

R. KUEHNE,

Emporium's Best Store
Sells the Nemo Corsets

Why? Because it is our policy to give our customers the very best value for their money. "Nemo" Corsets are to-day the best to be had. You get more value, better wear and what's most important the greatest comfort from them. Ask your friend or neighbor who wears one.

Nemo Kosmo Corset

Just the corset for women who are "hard on corsets." Made of stout coutil, with all the usual Nemo strength and durability; the Nemo "Triple-Strip Re-enforcement" (bones and steels cannot cut through); and the Nemo "Unbreakable Hip," which doubles the life of this corset.

No corset like it for every-day hard use—good service is "sewed into it." Will out-wear two ordinary $1.50 corsets. Two models: No. 159, for medium and tall figures; and No. 160, with longer hip and lower bust, for stout figures. Prices for either model: In sizes 18 to 30.....$1.50 In sizes 31 to 36.....$1.75 A favorite "stout woman's" corset" in the larger sizes. And economical, because it wears so long.

Nemo "Self-Reducing" Corsets

WITH "FLATTENING-BACK"

The only corsets in the world that will reduce the figure "all around," and do it comfortably.

The only corsets that will give a stout woman the "new figure," with flat back and slender hips.

Model No. 320 is designed for stout women who are tall. Model No. 318 is suitable for short-waisted stout women. Of white coutil or batiste, in white or drab....$3.00

Model No. 517 is made of fine imported white French coutil, and is designed for tall stout figures. A beautiful corset....$5.00

Model No. 1000, at $10.00, is the most perfect corset ever made for a stout figure. Has triple reducing straps over the hips. Equal in quality, style and finish to the best French or made-to-order corset you can buy at double the price.

There is no substitute for the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset. It is "the corset which never had a rival."

A Word to First Voters

YOU, young man, who are about to cast your first ballot, are facing a grave responsibility.

Hitherto you have passively enjoyed the benefits of this Republic. Now you are to become an active factor in the government of the nation, assuming the full burden of the duties of citizenship.

Though the privilege to vote comes to you without effort, do not forget that to win it men fought in battlefield and forum, and that to obtain it other men left their homes in foreign lands, severing many ties and starting life anew.

What will you do with your ballot?

It is no light matter for you to decide how you shall cast your first vote, nor should you let yourself be swayed by whim or prejudice. The whole subject lies before you for calm consideration, and it is your duty to give it this consideration.

With your first vote you ally yourself with a political party. You have the opportunity to enroll yourself with the Republicans, who have made this nation what it is to-day; who have kept the faith bequeathed to them by the fathers and established a firm standard of sound statesmanship, administering the government through men of proved experience and integrity.

If you make that choice you associate yourself at once with men of achievement, leaders of the nation, and with a party of honorable tradition and performance. You become identified with the advance of civilization and can with proper pride feel that you have helped toward progress.

But if any whim impels you to cast your lot with the opponents of those who have accomplished so much, reflect well before you follow the impulse, for the so-called Democratic party of to-day has drifted completely away from its former ideal, reeling like a weathercock under the influence of untried and visionary leaders who champion policies born of political expediency. Remember that if you assist toward plunging the nation into want, discontent and disorder, destroying both domestic and foreign credit, some of the blame and disgrace will rest upon you.

For this year you have a voice in the election of a President of the United States.

The Democrats put forward as their candidate a politician who has changed his beliefs repeatedly, who is unstable, and untried, and is distrusted even by members of the party under whose name he conducts his canvass, many of whom make no secret of their intention to vote against him; whose very nomination created widespread alarm among business men.

The Republicans offer as their candidate for the Presidency a fearless, disinterested and upright man, trained in the severe school of duty, whose career of accomplishment assures his fitness, whose record is one of unceasing industry in exacting tasks and contains no hint of failure; whose personality has won the esteem and approval of the American people.

His reputation for absolute spotlessness in both public and private life is as well known abroad as it is at home. By temperament, capacity and experience he is qualified for the administration of great affairs of state. He has shown a single-minded devotion to the service of his country, with a broad and human sympathy to which sound appeal is never unavailing.

This man is William Howard Taft.

Associated with him on the ticket is James Schoolcraft Sherman, who for many years has sat in the councils of the nation, and is skilled in the conduct of public affairs.

Young man, you stand on the threshold of decision. Your first step into the world of politics will have a strong influence on your life, affecting your associations and your business.

Before making your decision and taking a step that cannot be retraced, read what is said on this matter by two statesmen of unquestioned probity, devoted to the best interests of the nation, and honored for their high standards of political morality. These men are Charles E. Hughes, Governor of New York and Albert J. Beveridge, Senator from Indiana.

Governor Hughes: When we hear sounded a strident call to the defense of popular rights, we look carefully to see who constitute the new patriotic army into whose keeping we are asked to turn over the destinies of this great nation. The campaign watchwords "Shall the People Rule?" and the demand "Whether the government shall remain a mere business asset of favor-seeking corporations" are not impressive when emblazoned on the banners of Tammany Hall and of other essential allies. The army opposing us cannot pass muster either as one of defense or of salvation, and we may well pause before we permit it, despite its boast of fidelity, to garrison our institutions.

No one more than I desires to see administration purged of every selfish taint, to have fair and impartial laws faithfully executed, to get rid of every vestige of special privilege at the expense of public interest, to liberate trade from unjust encroachments, purify our electoral methods and to maintain honest representative government. And it is because of his loyalty to these ideals, because of his broad sympathies and his rare equipment in character, ability and experience, because tested in the difficult fields of judicial and administrative work he has proved his quality by eminent service, because of his varied learning, his acquaintance with affairs, his respect for constitutional government, and his capacity intelligently and justly to plan and direct necessary reforms that I most earnestly support the candidacy of William Howard Taft.

Senator Beveridge: The real question is, Which candidate will make the better President? Which is the wiser and steadier? Which man would you choose as administrator of your estate? Which would you select to manage your business? Which has the better training and more experience?

Mr. Bryan never had handled a single foreign problem. He has governed no Philippines, regenerated no Cuba, built no Canal, avoided no alien danger, saved us from no threatened peril.

Mr. Taft has done all. It was his genius for the practical and devotion to humanity that took Philippine chaos and made Philippine order; took Philippine hate and changed it, by the alchemy of his tact, to Philippine love. It was his statesmanship that achieved the impossible, converted an oriental people into a voting citizenship, and laid the foundation for a future which, as God wills, may become a separate nation or a glad and patriotic part of this great republic.

It was William H. Taft who set Cuba in order, established her feet in civilization's upward path; and it was he who, when so directed by President Roosevelt, who first advised with Mr. Taft, when these children of liberty tore his work to pieces, set up once more the blessed rule of order and liberty and law with a father's patience and a statesman's wisdom. It is he who is commanding the practical work of that greatest enterprise of human history, the building of the Panama Canal.

It was he whose counsel President Roosevelt sought at every crisis of his historic administration; he who helped avert war when little politicians and narrow minds would have plunged us into conflict. It was William H. Taft, whom our President, when confronted with foreign perplexities and with the awful weight of our ninety millions' welfare on his heart, sought for strength and wisdom; and it is William H. Taft more than any man ever called to the leadership of the American people who has had the best training, the widest experience, and the wisest teaching to fit him for that glorious but serious task.

HASKELL IS NOT THE ONLY BURDEN

Bryan Handicapped by Kerr's Corporation Connections.

GUFFEY MEN NOW LAUGHING

[Special Correspondence.]
New York, Oct.

Pennsylvanians, both Republicans and Democrats, will be interested in disclosures made by a correspondent of the New York Sun regarding the corporation connections of Bryan's intimate friend, James Kerr, of Clearfield, Pa., whom he catapulted into the Democratic national committee at Denver after the Haskell steam roller, at Bryan's direction, had crushed out Colonel James M. Guffey, who had not only subscribed many thousands of dollars to Bryan's campaign funds, but also furnished free of cost the stained glass windows which adorn the Bryan household at Lincoln.

Haskell, owing to the exposure of his Standard Oil connections, has had to retire from the treasurership of the Democratic national committee. But Kerr still holds on.

Kerr and Corporations.

Here is what a New York Sun correspondent has just written about Mr. Kerr:

"To the accompaniment of the blare of trumpets and the waving of many flags, Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, was convicted at Denver of the unpardonable sin of being a corporation man, and the spotless James Kerr was installed in his place as Democratic national committeeman from the Keystone state. Never mind the fact that Colonel Guffey was the selection by a large majority of the properly constituted delegation of Democrats of his state. The state is hopelessly for Taft anyway, and therefore personal animosities must be gratified while the ancient bluff of 'peepul' is carried out.

"The Peerless Leader therefore smiled expansively and the faithful cohorts chortled for joy when the wicked Mr. Guffey was exiled and that well-known corporation hater, 'free from spot or blemish or any such thing,' was presented faultless before the representatives of the downtrodden masses!

"But what is this we find? Upon taking up the Directory of Directors for the year 1907-08—a satanic roll of malefactors, appropriately bound in red—we discover on page 347 the following entry:

A Pretty Good List.

"Kerr, James, president and director Beech Creek Coal & Coke company, 17 Battery place.

"American Union Telephone company, Harrisburg, Pa., director.

"Automatic Coaling & Weighing Barge company, of Delaware, president and director.

"Beech Creek Railroad company, director.

"Chest Creek Railroad company, director.

"Clearfield Manufacturing company, president and director.

"Clearfield Trust company, director.

"Commonwealth Coal & Coke company, president and director.

"Farmers' bank of Indiana, Pa., director.

"First National bank, Patton, Pa., director.

"Hooverhurst & Southwestern railroad, president and director.

"Iroquois China company, president and director.

"National Corporation Securities company, president and director.

"New York Weighing Barge & Coaling company, president and director.

"North River Coal & Wharf company, president and director.

"O'Gara Coal company, director.

"Pennsylvania, Beech Creek & Eastern Coal company, president and director.

"Pennsylvania Coal & Coke company, director.

"Pennsylvania Construction & Investment company, president and director.

"Philadelphia Record, director.

"Potts Run Land company, president and director.

Looking Backward.

"As the late Hon. Henry Clay Barnabee was wont feelingly to remark: 'Another fond hope shattered!'

"Can this exalted apostle of civic righteousness be the same James Kerr who for years has shared with that other disinterested Democrat and one time candidate for governor of New York, the Hon. John B. Stanchfield, the distinction—representable but remunerative—of safeguarding the interests of the New York Central in the regions which lie between Geneva on the north and Williamsport on the south? Can this same Mr. Kerr be the immaculate defender of the 'peepul's rights who in the organization of the New York Central's coal corporation, the 'Beech Creek Coal & Coke company,' sat in his office and 'created wealth' by signing up an artistic collection of common stock certificates which were not heavily weighed down by mere physical assets as equity thereto?"

"Alas! Alas! How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war perished! IT IS TO LAUGH."
