Bear tracks were discovered at the head of Big Run Saturday, but it seems that the bears cannot bear to bare their bearships to the hunters' bullets and the mountains are too bare for the bears to bear to stay around Huntley.

Assistant Foreman A. T. Smith, our popular friend and citizen, ate his Thanksgiving dinner with Squire Sullivan. While discussing his after dinner cigar, Captain C. Wesley Barr dropped in, and the two gentlemen fell to discussing the matrimonial question. Mr. Smith claimed that no man should remain a widower over three years at the longest and called on Foreman W. W. Johnson to corroborate his argument. Captain Barr was forced to admit himself beaten and after things became quiet, Mr. Smith sang the following song to the music of Thomas Roberts' violin, entitled, "The Merry Widowers."

We are two "Merry Widowers" our names are "Al" and "Bill,"

We're neither young nor giddy but we're in the market still,

We both have just passed forty, but we want you all to know,

We're the warmest pair in Huntley, where the laurels grow.

Our habits are the very best and we both have good jobs,

We go to church on Sunday and we neither steal or rob;

If there are any ladies who onjus their love bestow,

They can live with us in Huntley, where the laurels grow.
