MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets would have given him instant relief—would have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and indigestion can never bother you.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets cure stomach troubles by supplying the one element, the absence of which is the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They enable the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to cure indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Price, 25 cents per full package. Sold only at our store or by mail Mrs. M. A. Rockwell, Emporium, Pa.

The Emporium Poultry Association Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Emporium Poultry Association was held in their rooms Monday evening, Jan. 4th, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John Cummings; Vice President, Joseph Lechner; Secretary and Treasurer, A. H. Forbes; General Auditor and Correspondent, J. F. Sullivan, of Huntley, Pa.

The poultry situation in Pennsylvania was discussed and the matter of feeding for egg production was taken up and it was decided that Felt's Matchless Egg Food was best balanced ration yet to be used for egg production. Postmaster Charles Seger made a short address, which was very entertaining and instructive. Judge Brennan, our popular County Auditor, made the motion that "Squire" Sullivan give an appropriate song, but owing to Sullivan's natural modesty it was some time before he would consent; however he at last got started and sang the following which we submit to our readers this week: "The Sweetest Song of All."

Some love the bright canary's song, and some admire the wren's. But to my mind the sweetest song comes from the laying hen; She sings the song of plenty and of better times to come. Each time we hear her welcome voice, we know her duty's done; She helps her owner's hands to free himself from want's strong shackles, And every time she lays an egg, we hear her cheerful cackle. The eagle picture on our coins, we view with satisfaction. But the laying hen with her fine eggs has also great attractions; The Eagle and the Hen we cheer as long as we are able. The Eagles picture on our coins, the hens eggs on our tables; If you would hear the hens sweet song and also profit by it, Just phone or write to C.H. Felt and he will not deny it. That Matchless Egg Food, makes hens lay, it is the only ration That satisfies the laying hen, throughout the entire Nation. J. F. S.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23rd, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by Taggart.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For sale by Taggart.
