in clothing or household goods.

Big Sale at Cameron.

Don't forget the big sale of horses, cattle, etc., at Cameron, near the Valley House. Sale will commence at two p. m., Saturday afternoon, Oct. 10th. Get there early.

Died at Buffalo.

Joseph Carr, for twenty years baggage master between Buffalo and Emporium, died at Buffalo on Monday, aged about 55 years. He leaves a wife and five sons. Our citizens will remember him by the "coal color" scar below the right eye.

Republican Club Room.

A Republican Club Room has been fitted up on the second floor of Reading Room building. The public are cordially invited to call and enroll their names and confer one with the other. Mr. R. R. McQuay will be in attendance every evening and important any information desired. Call and get a Taft button and show your colors.

Sterling Run Bees Swarmed.

The members of Silver Star Hive, No. 27, Sterling Run, Pa., held a picnic on Oct. 1st, in honor of the 16th anniversary of the Ladies of the Macabees of the World. The "Bees" spread their tables on the lawn at the residence of Record Keeper, Mary Summerson, whose genial hospitality added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Beauty Basket.

Mr. Lesley Wootten, who, with his wife, is stopping at the residence of Rev. Shriner, presented yesterday, with a beauty basket and flowers, all cut from vegetables. He certainly is a genius. Mr. W., is an expert caterer and cook. Thanks, friend.

We wish to announce to the public that we will close our store promptly at eight o'clock every evening, except Saturday.

LUDLAM.

Everything new this season in Uncle Hez. At Opera House to-night.

Olean's New Librarian.

Miss Maud Brooks, of Olean, who recently catalogued the Emporium Library, was on Sept. 19th, elected librarian of the Olean Public Library, which will be pleasing news to the lady's many Emporium friends. The Olean Times, while speaking of their library, says: "The contract to build the new library building was let to Wm. Hanley, and for the steam heating to Wm. H. Simpson, who were the lowest bidders. The new building, for which Andrew Carnegie makes a gift of $40,000, will be fire proof, 55x80 foot, and two stories high."

The Emporium Library, which is one of the most complete in the country, is maintained almost entirely by Hon. Josiah Howard, who is ever on the watch for improvements. Those who visit our model and up-to-date library, where valued information and interesting literature, of the present, as well as ancient times, can always be found, are loud in their praise of Emporium's library. Reader, do you visit our library? If not, why not?

DEATHS DOINGS

FAY.

The funeral of CHARLES C. FAY, whose sudden death was briefly announced in last week's PRESS, was held from his residence, East Allegany Avenue last Sunday, amid the scenes of a busy life. The funeral was very largely attended, scores of old time friends from all sections being present to pay that last mark of respect due an honored citizen. Rev. Mr. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, conducted the services and delivered a very able discourse. The singing was furnished by the H. O. Olmsted quartet, a blend of voices hard to surpass. The casket bearers were old-time friends of the family, viz: Riley Warner, R. Seger, R. M. Overhiser, F. Parsons, M. M. Larrabee, F. X. Blumle.

The floral offerings from the family and friends were beautiful and numerous.

Those relatives and friends from a distance in attendance at the funeral were:

Mrs. R. S. Johnson, Corry; Miss Ettie Hitchcock, Sonyea, N. Y., Mr. Alonzo and Mr. Alfonso Baker, DuBois, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Perry R. Smith, Ridgway; U. A. Palmer of Cuba, N. Y.

Our acquaintance with the deceased dates back about forty years, in fact he was one of the "big men" as a boy we delighted to look at—large, noble looking and big-hearted. This friendship of boyhood days lasted without an interruption to the last. Mr. Fay was one of those blunt, dyed-in-the-wool Republicans and seldom if ever stepped aside from his beaten political path. He was kind and charitable, to a fault, and during the many years that he conducted the St. Charles Hotel, which he erected, the weary traveler was hospitably received. His active life as an extensive farmer and hotel proprietor continued up to a few weeks of his death, which occurred last Wednesday, Sept. 30th, 1908, in the ripe old age of 82 years, ten months and fifteen days—passing away after an illness of only a few days. "St. Charles Fay" will be long and honorably remembered by our citizens.

Deceased was born in Essex county, N. Y., Nov. 5th, 1825, of English and Welsh parents. He came to Emporium in 1859 and was for many years engaged in lumbering. His wife died several years ago. Of three children only one survives him, Lida R., wife of our respected townsman and merchant, Mr. Thomas H. Norris. Being a careful business man he accumulated considerable property. How rapidly the old land marks are passing away.

NEENAN.

MRS. ELLEN NEENAN, aged 65 years, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. S. St. Don, on Saturday, October 3d, and the funeral was held on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, from St. Mark's Catholic church, the Rev. Father T. B. Downey officiating. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased is survived by five children, Mrs. S. St. Don of Emporium; Mrs. Geo. Wykoff of Bradford; Mrs. George Rupert of Hyner and Mr. John Neenan.

SANFORD.

James Sanford, aged 67, died at his home, near Beechwood, on Thursday, his funeral taking place on Sunday. He was the last of the Sanfords.

John A. Wykoff, for Associate Judge, is rapidly gaining friends. He will make an upright Judge—fair and impartial.

Will Make Votes for Capt. C. F. Barclay.

When Mr. Walker was nominated for Congress by the Democrats, Captain Barclay, and the Republican Party, assumed that he was a gentleman; have at all times endeavored to treat him as one, and sincerely desire to continue so to do. Some of the Democratic papers in the district, and it is said that Mr. Walker himself, have been making personal attacks upon Mr. Barclay, that they know to be absolutely without truth.

We sincerely hope and want to believe, that Mr. Walker is in no way responsible for these attacks upon the character and business reputation of Mr. Barclay, whose whole life is a refutation of them; and unless we are mistaken in assuming that Mr. Walker is a gentleman, we are sure he will put an end to them at once.

Letter From Almeron Chapman.

NEW WENACHEE, WASH.

Sept 28th, 1908.

FRIEND MULLIN:—I am spending a few weeks vacation in the Wenachee Valley enjoying its beautiful scenery, its lofty peaks, snow clad, on the Cascade range, its beautiful orchards, laden with fruits of all kinds, which can better be described by using the language of Bishop Hughes, of the M. E. Church, in writing home to his son, in describing the country said: "A land where plums grow as big as peaches, peaches as big as apples, apples as big as cantalopes, cantalopes as big as melons, melons as big as pumpkins." When here a few weeks ago, presiding at the Columbia River Conference, he said: "This is a land where plums grow as big as peaches, etc., and melons as big as pumpkins, and pumpkins as big as all out doors." He might have added as dusty as all creation. The soil is of a volcanic ash, and the dry weather, and high winds make it almost unendurable at times. There is no growing vegetation without irrigation from May to October, but with irrigation excellent crops and fruit are grown.

We will return to Spokane in about two weeks and be ready to help carry the State of Washington for Taft and Sherman, which we have not a bit of doubt of doing.

I enclose you a postal order for $1.50. Please send the PRESS along for another year.

Respectfully yours,
A. CHAPMAN,
1712 Spofford Ave.,
Spokane, Wash.,

Hon. Josiah Howard, our nominee for the legislature, will have the largest majority he ever received in Cameron county. He stands for you and the good of the state and county. Make his election unanimous.

Four sets of new and beautiful scenery in Uncle Haz. At Opera House to-night.
